

my mission clothes come from Youth Builder members," she explained that when there is a need, Geneva contacts her.

toys for the Head Start Christmas party.

need, Geneva knows about it. She always knows who to take things to. I don't know what

Geo. Clem Headstart

Mrs. Sylvia Rogers (right) is one of the teachers with whom Geneva worked when she served as an assistant teacher at George Clem Headstart. Here, she and the teacher and children display some flags given to them by one of the local civic organizations. (Photo by The Greeneville Sun)