ANNUAL SUMMARY OF PROGRESS TOWARD ACHIEVING OBJECTS

The pupils have a better understanding of the things that make good citizens.

They have learned to have respect for others' rights. We have put into effect the use of Good Manners and Courtesy.

They have studied and practiced good health habits and safety rules.

All the pupils have done a lot of supplementary reading from library books.

SCHOOL OBJECTIVES

To promote habits and attitudes, among pupils for developing and maintaining maximum physical efficiency. To provide for the development of good citizenship. To develop an interest in reading, spelling and language. To promote an understanding in mathematics as related to every day experiences. To understand conservation. To understand the role of the home, school and church in our culture.

Formulated By Mrs Virginia Sylvers
Watonga (Col)

CLASSROOM OBJECTIVES

To teach the children to try to improve relationships among all persons and groups racial, cultural.

To teach safety to avoid bodily injury to themselves and others.

Teach pupils to understand and appreciate our social and cultural heritage.

Teach pupils to have respect for all citizens. To teach reading for as a means for better understanding and communication.

Formulated By Mrs Virginia Sylvers
Watonga Col

The pupils in the lower grades are a lot of progress in their reading writing and solving simple problems in Arithmetic.

The pupils in the higher grades have finished several of their text books and have done a lot of reading from books supplied by the circulating library and also the Regional library.

We have had field trips which included a trip to Tri-city Airport and the weather Bureau. A trip to the Fish Hatchery proved to be an interesting trip that the students all enjoyed.

A trip to a cave near the school was visited which was an interesting science lesson.

Before each holiday the children have been given parties, including a Thanksgiving Turkey dinner. Mr. Soble gave us a large Turkey. We have had successful year.
