DEAR OLD DOUGLASS

ALMA MATER

Hail Dear Old Douglass
Proudly you've braved the strife
Through many weary years
As time marched on.
Loyal Sons and Daughters, true,
Ever will sing thy praise;
And to uphold your name
Dear Douglass Hail!

Hail! Dear Old Douglass,
Thy light of knowledge burns.
Thy hearty friendship spreads
Throughout the lands.
Melodies of youths' fair dreams
None shall our hearts outcast
All rise and loud proclaim,
Al-ma Ma-ter Hail!

GREETINGS

Alumni, Sport Fans, and Friends, the Douglass Family is always happy to have you share in its activities, especially Homecoming. We have enjoyed planning this event for you and hope that every moment of your participation will be pleasant.

I am privileged and pleased to express my thanks for your support. Your loyalty is symbolic of your love, respect and of your desire to uphold the ideas and standards of Dear Old Douglass.

We are delighted to continue our pleasant relations with George Clem and we hope that this will be a profitable and most pleasant year for all.

MR. BREEDLOVE

Sincerely yours,
H. K. Breedlove, Principal
Douglass High School

GREETINGS

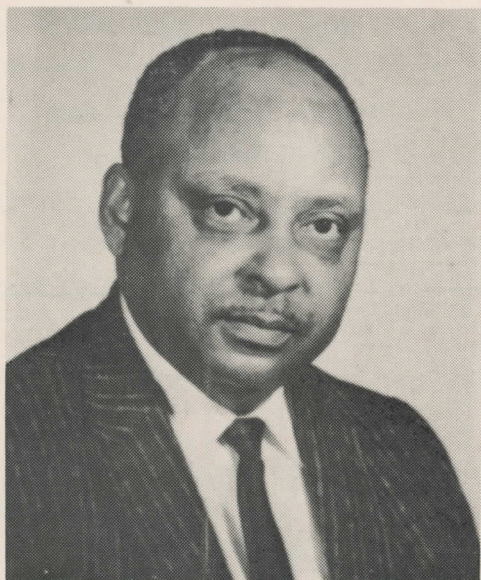

The George Clem School of Greenville, Tennessee is delighted to be your guest on this occasion.

Through the years, there has existed a healthy and friendly relationship between the two schools.

On this, your Homecoming, we are proud to compete on the gridiron.

Let this be our motto: "It is easy to smile when you win; but to smile when you have lost, requires courage." It is better to lose with honor than to win dishonestly.

Yours very truly,
W. H. DeLaney, Principal
George Clem High School

MR. DELANEY

MISS HOMECOMING AND HER ROYAL COURT

Our Homecoming Queen, Peggy Fuqua, is a member of the Senior Class at Douglass and resides with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fuqua, Jr. in Abingdon, Virginia

Peggy is active in school and participates very enthusiastically in many extra-curricular activities. She is a member of the New Homemakers of America, Industrial Cooperative Training, and Y-Teens. She has made outstanding contributions to these fine organizations. Her hobbies include sewing and cooking and her favorite colors are blue, red, and gold.

Upon graduation from Douglass, Peggy plans to enter a school of cosmetology.

GREETINGS

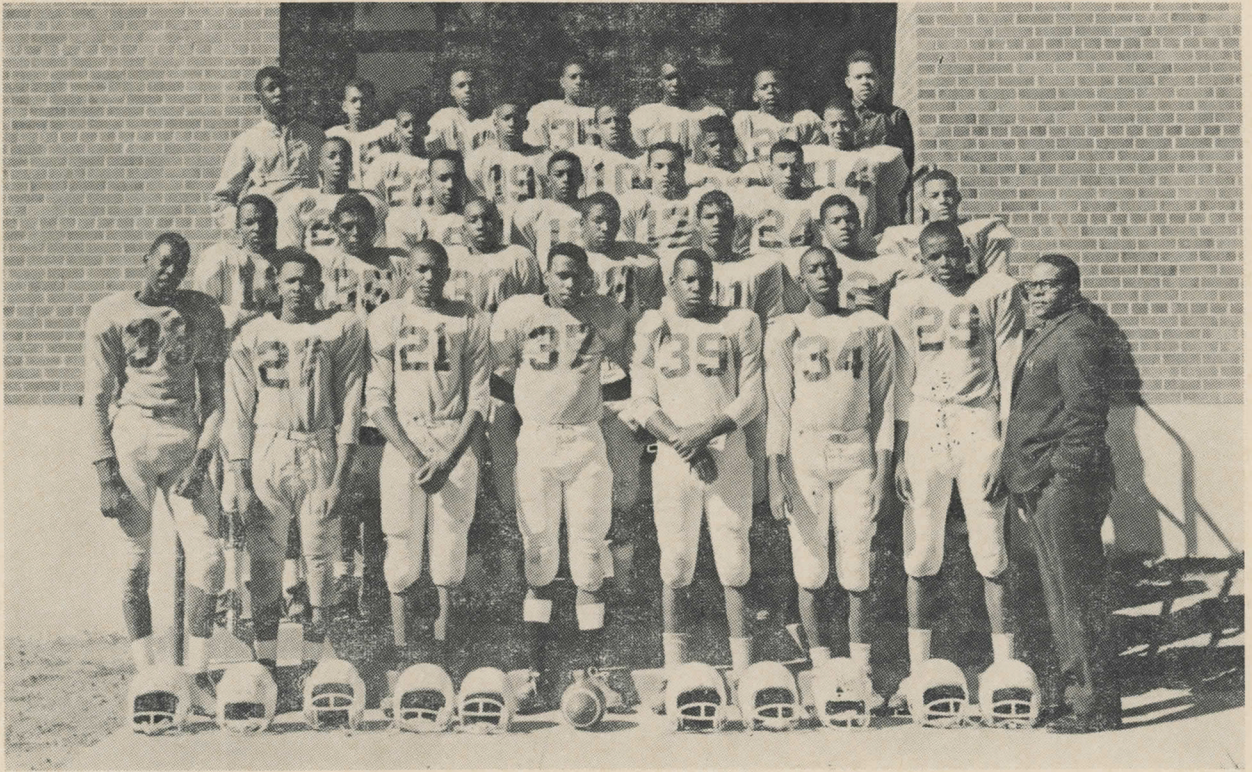

Parents, Alumni, Fellow Students, and Friends, it is a pleasure to welcome you to our annual Douglass "Demon" Homecoming. It is the sincere desire of the Student Council that you visit with us at all of our activities.

The new addition to Douglass is an inspiration to us. As we walk through the corridors of our fine building, we are striving to obtain a quality education in order that we may prepare ourselves to become leaders in the struggle for a better world.

We are looking forward to another successful year, thus, we are asking you to continue your good school spirit and faithful support as we endeavor to make this truly another outstanding year for the "Gold and Blue."
