

TOURNAMENT FOR COLORED TEAMS

The first twin-city tournament for colored teams will be played here Friday and Saturday at Slater High school, McDowell street, under the supervision of Fitzhugh Houston, athletic director of the school.

The first game will be Friday night at 8 o'clock. Teams will be matched by drawings of their coaches.

Participants are Douglas High school, Slater High school, American Legion, Red Dragons, Globe Trotters and Slater Junior high.

Douglas ranks as the team to beat, along with the Legionnaires. Since this year's matches will inaugurate tournaments of this type, each game is expected to be a nip and tuck fight all the way until the final whistle when the first city champion is crowned.
