

J. WESLEY DAVIS,

BARBER.

The well and favorably known barber shop, and fashionable hair cutting and dressing establishment, of which J. WESLEY DAVIS is proprietor, is centrally and eligibly located, and is largely patronized by the best class of our citizens.

This business was established by its present proprietor eight years since, and has by the courteous and gentlemanly deportment of himself and his assistants towards his patrons, by their superior skill as tonsorial artists, by the excellent condition in which they keep their razors, enabling them at all times to give a clean and easy shave to his many patrons, the taste and judgment of the proprietor as a most fashionable and artistic hair cutter and dresser, the free and liberal use he makes of all the choicest and best tonics in this branch of his business, has attracted to his establishment a large and constantly increasing custom, till the patronage enjoyed by him is not equalled by any similar establishment in the city.

We speak from experience when we say, the shaving parlors of J. Wesley Davis are in all respects first class, and he is amply deserving of the success he has achieved.
