

GLEE CLUB HAS MORE ENGAGEMENTS

The Negro Glee Club, organized under the auspices of the Negro Business League, continues to receive calls to furnish music for white patrons. The club will go to Blountville to fill an engagement on October 2, and will appear at 8 p. m. On October 5 at 8 p. m. the same singers will give an entertainment for the benefit of the patrons of the high school at Bloomington. This organization is proving most successful, and its music has charmed many audiences. Robert E. Clay, president of the Negro Business League, will accompany the club and will make a brief address on each occasion.
