

Slater Dedication Features Songs By School Glee Club

(Editor's Note: Mrs. Helen Mitchell is correspondent for news of interest to Bristol and area Negroes. Information for this column may be called to her at North 723-J or by writing her at 503 Lester Street, Bristol, Virginia. Please have news in by Wednesday Noon).

By Helen Mitchell

A feature of the dedication program at Slater School today will be several numbers by the Slater Glee Club. The new $322,000 school building will be dedicated at 3 p.m. today. Dr. N. A. Crippens, a member of the Tennessee State Department of Education, will be the guest speaker at the dedication ceremonies.

Church Activities

The Theresa Hoover Circle of the John Wesley Methodist Church will meet at 4:30 p.m. Thursday. Mrs. Marie Alums will serve as hostess. Mrs. Bertha Alums will conduct the worship services. On Friday, at 8 p.m., the Circle will sponsor a flower garden tea at the church.

The Missionary Society of the Lee Street Baptist Church will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday at the church.

A musical program, sponsored by Miss Mary Bell Smith, will be given at the Church of God, Glade Spring, at 7:30 p.m. today. The Royalties, a singing group from Bristol, will appear on the program.

The Stewardess Board of the Hood Memorial AME Zion Church will meet at 4 p.m., April 24, at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Hazzard.

The Young Women's Missionary Society of Hood Memorial Church, will give a special program on Sunday, April 24, at 7:30 p.m. The program is in commemoration of the life of Miss Victoria Richardson, founder of the department of missionary work.

A King Solomon wedding will be held at the Hood Memorial Zion Church at 8 p.m. Friday. A fine evening of entertainment is planned.

Clubs

Don't forget the fashion show tomorrow at 8:15 p.m., sponsored by the Paramount Study and Social Club at Douglass School. The full cycle of spring styles will be presented with some 13 or 14 scenes to depict current trends in spring fashions. Again this year, local beauticians will enter models to demonstrate the new coiffures. Special feature will be a miniature wedding with small fry participants and local singing and musical groups providing additional entertainment between scenes.

Personal Mentions

Mrs. William Fulp and children from Cora, W. Va., spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Randolph of Buchanan Street.

Mrs. Charles L. Price of Flint, Mich., is spending her spring vacation in Bristol. Before returning to Michigan she will spend a week with her father and sister in Greeneville, Tenn.

The following college students were home for the Easter vacation: Palmeria Hampton, Morristown College; Judy Pace, Bertha French, Clarence Barber, Douglass Dickerson, Carry Lee, Fred Delaney, Jr., Mary Delores Black, Mary Ervin, George Valentine and Nancy Austin, all from Knoxville College; Shirley Reamey, Bennet College, and Walter Cowan, Virginia Union University.

A3/c Charles Wise spent the Easter holidays with his mother and relatives. He is stationed at Scott Air Base where he is studying radio technology.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gannaway and niece, Virginia Eury, spent last week-end in Bristol with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Loller and Mrs. Pocahontas Gannaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Omana of Fort Kustis spent last week-end in Bristol with relatives.

Mr. H. K. Breedlove spent the Easter holidays in Charlotte, N. C.

Miss Lockey Mae Jenkins, student at ANI State University, and Miss Janie Ruth Jenkins, now teaching in Lee County, were at home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Jenkins, last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leak and daughter, from Charlotte, N. C., spent Easter with Mrs. Ola Leak at her home on Buchanan Street.

Mrs. Julia Henderson visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Graves of Baltimore, during the Easter holidays. Enroute to Bristol she also visited friends in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John Ed Bell of Jamaica, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Happy Steward.

Risa Darlene Franklin, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Franklin, King Street, was christened Easter at the Ninth Street Presbyterian Church. Godmother is Mrs. A. W. White. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Janie Nobleton and great-grandmother is Mrs. Eva Hawthorne.

Miss Palmyria Hampton has returned to Morristown College after spending the Easter holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, Jr., 521 Lester Street, Bristol.

While attending M.N.I. College, Miss Hampton has won many honors and awards in the musical field. An outstanding soprano, she has rendered many selections in the various schools of Bristol and other cities of the area.

Reynolds Memorial Methodist Church of Bristol has given her a one-year scholarship in recognition of her voice potentialities. She gave a number of vocal solos at this church while home for the February 27 week end.

1st Pro Men H On Ch

A panel of Higher Education by t calists feat meeting of at First Pr

E. E. S for the par the need colleges w

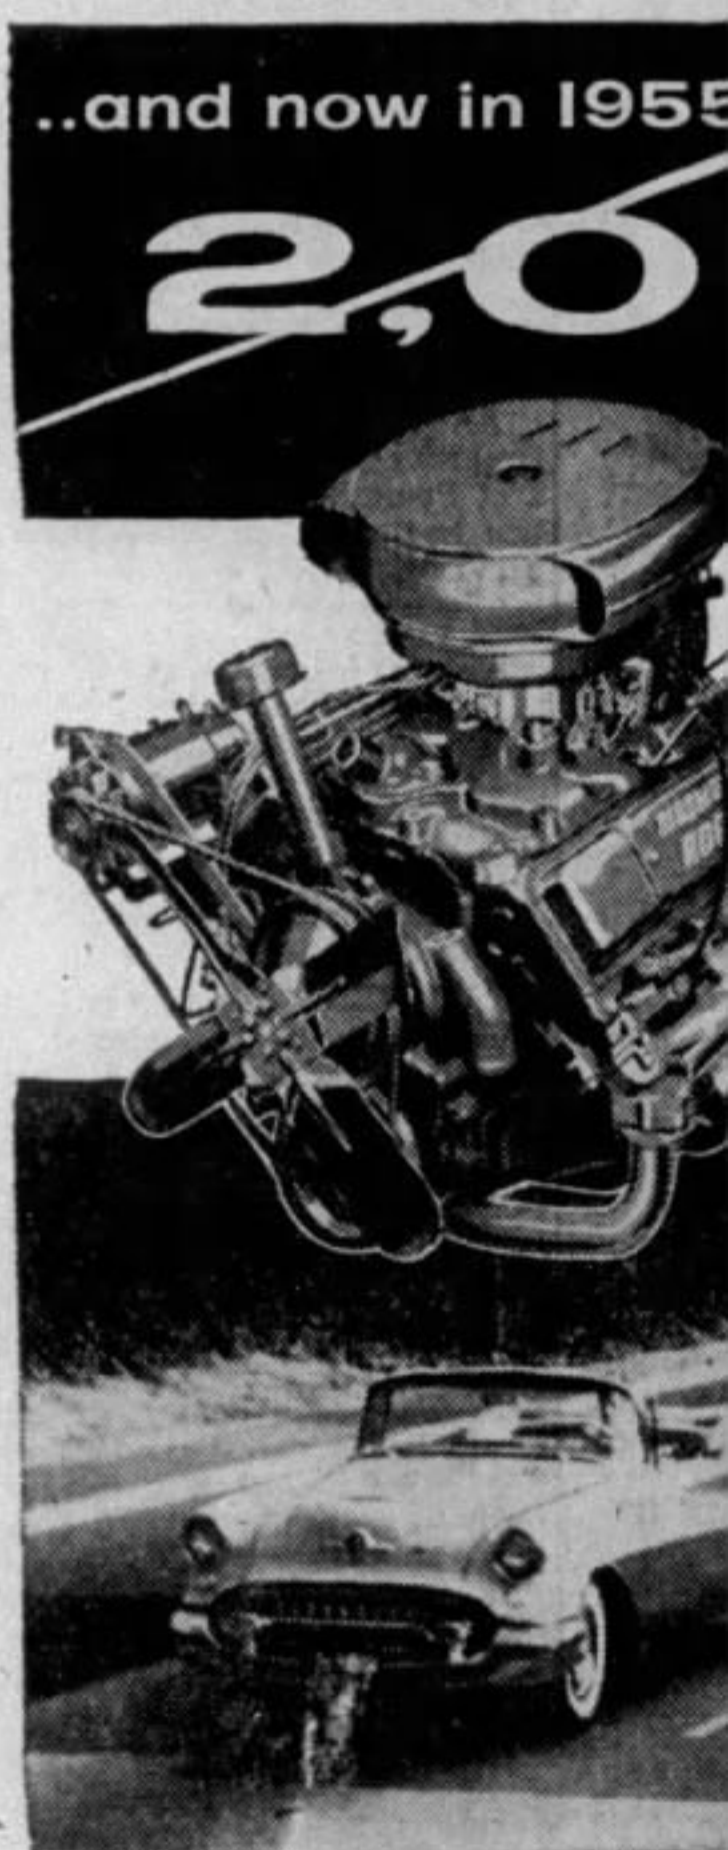

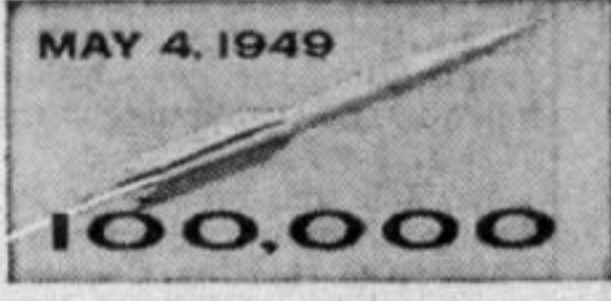

The pan fessors As liam C. Ro Mrs. Alber Eyler, sup tol, Tenn.

Three Olin Fran School stu and region Memorial

Miss Pau student a College, sa She was Minter of V.I. studen

Robert C a visitatio preliminar Sunday o evangelisti with Dr. Pittsburgh

Joe Roy organizatio meeting. B and Charl program.

"ROCKET"

SEE
BRIGHT
945 STATE ST.
FOR THE BEST USED CA