

Uncle Owen Henry. Greene County History Museum, Work Exhibit.

“Uncle Owen” Henry is fondly remembered in a memoir by Mary Nelle Royal Graves. He came to live with Samuel and Mary Dunlap Henry as a small boy in the years just after the Civil War. He became a “man of all work,” who cared for the yard and garden and ran errands. He was also a master storyteller.