LOVING MEMORIES

FLORAL BEARERS/ PALLBEARERS Family & Friends

MANY THANKS

The family extends our deepest gratitude to our family and friends for your comforting expressions of love and concern shown during his illness and our time of bereavement.

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we must all take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do,
Miss me, but let me go.*

Robert James Taylor was born on January 28, 1949 in Bluefield, West Virginia to the late Robert "Bob" Taylor and Bertha Mae Taylor. Robert departed this earth on January 10, 2020. On June 3, 1981 Robert united with Lena Teressa Smith to whom he was married for 40 years.

Robert was always mindful of serving the Lord and keeping his faith "first" in the pursuit of more wisdom and understanding of the Lord. During his later years of good health, he frequently attended Mount Calvary Word of Faith under the leadership of Pastor Shirley Caesar-Williams.

Robert attended grammar school and completed his secondary education while still residing in Bluefield, West Virginia. Following high school Robert attended the Job Corps in Horse Cave, Kentucky, and went on to serve his country in the United States Army. After retiring from the military Robert pursued truck driver certification in Washington D.C. and worked as a long-distance truck driver for many years. After relocating to North Carolina Robert furthered his education at Kings College in Raleigh, North Carolina. Robert later worked for and retired from the City of Raleigh as a truck driver and auto-diesel mechanic.

Robert was a loving and faithful husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. He leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Lena Teressa Taylor of Raleigh, NC; three sons and two daughters: James Taylor (Latrise) of Nashville, TN, Pamela Taylor Carter (Michael) of Bowling Green, KY, Teddy Taylor (Debbie) of Bowling Green, KY, Robbie Taylor of Bowling Green, KY, and Delissa Taylor Hite (Donte) of Wendell, NC; six brothers: Howard Fitzgerald of Baltimore, MD, Michael Taylor (Arnetta) of Princeton, WV, Daniel Taylor (Sue) of Bluefield, WV, Marshall Taylor of Tazewell, VA, Bartholomew Taylor (Vivian) of Tipton, GA, Lewis Taylor (Patricia) of Blackstone, VA; and the late Thomas Theodore Taylor; two sisters: Armanda Fitzgerald of Bluefield, WV and Margaret Mayfield of Silver Springs, MD; honorary daughter, LaCassie Taylor; twenty-four grandchildren; eighteen great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family, and friends.
