

NEW LIBRARY CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY

The Library Club which was recently organized at Douglass public library will meet at the library Thursday at 8 p.m.

The club has for its purpose the stimulation of interest on the part of local colored citizens in reading for information and reaction, thereby contributing to the cultural development of its members of the community at large, and to acquaint its members with the works of leading authors and keep colored citizens informed on current topics.

Approximately 50 members were present at the initial meeting and the club desires to reach every colored citizen in the city who is interested in reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burley, members of the club, have placed on the library shelves a copy of "Disputed Passage," by Lloyd Douglass, as a memoriam to Mrs. Burley's mother, Mrs. Rosanna Montgomery.
