

Dr. R. B. McArthur

A practicing physician and surgeon has been located in Bristol five years. Is prominent in church work and a member of several local fraternities.

He was born in Red Springs, N. C., July 9th, 1884.

He attended high school at Statesville, N. C., and entered Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., in 1899, receiving his diploma from normal courses in 1904.

He received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from said institution in 1908, and attended Shaw University in 1909. He graduated from Meharry Medical Colleges in 1912.

He also holds diploma as graduate interne of Boyd's Hospital, Nashville, Tenn., and spent a year as externe in Hubbard Hospital, Nashville, Tenn.

He is a member of the Medical Council (Col.) of East Tennessee.