

July 25, 1969

Rose Mary Gaines Receives Harvard Law Degree

ROSE MARY GAINES

Rose Mary Gaines, 1962 graduate of the former George Clem High School and 1966 graduate of Johnson C. Smith University, recently received a Juris Doctoris degree of law from Harvard Law School.

Miss Gaines was salutatorian of her high school class and finished summa cum laude at Smith. She was very active on campus at Smith. She was president of the campus chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority; she participated in the exchange program with the University of Dubuque, Iowa; and she was selected the most outstanding on campus for the 1964-65 term.

Upon her graduation from Smith University, she was awarded with a scholarship enabling her to seek her law degree at Harvard.

In September, Miss Gaines has intentions of being of legal assistance in a legal aid office in San Francisco.

She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Gaines, 2109 Sixteenth Avenue, North Birmingham, Ala. They both are former residents of Greeneville.

July 25, 1969
GRAFFITI by Leary