

Winners named in Old Time Saturday contests

A number of winners have been recognized in contests held in conjunction with Old Time Saturday on October 5.

The photography contest was judged by The Standard Banner's own Ronnie Housley.

Housley's (and others') first choice was a remarkable photo collage of Nelson Merry students assembled by Julia Taliaferro.

Second place went to a photograph of three ladies in bonnets and third place was a picture of family members perched on the hood of an old car.

Crafters Awards were handed out to the Leaf and Wildflower Crafts booth, first place; Flowers, Feathers & Birdhouses, second place; and third place went to Candles & Crafts.

Judging of antique tractors put number 2, an F-12 Farm All in first place; number 12, a M Model Farm All in second place; and in third place, number 4, a Super 55 Oliver.

The quilt show was judged by viewers and they selected the people's choice award winners, who were Kathleen VanOrsdel, first place; Brandi Luttrell, second place; and Teresa Quarles, third place.

In the antique car division the winners were: First place, car #6, a 1965 Ford Fairlane; Second place, car #8, a 1966 Ford pickup truck; and Third place, car #2, a 1985 El Camino.
