

MAYOR FAUCETTE

DONATES FLAG

---

To the McDowell Street
Colored School—All
Now Decorated

---

Mayor J. H. Faucette, of Bristol, Tenn., has donated a huge American flag to the McDowell street colored school. The flag has been raised to the top of the building. Every colored schools in the city is now decorated with the National colors.

Plans are being perfected for formal flag raisings on every school in the city, including the two colleges. The events will be marked with imposing ceremonies and addresses by several leading citizens. It is likely special exercises by the school children will feature the occasions.

School children in the various schools have taken a lively interest in patriotic demonstrations and many have adorned their desks with flags. School rooms are also decorated.

---