

CURLY MANUS FUNERAL HELD

Funeral services for Curly Manus, colored, aged 25, who died at the home of her father Thursday night from the effects of pneumonia, were conducted from the home at 11:00 o'clock yesterday morning with Rev. Mr. Price officiating. Interment followed in the cemetery near the Old Presbyterian Church, located in Old Kingsport.

She was the daughter of George Manus, one of Kingsport's oldest negro residents. The deceased was also a member of the colored church, and an active worker in the church.

A large crowd attended the funeral and many flowers were lain on the casket by friends.
