

INTEREST HIGH IN DOUGLASS LIBRARY

300 Books Have Been Circulated in Two Months Among Colored People

Increasing interest has been shown in the public library at Douglass school since the opening of the library for colored people in July. A total of 300 books have been circulated, with 200 adults and 115 children taking advantage of the opportunities.

Leaders in promoting the project said yesterday that since the Douglass public library is one of the few recreational opportunities for the colored people of Bristol, it is hoped they will continue to avail themselves of its services.

The librarian acknowledged donations of money and books during the summer. Among those who have donated books and their titles: John Wesley church, "Behind God's Back" (Farson); Masonic lodge, "South of the Congo" (James); Mrs. Paul Cooke, "Life of George Washington Carver" (Holt), and Miss Elizabeth Guthrie, "Assignment in Brittany." Several books have also been donated by Mrs. Robert A. Armstrong, Mrs. Virginia Harwood, Dr. J. C. Matthews, Dr. R. A. Brown, and Miss Victoria Baker.

Other books that have been added to the library recently are: Little Known Facts About Well Known People (Carnegie); Only the Stars Are Neutral (Reynolds); Years In, You're Out (Hoffestein); And Now Tomorrow (Field); Finding A Way Out (Moton); Chopin, The Man and His Music (Huneker); The Standard Opera Glass (Annesley); Marie Claire (Andoux); See Here, Private Hargrove (Hargrove); For Whom the Bells Toll (Hemingway); Frenchman's Creek (Du Maurier); Mrs. Miniver (Struther); Burma Road (Smith); The Nile (Ludwig), and My Name Is Aram (Saroyan).
