

BRAINARD CHAPEL SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

105 Henry Street, Greeneville

The home of Homer Elder was located on the corner of Wesley and Clem Streets. Mrs. Biggs moved in with the Elder family and began Bible and health reform studies. From these modest beginning in 1949, grew the Seventh Day Adventist Church on Wesley Street.

The faithfulness and hard work of this group was rewarded when enough money was raised to build a proper church on Henry Street. The building was begun in 1953 and was completed in 1959.

The church was named Brainard Chapel in appreciation of Frank Brainard who volunteered his time to see that the church was completed. R. C. Brown the the first Elder of the church.

