

TOP STUDENTS—Bristol civic clubs presented these top three Slater High School seniors various awards for merit at the annual Slater Awards program Monday night. Carol Pace, left, received a silver goblet from the Kiwanis Club for being "best all-around girl;" the Lions Club presented a watch to Charles Wells for being "best all-around boy," and Mary Henderson received a check from the Rotary Club for compiling the highest average in mathematics over a four-year period.