The second grade students has been able to do his work and also to go along with the third grade.

The fourth and fifth students have completed their texts with the exception of arithmetic.

The sixth and seventh grades have finished their texts, with emphasis being put on things they will contact in every-day life.

All pupils have a lot of reading ^{of} books supplied by Carter County Circulating library and the regional library.

We have had a field trip to a Green House which proved to be helpful in science and geography.

We were able to secure a radio to hear the famous General Douglas MacArthur speech and report to Congress and people of the United States of America.

TEACHER'S INSTRUCTIONAL PLANS AND OBJECTIVES FOR SCHOOL YEAR

To try to develop good Citizens, and teach the children about other countries. To teach the mechanics of speech and develop a mastery of words, to teach the value of being able to read and understand.
To teach the importance of good health habits in every day living. To teach reading and writing as a path to intelligent thinking.

A SUMMARY OF ACHIEVEMENTS DURING SCHOOL YEAR

We have studied Citizenship, and the things that make good Citizens.
The students have attempted to practice these things and put them into practical use.

The students are reading and putting into use the new words learned. And showing through questions that they understand what they are reading. There has been improvement in arithmetic. Health habits are observed. We have studied extensively about the Far East.
