baby because it will be our baby yes our very own. Isn't it funny?
Just a few months ago we were waiting for the day when we could get married and now we are waiting for our baby to come.

Honey you know darn well that your ambitions have been fulfilled about making me a good wife and I've got to give you credit because I know how hard I am to satisfy. Darling I haven't much more to say now. I guess it's because I'm so sleepy. I'll write again tonight after I take my noon nap. I sure wish you were here to tickle me in like you used to. See I sure

did love that. Its so nice to think about how you used to fix the covers after I got in bed and then you would give me a great big wonderful kiss (kisses) I just better quit talking about it before my morale gets any lower than it is. Darling Im deeply in love with you and may God guide you to happiness. I remain always

your Loving Husband

My Darling Wife

Hello Bea. I'm feeling fine except that I'm so darn lonesome for you too. Yesterday I didn't receive any mail from you and I was ever so worried that something was wrong. But today I got the two sweetest and most welcome letters. I felt so relieved to hear that you're feeling fine. I'm so glad to hear that you're getting enough rest. I only hope you're sure you're resting enough. How does Ramona & Chicken ever sound good. I made spaghetti yesterday. It sure was good too. I'm awfully sorry to hear about Frances' sister's baby. I never thought that Measles were so dangerous, I guess its because the baby was so young. So your getting fat ah baby. well thats fine. I pitty you when I get home. Ha, Ha yes honey it sure will be wonderful to have our own place all to ourselves. And its simply has to be soon, which Im sure it won't be much longer. The war news sure has been sounding good lately. I beg your pardon but Whooooo did you say was going to do the cooking???. Ive got an idea that a certain little darling wife of mine is going to do the cooking. Don't you? But I do like the idea of mending the
