

KP/AK/2/Lyttton/10

RAIL.KNEB WORTH.G.N.R TELEGRAMS. KNEB WORTH

HOMEWOOD,

KNEB WORTH,

HERTS.

April 12. 1910

Dearest Annie

It is dreadful to have to refuse you especially as I believe to be alongside of you would do me an immense amount of good just now. But my body is still on strike, gets exhausted (& the brain too) with the smallest exertion. I am concentrating my power on the Glasgow Exhibition- I am booked to open it on the 2? Day/. April 28th. The [Dr][&] my people think that a [m]ad idea & I expect I shall have to do it in the face of their contrary advice. If that [answers] –if I do the job creditably & do not break from it, then I shall go on & make other engagements but I daren't book myself for such a long journey immediately after Glasgow. I have been struggling for a week with an article for Votes. My brain simply won't work & the vain effort makes me fearfully deprest [depressed] I daren't undertake [r]eal meeting speeches while like this.

[Page 2]

[Page 3]

[Page 4]

Of course I don't really feel deprest [depressed]: it is only a passing thing.

Good luck [for] all [your] special weeks.

Your always loving

Sister Conny

Don't [trouble ] to answer this.