

Sun Photo by Jody Snyder

Negro Women's Civic Club Has Annual Luncheon

The Negro Women's Civic Club held its annual spring luncheon at the club house on Davis Street on May 17. This was the club's 53rd luncheon. It was attended by more than 55 people, including a number of out-of-town guests. Sharon Jefferson entertained the club with an interpretive dialogue of songs. The guest speaker was Evangelist Anissa Peterson, who encouraged the women to stay strong in all their endeavors. Pictured are, from left: front row: Anissa Peterson; Wanda Ripley; Mary Lee Miller; Evelyn Perkins; Sylvia Bowers; and Helen Knuckles, club president; back row: Betty Barner, chaplain; Anna Maddox, vice president; Ruth Hall; Barbara Barner; and Frances Taylor.