COLORED NEWS

On Christmas Eve, Mrs. George Carr gave a party for the Shut-ins, at her home, 327 Church St. The guests brought gifts and later in the eevning a lovely plate menu was served, and a delightful evening was enjoyed. Then on Christmas Day the gifts, with bags of fruit and candy, were carried out to the Shut-ins. An out-of-town guest was Mrs. Earnest Shields.

Cpl. George A. Carr, who has spent the past four years and eleven menths in the Army recently received his discharge from Fort Knox. Kv., after having served 19 months in the ETO, Cpl. Carr, son of Mrs. Lena Carr, saw much action while overseas. He participated in the campaigns of Normandy. Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes and the Central Europe campaign. He was entitled to wear the European-African Middle Eastern Ribbon, with five battle stars, American Defense Service Ribbon, Good Conduct Medal. World War II Victory Medal and American Campaign Medal. Cpl. Carr has reinlisted for three more years in the Army and will report to Fort Benning, Ga. on April 4th.