

THE CITADEL

Ed. A. Howard

Boyd's DC,
April 20/98.

Dear Sir

ARCHIVES AND MUSEUM

Money containing account against my son O. L. Sanders need.
In reply I beg to say that I am ready & willing to pay all just claims against him. The charge for this quarter is all right but I do not understand the other charges, as I had paid all claims up to April 1st and besides my son says there are some things in the bill he did not get, these I have marked with +. Please see a corrected bill. Some of his clothes were left in wash, which you will please be kind enough to have sent by express.

I regret exceedingly the trouble at the Citadel.
The boys acted very badly, but I must say I think their quarrel against beauty was queer if I understand the thing correctly. There is no excuse for their behavior to you in a other officers - except their youth and inexperience of some of them.
My son stands ready to apologize to you for anything said or done By O. L. Sanders
