

GOOD MEETING OF COLORED BAPTISTS

The Schaeffer Memorial Association, which began its annual session at the Lee Street Baptist church last Thursday, will come to a close this evening. Thereports on education and missions presented before the association indicate steady progress in the uplift of the colored race. About forty delegates are now in attendance.

The program of today at the Lee Street Baptist church is as follows:

11:15 a. m.—Sermon by Rev. G. S. Reavis, B. Th.

3 p. m.—Ordination services, at which Royal Harston, of Christiansburg, will be ordained into the ministry. Sermon by Rev. A. J. Brown, B. D. Prayer by Rev. W. M. Taylor. Presentation of the Bible by Rev. C. A. Smith. Hand of fellowship extended by Rev. G. W. Loman. Charge by Rev. C. H. Johnson, D. D.

8:15 p. m.—Sermon by Rev. D. H. Chamberlayne, B. D.

Besides the program at the Lee Street Baptist church, the association will furnish preachers to the other colored churches of the town, as follows:
