

Colored Concert Singers from Tennessee A. & I. State College, at Capitol Theatre Thursday Night

Outstanding Colored Group To Sing Here Thursday Night

The Tennessee A. & I. State College Concert Singers of Nashville will make their initial appearance in Greeneville, Thursday evening, April 21, at the Capitol Theatre.

Composed of approximately thirty people, this group comes to our city highly recommended. They have won acclaim as radio artists and have appeared in many of the larger cities of the state as well as cities of other states. For several years, they have given annual concerts in our neighboring city, Johnson City.

The rare quality of the voices in this group enables them to produce melody of an appealing type. Music lovers will have an opportunity to enjoy a varied program of spiritual, classical and popular music.

Their accompanist, Mrs. Marie Brooks Strange, is an artist in her own right. Under her direction, the singers charm any audience who hears them.
