

Douglass High Makes Plans For Home Game

JEWEL McCOLLUM

Tonight will be the first 1953 Douglass High home game at the Municipal Stadium. The kick-off will be at 8 p. m. and we hope to "bring home the pigskin." We successfully, won our second game, 26-6, against Douglass of Kingsport, but we lost our first game to Bluefield, Va. 6-13. Hazard was defeated by Kingsport 6-7.

We shall have our first social of the season following the game in the gymnasium. It has also been reported that a bus will run from Abingdon in order for the people to attend our games.

Wednesday was a busy day for the DHS Student Democracy members. It was the voting day for selecting "Miss Homecoming." The contestants were Nancy Austin, Mary Black, Geraldine Cotten, Katie Deboise, Joan Fuller, Beatrice Fuller, Barbara Hughes, and Jane Sheffey.

We are happy to announce that Mary Black, a senior, won and the others will be her attendants. She will ride in the parade Thursday, October 22, at 2 p. m. We are to be host to the "Lynch Pirates" of Lynch, Kentucky.

The Student Democracy meeting was held with an address by the Principal H. K. Breedlove.

Among the plans for the year is an "all clubs chapel program" November 5. Another project is to purchase song books for the school. Other plans will be announced later in the year.

The faculty and student body are anticipating the coming of the 9th District PTA congress to DHS November 7. More about the program will be released by the local PTA president, Willis Mitchell.

The following area schools are represented: Abingdon, Bristol, Christiansburg, Glade Spring, Marion, Meadowview, Roanoke, Salem, Saltville and Wytheville.
