

'Founder's Day' Set At Slater

The Parent Teachers Association of Slater High School is paying tribute to those who have made possible the educational fellowship between the home and the school.

Founders' Day programs are planned to refresh the memory and create within each individual a sense of duty for the building of better schools and better communities for our youth.

Guest speaker for this afternoon's program, which begins at 4 p. m. in the school auditorium, will be the Rev. Marshall Strickland, pastor of the Hood Memorial AME Zion Church. The music will be rendered by the Slater High Vested Choir.

All parents and patrons are invited to attend and a special invitation is extended to all past presidents. A reception will follow immediately after the program in the school cafeteria.

The Royal Workers of Harris Memorial Church will have a spring tea Sunday, March 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Lee, 824 Maple Street. The hours are from 4 to 6:30 p. m. All interested persons are invited.

The Kindergarten Mother's Club entertains patrons and friends this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, at a Washington Day Tea in the Douglass School Cafeteria.

The program for the tea, features the children of Mrs. Mildred Rhea's Kindergarten under direction of Mrs. J. L. Moon.

Hostesses include Mrs. Betty Hughes, Mrs. Hazel Mathews, Mrs. Mildred Williams, and other members of the Mother's Club.

Troop 269 of Slater High School will hold a Court of Awards at the school Monday, February 23, at 10:30 a. m. Leaders are Mrs. Bettie Robinson, Mrs. Gladys Penn, and Mrs. Lillian Newton.

Second Class Badges and Needle Craft Badges will be presented to the following Girl Scouts: Dianna Beidleman, Veronica Beidleman, Hattie Brown, Cynthia Dowell, Norma Gilispe, Mary Goolsby, Laurene Hogans, Iris Lee, Flora Penn, Ina Preston, Debra Rhea, Gloria Richmand, Ida Robinson, Pat Robinson, Kathryn Rogers, Betty White and Elaine Woods.

Parents and all interested persons are invited to attend.
