

JAYCEE POSTER WINNERS NAMED

Joyce Beidleman, Lincoln school fourth grader and Mary Cannon, Rosemont school fifth grader, were winners of first prizes in the Americanism Week poster contest conducted recently in fourth and fifth grades of Bristol schools under auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, it was announced last night.

Other fourth grade winners are Jackie Rush, Central and Billie Jo Gregg, Anderson street schools; fifth grade winners are Barbara Cobb, Slater and Lynn Doak, Anderson street schools. Special honorable mention went to Phyllis Feagins, Anderson street school, Shirley Gammon, Slater school, Mildred Nelson, Lincoln school, Harold Wampler, Jefferson school and Mack Buler, Rosemont. Judges were one each of the three local colleges.

Prizes were given by the Joseph Strauss chapter of the B'nai B'rith, oldest Jewish fraternity in the United States.