

Homecoming Queen Contestant

Angela Yvette Campbell of Greeneville, daughter of Charles and Ella Ford, will represent the Black Affairs Association as its homecoming queen candidate at East Tennessee State University Oct. 18. The queen and her court will be crowned, following an 11:30 luncheon and noon campus parade, during halftime activities at the 2 p.m. homecoming game between ETSU and Marshall University. A junior social work major, Angela is co-captain of the ETSU colorguard and is in the ETSU winterguard. She is a former Greene County Fairest of the Fair and is the current Maid of Ramps.
