The Honorable James R. Jones
U. S. House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Congressman:

The Monitor would very much appreciate your answers to the following questions:

1. Do you think Nixon impeachment proceedings in the House now are possible? Yes (✓) No ( )
2. Are they likely? Yes ( ) No (✓)
3. Do you think that the House would vote to impeach? Yes ( ) No (✓)
4. If your answer is yes to the above question, do you think the Senate would then vote to impeach? Yes ( ) No (✓)
5. Has the President's credibility been so reduced that he no longer can govern effectively? Yes (✓) No ( )
6. Do you think it is likely that the President will be able to regain the credibility he has lost as the result of Watergate? Yes (✓) No ( )
7. In short, if Mr. Nixon should remain on and <sup>SOME</sup> not be impeached, do you think he will be a handicapped President for the next three years? Yes (✓) No ( )
8. Wholly apart from the impeachment possibilities, do you think the President might resign? Yes ( ) No (✓)

Many thanks. If you would prefer to reply ANONYMOUSLY, please cut off the top of this page. BUT PLEASE ANSWER. The Monitor wants the broadest base of answers we can possibly get--to bring as much validity as possible to the conclusions we reach in this survey.

Sincerely,

Godfrey Sperling Jr
