

April 24, 1931.

Students' Lounge, Siefert Gymnasium, University of Santa Clara.

The Catala Club in monthly session this date, Mrs. George L. Sullivan presiding, had as special guest and speaker Rev. Father Cornelius Deeney, S.J., who spoke on the place which the University of Santa Clara holds in educational history.

Santa Clara being the oldest college in California, it is but fitting that the Catala Club incorporate in its annals the following historical data as compiled by Father Deeney and presented to the members at this meeting.

Organized education began at Santa Clara in January 1777.

There was under Father Catala, the Holy Man of Santa Clara during the Franciscan regime, the education of the Indians and
