
COLORED CHURCH

GETS NEW PASTOR

Rev. Williams Takes Over Pastorate of Bristol Highway M. E. Colored Church

Rev. Arthur D. Williams took over the pastorate of the Bristol Highway M. E. church (colored) here Sunday. He arrived in the city Saturday, coming from West Chester, Pa., where he has been pastor of one of the most prominent colored churches for the past two years.

Rev. Williams succeeds Rev. W. R. Marbury, who died last fall, as pastor of the Bristol Highway M. E. (colored) church. Since the death of Rev. Marbury the church had had no regular pastor.

The new pastor conducted services at the church Sunday, giving his flock proof of his ability as a pastor. There were twelve conversions at the morning service Sunday.

SPAIN GIVES MODEL OF THE