

Transcript – KP/PHO

Two pin pricks, the lower one over Eagle House, Northend, Batheaston, and the upper one over the top of the poplar tree, that was planted at the top of our garden by my father when I was a child , to please me, as I had said “Father we haven’t got a poplar tree, we ought to have one.”

Mary Blathwayt
20 June 1948.

Eagle House is just behind the gabled cottages.