A PUBLIC SERVICE SORORITY

MORRISTOWN ALUMNAE CHAPTER

MOTTO: "Intelligence Is The Torch Of Wisdom"

History of the Organization

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., was founded January 13, 1913 on the campus of Howard University, Washington, D.C., and this year celebrates 70 years of public service. The 22 young women founders envisioned an organization established on Christian principles and dedicated to serious endeavor whose members, being of sound moral character, would be able to promote effective change and thereby, improve the quality of life in their communities.

Morristown Alumnae Chapter was chartered March 28, 1981. Its 13 founders are pledged to uphold the national program of educational development, economic development, community and international development, housing and urban development and mental health.

Since 1981, members have canvassed their neighborhoods in support of the Mothers March of Dimes; provided a yearly $500 scholarship at Morristown College and provided other financial and moral support at the College; provided scholarships to the winner and first runner-up of the "Miss Bronze" pageant; supported the Chamber of Commerce and Central Services Christmas programs; supported the National Haitian Refugee Project; the local NAACP, Cherokee Mental Health and other civic and community projects.

In 1982-83, our efforts will be devoted to the work of Bethel Nursery and Progressive Child Care Centers; to Morristown College, to a local Teen-lift for young women ages 13-19 and other national and local projects.

MS. EDYE ELLIS

Ms. Ellis was born in Chicago where she received her early education. After high school she attended Macalester College in St. Paul, Minnesota, where she earned her degree in psychology and speech. While in her senior year of college, she was selected to participate in the "Students Working Abroad Project" and lived in Italy for six months as part of the program. After graduation, she worked as a teacher specializing in early childhood development. She then moved on to the publishing business where she served as an editor for various publications. She left Chicago for Cincinnati in 1979.

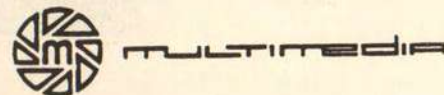

Ms. Ellis's experience in television began with WKRC-TV as production coordinator for PM Magazine. By 1981 she had advanced to co-host and executive producer of PM Magazine, a position she held until she joined WBIR-TV.

Upon joining WBIR-TV, Ellis was named host and prime anchor for the station's World's Fair related programming. This programming included daily updates plus a magazine show dealing with the fair. At the end of the Fair, she was named co-anchor of Channel 10's weeknight newscasts where she divides her time between anchoring and reporting.
