

D I A R Y
OF
GENERAL MARK W. CLARK

1948

SAN FRANCISCO -- 1 JANUARY 1948 - General Clark remained at his quarters until 1145 hours at which time he went to the Officers' Club where he held his reception for the senior officers at the Post from 12 to 1 p.m. He remained at his quarters the balance of the day.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 2 JANUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours where he attended to routine office matters. He returned to his quarters at noon and there remained.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 JANUARY 1948 - This morning General Clark held a conference to organize for a National Guard meeting on Monday, the conference lasting from 0930 to 1045 hours. He then saw Colonel Oxx, Colonel McMahon and General Davidson after which he went to his quarters. In the afternoon he played golf and in the evening the family had dinner with Mrs. de Latour.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 JANUARY 1948 - General Clark remained at his quarters during the day and in the evening attended a reception given by Mayor and Mrs. Lapham for Mayor-elect and Mrs. Elmer Robinson at the Mayor's residence.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 JANUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at 0800 hours and after talking with General Davidson at 0830 hours received Major General Kenneth F. Cramer, Chief of the National Guard Bureau in Washington. At 0900 hours, General Clark, accompanied by General Cramer, opened the National Guard Conference. In attendance at the conference were the Adjutant Generals of the states comprising the Sixth Army, senior instructors, and other officials. General Clark remained at the conference until 1100 hours at which time he returned to his office where he attended to routine details. The General had lunch at his quarters and in the afternoon returned to his office where he received the Adjutant Generals. At 1600 hours he attended a Guard of Honor ceremony for the Adjutant Generals and General Cramer, which was immediately followed by a reception at the Officers Club for the conferees.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 JANUARY 1948 - General Clark left his office at 0900 hours, accompanied by Lt. Colonel Rothrock and Major Luther, and drove to Hamilton Field to meet the Secretary of the Army, Kenneth C. Royall. He was met at Hamilton Field by General Schramm, acting Commanding General of Fourth Air Force. Secretary Royall's plane landed at 1005 hours and with General Clark the Secretary's party proceeded to the Presidio where they received a Guard of Honor. After completion of the ceremony, General Clark escorted the Secretary to the office where the General presented the State Adjutant Generals to the Secretary along with several of the senior staff officers of the Sixth Army. At noon General Clark escorted the Secretary to the Palace Hotel where Mr. Royall delivered an address to the Commonwealth Club. Immediately following the luncheon, the entire party proceeded to the University of California where they were guests of Dr. Sproul, President of the University of California, at the cyclotron demonstration. Following this, the Secretary's party and General Clark went to the President's home for a short reception after which the General returned to his quarters and the Secretary to his hotel. At 1900 hours the General escorted the Secretary to the San Francisco Press Club where Mr. Royall was the principal speaker.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 JANUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at the Mark Hopkins Hotel at 0645 hours where he picked up Secretary Royall and Mrs. Royall and escorted them to Hamilton Field where the Secretary's party took off at 0730 hours. General Clark returned to his office and attended to routine matters and then departed for his quarters where he packed for his trip to Hawaii, scheduled for tomorrow. In the evening, General Clark and family had dinner at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. Sullivan, today being Col. Sullivan's birthday.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 JANUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and proceeded to clear up all matters before his departure this afternoon for Hawaii. He conferred for a long time with General Davidson and then issued general instructions to Colonel McMahon concerning his mail and the procedures to be following during his absence. At 1030 hours the General returned to his quarters to finish packing and then had lunch with Mrs. Clark. At 1330 hours General Clark and Mrs. Clark and Ann proceeded to Pier 7 where they boarded the Navy transport, USS GENERAL BRECKINRIDGE. General Clark will be in Hawaii for almost a month, conferring with General Hull and also taking a short vacation. The boat sailed at 1400 hours.

* * * *

HAWAII, T.H. - 9 JANUARY 1948 thru 8 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark and family in Hawaii to confer with commanders there and to take a vacation.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark and family returned from Hawaii aboard the USS GENERAL G. M. RANDALL. He was met at the dock by General Robertson, General Davidson, Major Luther and Captain Waters. That evening he had a few of his close friends in for cocktails.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. He spent the day catching up on the work that had accumulated during his month's trip to Hawaii. In the evening, General Clark and family went to the Yacht Club for dinner as guests of Colonel and Mrs. Sullivan.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. At 1000 hours he had an appointment in his office with Major General Luther D. Miller, Chief of Chaplains. Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Waybur, parents of Lt. Waybur, a Congressional Medal of Honor winner in the General's command in Italy, called on the General at his quarters at 1630 hours. The General spent the evening at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 12 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and attended to routine matters in the office. In the afternoon he played golf and in the evening was host to Captain Samuel E. Latimer, USN, Captain of the USS GENERAL RANDALL, on which boat General Clark and family returned from Hawaii.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 13 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 1000 hours went to Letterman General Hospital to present pictures autographed by Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall. Eight patients received these pictures. The General left his office at 1245 hours and remained at his quarters. In the evening General Clark and family were guests for dinner at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Frank Oxx.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 14 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning, and in the afternoon and evening remained at his quarters.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 15 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark and family had lunch with Mr. Paul Verdier at his home in Sonoma County. That afternoon they attended a cocktail party at the home of Mrs. Caldwell.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 16 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and after going through his mail saw Lt. Colonel Gray on two court martial cases, which he reviewed. After seeing General Davidson and Colonel McMahon the General left his office to go to his quarters. At 1130 hours he called on Mr. Edmond Coblentz, publisher of the Call-Bulletin. Mr. Coblentz has been ill for sometime. The General had lunch at his quarters and remained there for the afternoon.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 17 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and after going over his correspondence and dictating some letters, saw Mr. Tonroth, formerly with the Information Section, who is now leaving to go into private business. General Clark spent the remainder of the morning in conference with General Davidson and then dictated several letters in order to catch up on his correspondence. After having lunch at his quarters, the General played golf.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 18 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and immediately talked with Colonel Grogan. At 0930 hours he had a conference with General Davidson and later, accompanied by Colonel Slocum, went to visit the proposed location of a wartime command post in the case of any emergency. The General approved the use of this location as an advance command post, and recommended that something be started on a permanent CP further to the rear. After returning to headquarters, the General went over his mail and at 1230 hours entertained General Kippenberger and Colonel Fairweather of the New Zealand Army. General Kippenberger had lost both legs while serving in Italy under the command of General Clark.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 19 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours. After going over his mail and official documents, he received General Upston, new Commanding General of the Fourth Air Force. Later he received Major General "Doc" Waldron, who is now head of the Veterans Hospital at Palo Alto. General Waldron desired that General Clark come to Palo Alto in order to speak before the Rotary Club. At 1100 hours General Clark held a long conference with Generals Robertson and Davidson concerning Reserve activities. At the conclusion of the conference, General Clark went to his quarters for lunch. In the afternoon, he played golf. During the evening, General and Mrs. Clark attended a party for Ann's friends at their quarters. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Clark were among the guests, having just arrived from Michigan.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 20 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and conferred with Colonel McMahon concerning his appointments for the next few weeks. Later he went over his correspondence, and at 1000 hours received Mr. Stewart, Deputy Collector, Internal Revenue Division, regarding his income tax. After a long conference with Mr. Stewart, the General saw General Davidson and later in the morning dictated several letters. In the evening, accompanied by Mrs. Clark, the General attended dinner at the French Club, given by Mr. Joseph Cauthorn of the San Francisco News.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 21 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark played golf this morning and after lunch rested. At 1930 hours the General and Mrs. Clark had dinner at the home of Mrs. Richard McCreery, Burlingame, aunt of Lt. General Sir Richard McCreery, who was commander of the 8th Army under General Clark in Italy.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 22 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark remained at his quarters this day, taking a long walk in the afternoon, and in the evening had cocktails with Marguerite and Ralph Talbot.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 23 FEBRUARY 1948 - This day being a holiday, General Clark remained away from the office, and played golf.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 24 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0930 hours. He immediately dictated some letters and later talked with Colonel Grogan concerning his speech on St. Patrick's Day, to be delivered in Seattle before the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. Later he had a long conference with General Davidson, and saw Colonel Slocum of G-3. After lunch, he returned to the office and at 1500 hours received members of the Committee on Medical and Hospital Services of the Armed Forces. At 1515 hours the General was host at a cocktail party given at the Officers Club in honor of the committee. After the cocktail party, General Clark returned to his quarters where he had dinner.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 25 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spent the morning taking care of routine administrative matters. At 1300 hours he left for the San Francisco Airport, accompanied by Colonel Grogan and Captain Waters, to meet Judge Robert Patterson, former Secretary of War. That evening the General attended dinner at the Bohemian Club at the invitation of Mr. Harrison and in honor of Judge Patterson. Following the dinner the group went to the Opera House where General Clark introduced Judge Patterson, who was the speaker for the American Brotherhood Week activities which were taking place at the Opera House.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 26 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spent the morning taking care of routine administrative matters. He remained at home that afternoon and in the evening was the speaker at a dinner given by the 600th ORC group at Stilwell Hall.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 27 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 1000 hours he held a retirement ceremony in the hall of the Headquarters Building for Colonel Montesinos and five enlisted men. At 1100 hours Admiral Paul L. Mather, the commander of the ship that had taken General Clark to Salerno, stopped by the office to pay his respects to the General. At 1700 hours the General attended a cocktail party at the Pacific Union Club, given by Messrs. Brady and Smith.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 28 FEBRUARY 1948 - General Clark played golf with Colonel Pete Kilburn and two other men.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 29 FEBRUARY 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark had dinner and attended the Bingo party at the Officers Club with Colonel and Mrs. Donaldsen.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 1 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. At 1000 hours he was briefed by Colonel O'Hara and Lt. Col. Tayler in preparation for his conference with Mr. J. W. Ruppely, Chief Field Representative of the Federal Bureau of the Budget, to be held on the following day. Mr. Nathan Cummings arrived from Honolulu and was met at the San Francisco Airport by Captain Waters. That evening General and Mrs. Clark entertained Mr. Cummings at their home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 2 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 hours Mr. Ruppely of the Federal Bureau of the Budget arrived at the General's office to pay his respects and to discuss and coordinate relationships between Sixth Army and the Budget Bureau. The General spent the afternoon on the golf course and in the evening remained at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spend the morning taking care of routine administrative matters. He remained at home in the afternoon and in the evening went to the quarters of Lt. Col. Howard Moore for dinner and to see some home movies that Colonel Moore had taken in Europe.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours and at 0900 hours saw Lt. Colonel Gray, JAG. He spent the remainder of the morning taking care of routine administrative matters and in the afternoon was the speaker at the Presidio Women's Club meeting held at the Officers Club. The General spent the evening at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spent the morning clearing up routine administrative matters. He played golf in the afternoon and attended dinner at the Press Club in honor of Mrs. Clare Booth Luce.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and had lunch with Mr. Nathan Cummings at the Hotel Fairmont at 1 pm. In the afternoon the General and Mrs. Clark were guests at a tea and cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron, Rosecourt, Burlingame, to meet Miss Nan Tucker and Dennis McEvoy. The General returned from the cocktail party, changed into formal dress, and attended a dinner at the Officers Club given by Colonel and Mrs. Woodward in honor of Mrs. Clare Booth Luce.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 MARCH 1948 - General Clark spent the morning and afternoon at his quarters. That evening he was guest of General and Mrs. Robertson for dinner at the Yacht Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0930 hours saw General Weaver and a Mr. Peterson to discuss preparations for the coming Army Day ceremonies. He spent the afternoon on the golf course and that evening attended a dinner party given by Lt. Col. and Mrs. D'Orsa at their quarters.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0815 hours. At 0900 hours he opened the conference held at the Court Martial Building where the various commanders in the Sixth Army area were assembled to discuss the coming reenlistment drive. The General then attended a luncheon given for the commanders at the Officers Club and that evening was the speaker at the banquet held at the Hotel Berkeley in Oakland by the Reserve Officers Association.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spent the morning clearing up routine administrative matters in preparation for the trip to the Northwest. He left by plane for Fort Lewis that afternoon, arriving to be met by General Kendall and other members of 2nd Division staff. He immediately went to the Fort Lewis Inn where he would stay that night. In the evening General Clark had dinner at the Fort Lewis Officers Club and then returned to the Fort Lewis Inn and retired for the night.

* * * *

FORT LEWIS, WASHINGTON - 11 MARCH 1948 - General Clark breakfasted at the Fort Lewis Inn and, accompanied by General Kendall and Mrs. Clark, entered the reservation at 0900 hours. Since this was the first time the Commanding General of Sixth Army had visited Fort Lewis this year, troops lined the roadway from the main gate to the parade ground where a guard of honor was inspected by General Clark. During this time the General received a 17-gun salute. After inspection the General went to Division Headquarters with General Kendall and was oriented on the training of the Division by General Kendall and his Chief of Staff. General Clark was then interviewed by the local press following which he began inspection of the training of Second Division. General Clark had lunch at the Officers Club and in the afternoon continued inspection of the Division, including a Division review held in his honor. That evening the General spoke at the Sojourners Lodge in the Fort Lewis Masonic room.

* * * *

FORT LEWIS-CAMANO ISLAND - 12 MARCH 1948 - General Clark continued his inspection of the Division training and at 1030 hours left the Post to go to Olympia where he paid a call on Governor Mon C. Wallgren. Immediately after this he returned to the Fort Lewis Officers Club where he had lunch with Mrs. Clark. They then drove to Seattle and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Griffiths. Later, accompanied by the Griffiths, General and Mrs. Clark and Major Luther, they drove to Camano Island where they would spend a few days.

* * * *

CAMANO ISLAND - 13 MARCH 1948 - General Clark spent the day fishing on the Skagit River. That afternoon Ann Clark flew up from San Francisco to join her family.

* * * *

CAMANO ISLAND - 14 MARCH 1948 - General Clark spent the day fishing.

* * * *

CAMANO ISLAND - 15 MARCH 1948 - General Clark spent the morning resting and in the afternoon went out fishing on Puget Sound with Mr. Griffiths.

* * * *

CAMANO ISLAND-STANWOOD, WASH. - 16 MARCH 1948 - General Clark spent the morning fishing and then rested in the afternoon. He worked for a time on his speech and that evening, accompanied by the Griffiths, Captain and Mrs. Paul Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Lauren McLeod, and Mrs. Clark, drove to Stanwood where they were guests of the Stanwood Commercial Club at a dinner attended by the leading citizens of Stanwood.

* * * *

SEATTLE - 17 MARCH 1948 - General Clark left Camano Island at 0800 hours and drove to Seattle, going to the Olympic Hotel where he was to stay as guest of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. General Clark spent the morning with Colonel Grogan, who had joined him, going over his speech, and at noon had the Army Advisory Committee of Seattle as his guests for lunch. Following the luncheon, General Clark rested and then finished his speech for that evening. At 1900 hours, General Clark, accompanied by Mr. Joe Sweeney and the officers of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, attended the dinner at which the General was the guest speaker.

* * * *

SEATTLE-SAN FRANCISCO - 18 MARCH 1948 - General Clark left the Hotel Olympic and drove to the airport where he boarded his plane piloted by Lt. Colonel Howard Moore. Mrs. Clark and Ann, Colonel Grogan and Major Luther accompanied the General. (continued next page)

SAN FRANCISCO - 18 MARCH 1948 - General Clark and party returned from the Northwest, arriving Hamilton Field at 1327 hours. (General George C. Marshall arrived Oakland Airport at 2110 hours)

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 19 MARCH 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark left their quarters at 0910 hours for the University of California to attend the final Charter Day ceremonies during which General Marshall was the main speaker and was presented with an honorary degree. Following the ceremonies they had lunch at the home of President Sproul. At the completion of the luncheon, Mrs. Clark returned to quarters and General Clark attended a cocktail party and reception in honor of General Marshall given by the Press Club, the Commonwealth Club and the World Affairs Council. At the completion of this, General Clark, accompanied by General Marshall, returned to the Presidio for a cocktail party at the Officers Club in honor of the Secretary of State. Following the cocktail party General and Mrs. Clark changed to formal dress and that evening attended the California Alumni banquet held in the French Room of the Palace Hotel.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 20 MARCH 1948 - General Clark played golf with Colonel Pete Kilburn, Colonel Lloyd and Colonel Louis Martin.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 21 MARCH 1948 - General Clark and family attended services at the Protestant Chapel on the Post. That evening Mrs. Clark and General and Mrs. Robertson attended a cocktail party at the home of Mr. Nichols following which they were joined by General Clark at the Presidio Officers for dinner and bingo.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 22 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours and at 1000 hours went to the Marine Memorial Building to open the Economic Mobilization Course being held there. He returned to his office and spent the remainder of the morning taking care of routine administrative matters. That afternoon he remained at his quarters to meet Bumpy and Bill Stevenson (Oberlin College President) who arrived there about 1545 hours to spend the remainder of the afternoon and night.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 23 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spent the morning taking care of routine administrative matters and preparing for his departure for the East. He remained at his quarters throughout the afternoon.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 24 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and remained there until 1100 hours when he returned to his quarters to prepare for his departure for New York City. At 1230 hours he left the Presidio for Hamilton Field and at 1350 hours was airborne enroute to New York City by way of Albuquerque.

* * * *

NEW YORK CITY - 25 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at Mitchel Field, New York City, at 0730 hours. He was met by Lt. Colonel John Crowley, senior aide to General Courtney Hodges, Commanding General of First Army. The General, accompanied by Colonel Grogan and Major Luther, went to the Hotel Astor where they were to stay during their time in New York. General Clark had lunch with General Hodges at Governors Island, which was also attended by General Wyman, General Woodruff and General Jaynes. General Clark returned to the hotel and rested during the afternoon. That afternoon he had dinner at the Waldorf Astoria with former president Herbert Hoover.

* * * *

NEW YORK CITY - 26 MARCH 1948 - General Clark had breakfast in his hotel suite. He then had luncheon with Cardinal Spellman and that afternoon had some friends in for cocktails. After dinner he went to see the musical comedy HIGH BUTTON SHOES.

* * * *

NEW YORK CITY - 27 MARCH 1948 - General Clark saw Mr. Jay Lovestone, United Ladies Garment Workers Union, and then Mr. Minot Dole, President of the Ski Association of America. Later he called on General Julius Ochs Adler of the New York Times and had lunch in his hotel with General Matt Ridgeway. In the Afternoon he saw George Sokolosky, news feature writer. That evening the General went to dinner at the Twenty-One Club with Clare and Henry Luce, and later saw the play MR. ROBERTS, starring Henry Fonda.

* * * *

NEW YORK-WASHINGTON, DC - 28 MARCH 1948 - General Clark left his hotel and drove to Mitchel Field where he boarded his plane, accompanied by Colonel Grogan, Lt. Colonel Jack Nygaard, who had joined him in New York from Fort Dix, and Major Luther, and flew to National Airport, Washington, DC., arriving 1215 hours. He was met at the airport by his mother and General and Mrs. Alfred M. Gruenther. The General went immediately to his mother's apartment where he would stay while in Washington. In the afternoon the General rested, and in the evening, accompanied by his mother and Major Luther, attended a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. Katritz, friends of Mrs. C. C. Clark.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC - 29 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at the Pentagon Building at 0900 hours and spent part of the morning being briefed on the conference by Colonels Grogan and Slocum. Colonel Slocum had flown in from San Francisco yesterday. Later in the morning the General called on General Gruenther at his office and then went to pay his respects to the Secretary of National Defense Forrestal. He returned to his office and made an appointment with Senator Harry Cain (Washington) for lunch at the Senate dining room. At 1500 hours the General called on Senator Wherry (Nebraska) and then returned to his mother's apartment. In the evening he had cocktails and dinner at the quarters of General J. Lawton Collins, Assistant Chief of Staff.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC - 30 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0815 hours and conferred with Colonels Slocum and Grogan on the subjects on the Conference Agenda for the day. The conference began at 0900 hours and the General remained there until lunch time. After seeing several people who called on the General, he returned to his mother's apartment. In the evening the General had dinner with Mrs. Clark, his aunt Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Graham, a friend of his mother.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC - 31 MARCH 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0815 hours and at 0900 hours attended the conference, where he remained until after 1300 hours. The General then had lunch in the Pentagon Building. Following lunch a conference was held of Army Commanders regarding news media coverage. They were briefed by General Parks and then were photographed for stills and moving pictures and recordings made. At 1800 hours the General left the Pentagon and went to the apartment of his mother from where he called his son in Trieste. The General had seen Major General Maxwell D. Taylor, Superintendent of West Point and General Taylor had requested Bill Clark as his aide on Bill's return from overseas. General Clark called Bill to learn his reactions. In the evening General Clark attended dinner given by General and Mrs. Omar Bradley.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC - 1 APRIL 1948 - General Clark saw Brigadier General Edgar E. Hume regarding the General's receiving the Italian decoration - Grand Officer of the Military Order of Italy - either in Italy or in Washington from the Italian Ambassador, thinking such places for the citation may aid in the battle against communism. The General then attended the conference following which he saw Chaplain Pat Ryan, Assistant Chief of Chaplains and former Fifth Army Chaplain. The General again saw General Hume, who, having seen the Italian Ambassador, decided to drop the matter regarding the Italian decoration. General Clark returned to his mother's apartment and spent the afternoon there. That evening he attended a cocktail and dinner given by Mr. Frederic Paterson, a friend of Mrs. Clark.

* * * *

WASHINGTON-CHICAGO - 2 APRIL 1948 - General Clark attended the final phase of the conference this morning. He left the conference at 1130 hours and called on General Eisenhower for a 15 minute conference, leaving the building immediately thereafter to go to the National Airport where he boarded his plane. To see him off were his mother, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Graham and Mr. Paterson, also General Carl Grey of the Veterans Administration. General Clark's plane left the airport at 1200 hours and landed in Chicago at 1530 hours. He was met by Nate Cummings' son and escorted to the Hotel Drake where the General spent the night. During his stay in Chicago the General had several conferences with Mr. Cummings.

* * * *

CHICAGO-SAN FRANCISCO - 3 APRIL 1948 - Accompanied by Mr. Cummings, the General drove to the airport where he boarded his plane at 0800 hours, landing for lunch at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and arriving Hamilton Field at 1900 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 APRIL 1948 - General Clark spent the morning playing golf. He rested in the afternoon and in the evening had cocktails at the quarters of Colonel and Mrs. William R. Woodward, following which he was their guest at dinner and bingo at the Officers Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 APRIL 1948 - General Clark spent the day in preparation for Army Day, 6 April.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 APRIL 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and went over his speech for Army Day. At 1000 hours he talked with Admiral Struble, USN, who had arrived to receive a decoration in the afternoon. Immediately following his visit with the Admiral, General Clark had a conference on the final plans for the ceremony this afternoon. He left his office at 1100 hours and visited the various exhibits on the parade ground. He had lunch at his quarters and then returned to the parade ground at 1530 hours and from the sideline viewed the children's parade. At 1600 hours he attended vespers at the Post Chapel. At 1630 hours he met with Mr. Bing Crosby who came in from Los Angeles to receive a decoration. At 1700 hours the General attended the decoration ceremony and parade and at this event the General decorated a number of individuals for outstanding service, including the President's Citation of Merit to Bing Crosby for outstanding work during the war. Immediately following the ceremony, General Clark held a reception for the visiting dignitaries in the Officers Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 APRIL 1948 - General Clark went fishing this day and in the evening had cocktails at the quarters of General Davidson.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 APRIL 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office 0900 hours when he saw General Davidson and Colonel Grogan. He then talked with Colonel McMahon regarding his trip to Arizona. He then dictated correspondence and went over routine office matters and at 1130 hours saw Colonel Gray on some court martial cases. He returned to his quarters for lunch and after returning to the office for a time went to Letterman General Hospital where he visited with his friend General Walter C. Sweeney (retired) who is having an operation. The General spent the evening at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 APRIL 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and talked with Colonel Grogan regarding his receiving the Italian Decoration. At 1000 hours the General received Italian Consul General Giovanni Bosio and they recorded speeches to be sent to Italy. At 1100 hours the decoration ceremony was held at which time General Clark received Italy's highest military order - Grand Officer of the Military Order of Italy. Following this, the General and Mrs. Clark held a reception at the Officers Club for noted Italian-Americans. The General then played golf in the afternoon.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 APRIL 1948 - General Clark played golf this day.

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 APRIL 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning. He remained at his quarters during the afternoon and evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 12 APRIL 1948 - General Clark, accompanied by Mrs. Clark, left by car at 0830 hours. They stopped at Salinas and had lunch with Ralph Hughes, an old friend of the General. They continued on to inspect Camp Roberts and spent the night in Santa Maria.

* * * *

ENROUTE - 13 APRIL 1948 - Mrs. Clark continued on to Los Angeles by car where she took a plane for Phoenix and then drove to Oracle, Arizona to the ranch of Lowell Thomas Murray. General Clark inspected Camp Cooke and then boarded a plane and flew to Tucson where he was met by Mr. Tom Murray, who drove him to the ranch at Oracle.

* * * *

ORACLE, ARIZONA - 14 APRIL 1948 - General Clark spent this day at the ranch.

* * * *

ORACLE-PHOENIX - 15 APRIL 1948 - General Clark remained at the ranch until 1400 hours when he drove to Phoenix and stayed at the home of Mrs. Ann Johnson.

* * * *

PHOENIX, ARIZONA - 16 APRIL 1948 - General Clark conferred with Colonel Jake Zellers, senior National Guard Instructor of Arizona. The General then went to the Adjutant General's office where he called on General Tuthill and conferred with National Guard officers. He then called on the Governor and was received by the Secretary of State, Dan Carvey because of illness of the Governor. He then returned to the AG's office to confer with Regular Army Officers. At noon the General attended a luncheon at the Westward Ho Hotel. In attendance were Army Advisory Committee members and distinguished citizens and military people. Immediately after lunch the General boarded his plane to fly to Palm Springs where he stayed at the home of the Darryl Zanucks.

* * * *

PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA - 17 APRIL 1948 - General Clark spent the day relaxing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Zanuck. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cotton, Colonel and Mrs. (Constance Bennett) John Coulter, and Mr. Howard Hawkes.

* * * *

PALM SPRINGS-MONTEREY-SAN FRANCISCO - 18 APRIL 1948 - General Clark left Palm Springs in his plane at 1200 hours and landed at Monterey Naval Air Station at 1530 hours. He attended a meeting of the officials of the Bank of America at Forest Hill Inn at Pacific Grove that night.

* * * *

FORT ORD-SAN FRANCISCO - 19 APRIL 1948 - In the morning General Clark inspected Fort Ord in company with General Jens Doe and at 1330 hours arrived at the Presidio of San Francisco by car, accompanied by Mrs. Clark.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 20 APRIL 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0930 hours and worked on accumulated correspondence. He later had a long conference with General Davidson on the activities of moving troops to Alaska and also to the Hanford Atomic Plant at Richland, Washington. Later the General talked with Colonel Grogan and Colonel McMahon. At 1215 hours he left the office to have lunch at his quarters, and in the afternoon played golf with Colonel Lloyd and in the evening had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. George Baker.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 21 APRIL 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0900 hours saw Lt. Colonel Gray, Judge Advocate of Sixth Army, on two court martial cases. Later he had a conference with John Brown, president of the Brown Military Academy, and then conferred with Colonel McMahon concerning arrangements for the trip to the Northwest next week. The General then took care of personal correspondence and then held a long conference with General Davidson. He returned to his quarters for lunch at 1230 hours and remained there in the afternoon. At 1730 hours the General attended a reception at the Bohemian Club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. G. Miller's 50th wedding anniversary, and from there went to the cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Taggart.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 22 APRIL 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and immediately conferred with Colonel Grogan concerning his speech to be given before a combined meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club and Foreign Trades Club at Oakland. After finishing work on his speech, the General was then given a last minute report on movement of a portion of the Second Division to Alaska. Later he talked with Colonel McMahon and at 1130 hours left to attend the luncheon meeting in Oakland, accompanied by Colonel Grogan and Captain Waters. The General did not return to the office the rest of the day.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 23 APRIL 1948 - General Clark breakfasted at the residence of Archbishop Mitty with Cardinal Spellman at 0800 hours. Cardinal Spellman had arrived this morning by air from New York enroute to Australia. The General returned to his office later in the morning and worked on routine office matters requiring attention. At 1000 hours he went fishing with General McKay outside the Golden Gate, returning early because of rough weather. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Thomas Murray arrived in San Francisco at 1800 hours and were dinner guests of General and Mrs. Clark that evening. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffiths arrived from Seattle by air to be the house guests of the Clarks.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 24 APRIL 1948 - Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Murray, who were staying at the Bachelors Quarters 42, arrived at the Clark residence at 0800 hours to join the family and the Griffiths for breakfast. Immediately following breakfast they departed by car for Washington State. General Clark went to his office for a short time and then escorted Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths on a ride around the city. That evening General and Mrs. Clark had several people in for cocktails, after which the entire group went to the quarters of Colonel and Mrs. Frank Oxx for dinner, and then went to the Officers Club for the dance. After leaving the group, General and Mrs. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths visited several of the night spots in town.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 25 APRIL 1948 - General Clark spent the day at home with Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, who left for Seattle that evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 26 APRIL 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and immediately had a long conference with Colonel McMahon and Lt. Colonel C. C. Smith regarding his trip to the Hanford Atomic Plant at Richland, Washington. Later he discussed his trip to the Northwest with Colonel McMahon again and at 1030 hours saw General Pape concerning G-2 activities connected with the Hanford Plant. The afternoon was spent playing golf.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO-RICHLAND, WASHINGTON - 27 APRIL 1948 - General Clark left his quarters at 0940 hours for Hamilton Field where he boarded a C-47 piloted by Lt. Colonel Howard Moore and was airborne at 1025 hours. At 1325 the plane landed at Richland, Washington where the General was met by Mr. Carleton Shugg, the plant manager of the Hanford Atomic Plant, Mr. David Shaw, the Assistant Manager, Brigadier General Henry D. Meyer, Commanding Officer of maneuvering forces from the Second Division which were in the Hanford area, and Colonel Michael J. Geraghty, the new Army liaison officer at the plant. The General toured the plant by automobile and returned to the airport at 1600 hours at which time he departed for Seattle, Washington. He arrived Seattle at 1730 hours and was met by Colonel William Donaldson. He spent the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffiths.

* * * *

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON - 28 APRIL 1948 - General Clark was guest speaker at the luncheon of the Rotary Club of Seattle held in the Olympic Hotel. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Warren Kraft, the vice president. The General spent the night with the Griffiths.

* * * *

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON - 29 APRIL 1948 - General Clark, accompanied by Lt. Colonel Howard Moore, went to Hope Island where he spent the day fishing with Captain Paul Wagner. He returned to Seattle that afternoon and spent the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths.

* * * *

SEATTLE-WENATCHEE, WASHINGTON - 30 APRIL 1948 - General Clark had a conference with the commanders of the civilian component units in and about Seattle, at which time he discussed the problems that were confronting them. At 1430 hours he departed from Boeing Field at Seattle by plane for Wenatchee, arriving there at 1540 hours. He was met at the Wenatchee Airport by Mayor Arthur H. Pohlman and Mr. S. A. DiGiorgio, who was the director general of the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival being held at Wenatchee. He was taken to the Cascadian Hotel in Wenatchee where reservations had been made for him and his party. At 1800 hours he was entertained at a cocktail party at the Cascadian Hotel given by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Tichbourne. Following this, the General attended the Princess Banquet, also held at the Cascadian Hotel, at which he gave an informal talk. At 2130 hours he went to the high school auditorium to participate in the Queen's Ball which was being held there. The General left this ball and went across the street to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rubush to attend a party they were giving for him. Following this, he went to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Voltaire L. Bosquet where he was entertained at a midnight luncheon.

* * * *

WENATCHEE, WASHINGTON - 1 MAY 1948 - At 0930 hours General Clark participated in the Apple Blossom Festival parade as the honorary grand marcher. After leading the parade through the streets, which were lined with an estimated crowd of over 100,000 persons, he entered the reviewing stand and watched the rest of the parade go by. Taking part in the parade with him was the Governor of the State of Washington, Mon C. Wallgren and Rear Admiral Fort, commandant of the 13th Naval District at Seattle. At the end of the parade, the General went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Johnson (president of Wenatchee Chamber of Commerce) for lunch. At 1600 hours the General went to the Columbia Hotel where he attended a reception for the businessmen of the Apple Blossom Festival Committee. At 1930 hours he attended the coronation ceremonies of Queen Lila Lee by Governor Wallgren. During these ceremonies he gave a short radio address, followed by a short informal speech. At the conclusion of the coronation ceremonies, General Clark returned to the Cascadian Hotel for the night.

* * * *

WENATCHEE-ELLENSBURG-SEATTLE, WASHINGTON - 2 MAY 1948 - At 0945 hours General Clark left Wenatchee by air plane, arriving Ellensburg at 1030 hours. He was met at the airport by Mr. Lowell Thomas Murray and taken to his home. At 1445 hours the General returned to the airport and departed for Seattle, arriving there at 1545 hours. He was met at the airport by Colonel William Donaldson and taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffiths. That evening he met Mr. Nathan Cummings, who had just flown in from Chicago. Following his conference with Mr. Cummings, the General returned to the home of the Griffiths to spend the night.

* * * *

SEATTLE-SPOKANE, WASHINGTON - 3 MAY 1948 - At 0945 hours General Clark left Seattle by plane for Spokane, arriving there at 1155 hours. He was met at Geiger Field by a reception committee, among whom were Mayor Arthur R. Meehan, Lt. Colonel Gerald R. O'Melveny, Mr. Robert A. Wilson (Scottish Rite) and Colonel Albert Shower, deputy commander of the Spokane Airforce Base. He went from the airport to the Hotel Davenport and thence to the Masonic Temple where he was the guest speaker at a luncheon. Following the luncheon engagement, the General returned to the Davenport Hotel where he spent the afternoon resting. At 1800 hours he attended a cocktail party given by the Reserve Officers Association and following this he was the principal speaker at a dinner also given by the Reserve Officers.

* * * *

SPOKANE-SAN FRANCISCO - 4 MAY 1948 - At 1000 hours General Clark made a recording to be broadcast later over the local radio stations. At 1030 hours he held a press conference, attended by both junior and senior press clubs. At 1100 hours he went to the Gonzaga University where he gave a short talk. At noon the General attended a luncheon meeting of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce at which he was the principal speaker. Following the luncheon he went directly to Geiger Field where he boarded the C-47 at 1340 hours and departed for Hamilton Field, California. General Clark arrived Hamilton Field 1845 hours and returned to the Presidio of San Francisco arriving home at 1920 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. He immediately had a long conference with the Chief of Staff concerning his recent trip to the Hanford Atomic Energy Plant. After seeing Colonels Grogan and McMahon, the General spent the rest of the morning catching up on correspondence, which had accumulated during his absence. The General had lunch at his quarters and later played golf with Colonel Lloyd. He remained at home during the evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours. At 0930 hours he received General Cooke (Brig. Gen. Elliot D.) Assistant Adjutant General of the Department of the Army. Later he discussed several matters with General Davidson and then held a conference with Lt. Col. Smith and Colonel Slocum. He then wrote thankyou notes to people who had entertained him on his recent trip. At noon he returned to his quarters for lunch. The General remained at home in the afternoon, and in the evening had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Max Lilienthal, civilian aide to the Secretary of the Army.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office 0900 hours. At 0915 hours he saw Mr. Al Schwabacher and another member of Mr. Schwabacher's firm. Following his conference with Mr. Schwabacher, he conferred with General Davidson and then talked with Colonel McMahon. At 1100 hours he left his Headquarters, accompanied by Mrs. Clark and Ann and General and Mrs. Butts (Brigadier General Edmund L., Retired), to attend the races at Bay Meadows. The General and party were the guests of Mr. William Kyne, General Manager of Bay Meadows. At 1900 hours the General entertained Mr. Nathan Cummings at dinner. Mr. Cummings had just arrived in town from the East.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 MAY 1948 - General Clark spent the day fishing.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 MAY 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning. He remained at home through the afternoon and evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0930 hours where he attended to routine office matters. At 1730 hours he had cocktails with Mrs. C. R. St. Aubyn. At 1900 hours the General was dinner guest of General and Mrs. Butler.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900. At 0930 he saw Colonel Gray, Judge Advocate. He later presented the Recruiting Award to Major Raymond Black for having the highest recruiting record in the Arizona District. General Clark then worked on correspondence. He played golf in the afternoon and in the evening had cocktails with Mrs. Grace Benoist at 1800 hours. Ann accompanied the General, Mrs. Clark being confined at home with chicken pox.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 12 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. He talked with General Robertson concerning the Reserve Officers Board meeting to select the General officers of the Reserve Corps. At 1000 hours the General met the ten new staff officers who recently joined Sixth Army Headquarters. At 1100 hours the General saw Brigadier General Wendell Westover, Executive for Reserve and ROTC Affairs in Washington. At 1130 hours the General met the candidates for General officers Reserve Corps. They were introduced by General Robertson. At 1215 hours the General was host at the Officers Club for the candidates for General officers of the Reserve Corps and for General officers of Headquarters. In the afternoon he went downtown and in the evening gave a dinner party at the officers club. Those in attendance were: Dean Witter, Mrs. George de Latour, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Neylan, Paul C. Smith, Paul Verdier, Mme. Suzanne de Tesson, General and Mrs. Robertson, General and Mrs. Davidson, General and Mrs. Weaver, Joe Cauthorn, Mr. and Mrs. Coblentz, Mr. and Mrs. Nion Tucker, Nathan Cummings, Mrs. St. Aubyns.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO -13 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. He immediately talked with General Davidson and then saw Mr. Matthews, of the Historical Section of the Department of the Army in Washington, to confer with him on several questions concerning the campaigns in Italy. Mr. Matthews is completing histories on the Fifth Army and other armies in Europe. At 1100 hours the General saw Colonel Charles L. Fox, Commander of the 91st Infantry Division (Reserve) and discussed with him the Colonel's present status since he has not been in good health, and the question of relieving him has arisen. At 1130 hours, Frank Gowen of the State Department, and formerly assistant to Myron C. Taylor at the Vatican, called on General Clark. Mr. Gowen is an old friend of the General's having met him on many occasions in Rome. He is here on State Department work. The General left headquarters at 1230 hours and after lunch he returned to his office for a short time when he worked on his speech to be given tomorrow at the graduation exercises of the Aerial Observer Bombardment School, Mather Air Force Base, Sacramento. The General then returned to his quarters and remained there throughout the evening with Mrs. Clark who is still confined with chicken pox.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO-SACRAMENTO - 14 MAY 1948 - General Clark left his quarters at 0815 hours, accompanied by Colonel McMahon, and drove to Hamilton Field where he boarded a C-47, piloted by Colonel Howard Moore, and flew to Mather Air Force Base and delivered the graduation address for the Aerial Observer Bombardment School. He returned to the Presidio about 1400 hours and spent the afternoon at his quarters.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 15 MAY 1948 - General Clark drove to Hamilton Field to meet Under Secretary of the Army William H. Draper, Jr., who arrived at 1300 hours from Washington, D.C. They returned to the General's office where they discussed various subjects. General Draper was then taken to BOQ 42 where he would stay during his visit. At 1845 hours the General accompanied General Draper to the Pacific Union Club for dinner where General Draper was the guest of honor of Mr. Vic Breeden.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 16 MAY 1948 - General Clark picked up General Draper at 0900 hours and accompanied him to the University of California Extension Auditorium where General Draper delivered the address at the World Trade Convention. Immediately following General Draper's speech, General Clark returned to Headquarters where he remained until noon, at which time he rejoined Mr. Draper at the Hotel Fairmont to attend a luncheon given by the World Trade Committee of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Immediately following this luncheon the General accompanied Secretary Draper to the Bank of America where they met with various members of the staff, including A. P. Giannini, President of the Bank. As soon as the conference was concluded, General Clark bade goodbye to Mr. Draper, who then left for Hamilton Field, accompanied by Major Luther, for his return flight to Washington.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 18 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0930 hours and immediately saw Mr. Matthews to continue discussion of the Fifth Army history. This conference continued until shortly before noon, at which time the General conferred with General Davidson. The General returned to his quarters for lunch and remained there in the afternoon. In the evening he had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Colman at their home at 1930 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 19 MAY 1948 - General Clark spent the greater part of the morning with Mr. Matthews and at 1130 hours attended a decoration ceremony for Mrs. Marie Smith, whose husband was killed in the war (prison camp) Lt. Colonel Louis Barbour. After the ceremony, the General resumed his conference with Mr. Matthews, at the conclusion of which he discussed several matters with General Davidson. Later the General saw Colonel McMahon and then went to his quarters for lunch. In the afternoon the General played golf with Colonel Lloyd.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 20 MAY 1948 - At 0855 hours General Clark saw Lt. Colonel Gray, Judge Advocate, regarding two court martial cases. Immediately following this conference, the General conferred with Mr. Matthews to bring to a close the series of discussions he had with Mr. Matthews regarding Fifth Army history. At 1145 hours the General went to his quarters and then, accompanied by General Davidson, went to the Bohemian Club as guest of General Walter Sweeney. That evening he had dinner as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cummings at the Hotel Fairmont.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 21 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and after dictating a few letters talked with Colonel McMahon concerning arrangements for a trip to Montana at which time he will speak before the Reserve Officers Association convention at Great Falls. Later he worked on his speech for tomorrow and then went over several details with General Davidson. At 1130 hours he left his office and went to his quarters where he was picked up by Mr. Al Schwabacher with whom he had lunch and a golf engagement that afternoon. The evening was spent at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 22 MAY 1948 - General Clark departed by car at 0820 hours for Hamilton Field where he boarded a C-47, piloted by Colonel Moore, and was airborne at 0900 hours. He landed at Great Falls, Montana Air Base at 1500 hours where he was met by Colonel John H. Chennault, commander of the Air Base, Major Stanley M. Lane and Major Frazer of the Reserve Officers Association. He was escorted to his hotel where he held a conference with various members of the local Reserve Officers Association, immediately following which he held a press conference. Later he worked on his speech and then attended a cocktail party given by Major and Mrs. Robert Jaccard, who had been with the General all through the war and in Austria. Major Jaccard is now on duty in Great Falls. At 1900 hours General Clark attended a dinner given by the Reserve Officers Association at which time he was the principal speaker. Immediately following his address, General Clark boarded his plane and departed from Great Falls at 2100 hours.

* * * *

GREAT FALLS-SAN FRANCISCO - 23 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived back at Hamilton Field at 0300 hours and was met by Captain Waters. He drove directly to his quarters and retired for the remainder of the morning. At 1000 hours General Clark played golf with Colonels Kilburn and Lloyd and spent the rest of the day at his quarters.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 24 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 1000 hours he conferred with Colonel McBride, whom he had asked to stop by enroute to Fort Ord where Colonel McBride was reporting for duty. The remainder of the morning was spent catching up on routine administrative matters. Following lunch the General returned to his office for a short time and then left for home where he spent the remainder of the afternoon and evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 25 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. The greater part of the morning was spent attending to routine office matters. At 1215 hours he attended a luncheon at the Presidio Officers Club given by the Sixth Army G-1 Section in honor of General LeRoy Watson, new commander of the southern military district, and General W. S. Paul. Following the luncheon the General returned to his office for a short time and then went to his quarters where he had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cummings, who arrived at 4 p.m. to stay for dinner.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 26 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 1030 hours he received Colonel Prior-Palmer, British Military Attache in Washington. The remainder of the morning was spent doing routine office work. At lunchtime the General returned to his quarters where he remained the balance of the afternoon. That evening the General and his family attended a cocktail party given by General and Mrs. W. M. Robertson at their quarters.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 27 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. He spent the morning and afternoon attending to routine administrative matters. The General remained at quarters that evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 28 MAY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spent the morning and early afternoon attending to regular office duties. At 1630 hours General and Mrs. Clark attended a decoration ceremony on the Parade Ground, which included presentation of retirement papers of General James R. N. Weaver, Deputy Post Commander. Following the Ceremony, General Clark went to the reception at the Officers Club in honor of General and Mrs. Weaver. That evening General and Mrs. Clark had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cummings at the Hotel Fairmont.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 29 MAY 1948 - General Clark spent the day playing golf and resting. That evening General and Mrs. Clark and Ann met their son Bill at the Fairfield Air Base. Bill was returning from Trieste, Italy after three years of overseas duty. The family returned to quarters about 2300 hours at which time General Clark presented Bill with a new Chevrolet convertible.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 30 MAY 1948 - General Clark and family attended church services which honored Decoration Day. That evening they entertained their son Bill with a cocktail party at their quarters followed by dinner and bingo at the Officers Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 31 MAY 1948 - General Clark remained at quarters, this day being a holiday. That evening he and his family went to dinner at the home of Mr. Vincent DeMassa.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 1 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours. He spent the morning taking care of routine administrative matters. At 0930 hours he talked over the telephone with Major General Charles L. Mullins, Commanding General, 25th Infantry Division, who had just arrived in San Francisco aboard the USAT GENERAL BUCKNER. At noon General Clark attended the luncheon at the Palace Hotel given by the San Francisco Rotary Club, at which he was the principal speaker. After lunch the General returned home where he remained the rest of the afternoon and evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 2 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. At 0930 hours he conferred with Lt. Colonel Gray, JAG Sixth Army. At 1100 hours he returned home where he posed for a picture with his son in front of the new Chevrolet convertible he had gotten for Bill. At 1430 hours General Clark talked with Captain Robert Morris, who had arrived from Honolulu that morning by way of a navy plane. In the evening General and Mrs. Clark entertained a number of guests with cocktails at his quarters. Following cocktails they gave a dinner at the Officers Club and then returned home where they showed a movie.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 1100 hours Mr. Giovanni Bosio, Italian Consul General, stopped in the General's office to pay his respects prior to returning to duty in Italy. At 1130 hours the General had a conference with Mr. C. H. Nichols, head of the Army Advisory Committee at Bakersfield, California. He then had a luncheon with guests at his quarters Mr. Jack Cornelius and Mr. Nichols. The General played golf in the afternoon and that evening he and Mrs. Clark went to the theater with Bill and Ann.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 1000 hours he conferred with Mr. Robert L. Spencer on his income tax. (Mr. Spencer is the income tax expert loaned to the General by Mr. Nate Cummings). He returned to his office after lunch for a short time and took care of routine office matters. The evening was spent at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 JUNE 1948 - General Clark played golf this day. That evening General and Mrs. Clark had cocktails at the home of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. C. C. Smith, following which they attended a formal dinner party and dance at the Officers Club, sponsored by G-3 Section.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 JUNE 1948 - Early in the morning General Clark and Bill went fishing. In the evening the General and family attended a dinner party at the Officers Club given by Colonel and Mrs. Woodward. Following dinner they remained at the club and played bingo.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours. At 1000 hours he held a conference with his G-3 section on the maritime strike. The General returned to his quarters for lunch and returned to the office in the afternoon, to take care of routine matters. That evening he and his family were dinner guests of Mr. Paul C. Smith.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO-PORTLAND, ORE - 8 JUNE 1948 - General Clark, accompanied by Colonel Frank H. Oxx, 6th Army Engineer, and Mr. Paul C. Smith, editor of the Chronicle, flew to Portland, Oregon to look over the flood areas. They returned from Portland at 1915 hours. The General changed clothes and went to the quarters of General Lawton at Fort Scott where he and Lt. General Matt S. Eddy were guests.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 0930 hours he saw Lt. General Matt S. Eddy in his office. At 1000 hours he conferred with Colonel Lloyd. He had lunch at his quarters and in the afternoon played golf. At 1700 hours the General and Mrs. Clark entertained a number of guests at their quarters with cocktails in honor of the silver wedding anniversary of Colonel and Mrs. Stanley Grogan. That evening the General went to the Marine Memorial Building in San Francisco to attend a dinner given by the Islam Legion of Honor, at which he was the chief speaker.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 1000 hours he left to make an inspection tour of Fort Scott. Following lunch, the General played golf with Colonels Woodward and Lloyd and his son Bill. The General spent the evening at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0930 hours held a conference with Colonel Hughes and Lt. Colonel Dean (Colonel Hughes was replacing Colonel Dean as ORC staff officer with Sixth Army headquarters). At 1215 hours the General attended a luncheon at the St. Francis Yacht Club as guest of Mr. James David Zellerbach, the new European Recovery Plan representative to Italy. The General spent the afternoon and evening at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 12 JUNE 1948 - General Clark, accompanied by General and Mrs. Robertson, General and Mrs. Gar Davidson, General and Mrs. Frederick B. Butler and General Pape, drove to the campus of the University of California, Berkeley, where they were escorted to Faculty Glade to attend the luncheon given by the Alumni Association in honor of President Truman. President Truman and his party arrived at 1230 hours. General Clark sat to the right of the President at the Speakers Table. Immediately following the luncheon, General Clark joined the procession headed for the Stadium and marched in to the Speakers Platform at which time he attended the graduation exercises of the University. President Truman was the principal speaker. Following this ceremony, the General returned to his quarters at the Presidio.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 13 JUNE 1948 - General Clark remained at his quarters throughout the morning and at 1310 hours General "Hap" Arnold, accompanied by his aide, Colonel Chesley, arrived at General Clark's quarters at which time General Clark joined the group and drove to Golden Gate Park to attend the Flag Day celebration conducted by the Elks Club of San Francisco. President Truman was the principal speaker. Immediately following the ceremonies, General Clark returned to the Presidio and after resting a short time attended a cocktail party and dinner at the Officers Club given by Captain and Mrs. Frank Talbot. He left the club at 2030 hours and with Major Luther departed by train for Los Angeles.

* * * *

LOS ANGELES - 14 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived Los Angeles at 0900 hours and was met by Brigadier General LeRoy Watson and Colonel Richard Hocker. After conferring with General Watson, the General went to the train master's office where he met other military personnel and Mayor Bowron of Los Angeles. At 1010 hours the President's train arrived and General Clark and other members of the reception committee boarded the train in order to welcome the President to Southern California. Immediately following the President's arrival, the parade formed. After the parade, the General attended a luncheon given by the Press Club at the Cocanut Grove of the Hotel Ambassador, at which President Truman was guest speaker. Following this the General attended a cocktail party given by the Press Club for members of the White House press who were accompanying the President. At 1500 hours the General departed for the airport, escorted by General Watson, and arrived at Hamilton Field at 1820 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 15 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spent the morning taking care of routine administrative matters. He spent the afternoon and evening at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 16 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0850 hours and spent the morning taking care of routine administrative matters. He played golf in the afternoon with Admiral Redman, Colonel Woodward and Captain Talbot. That evening General Clark and family attended a cocktail party and buffet at the Officers Club as guests of Colonel and Mrs. Andrew E. Forsyth.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 17 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office 0900 hours. He spent the first part of the morning catching up on correspondence and then conferred for a time with Colonel Grogan concerning the visit of the Austrian delegation to the International Labor Organization convention here in San Francisco. The delegation consisted of: Karl Maisel (Secretary of Labor), Johann Boehm (Deputy President Austrian Parliament), Gustav Hoffman (in Under Secretary of State's Office), Josef Hammerl (Under Secretary of State), Eduard F. Stark (Social Research Officer of Austrian Trades Union Congress), Dr. Frederick Waller (Consul General of Western States from Austria), Dr. Fritz Hoynigg (Administrative Manager of Alpin Montan Society), Anton Feitscher (Secretary of Minister Albenburger). This group called on General Clark at 1030 hours. Immediately after this conference, the General conferred with Colonel McMahon and General Davidson and then left his office for his quarters where he had lunch and packed for his trip to Carmel and Salinas. At 1300 hours the General, accompanied by Mrs. Clark and Major Luther, drove to the LaPlaya Hotel in Carmel where they spent the night. In the evening they were joined by Colonel and Mrs. Sullivan, who had spent the day at Fort Ord. They had dinner at the hotel. The chef had prepared a large, decorated cake in their honor.

* * * *

CARMEL-SALINAS-SAN FRANCISCO - 18 JUNE 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark, accompanied by Colonel and Mrs. Sullivan, arrived in Salinas, at the Hotel Jeffries, at 1100 hours. Here they were met by Colonel Frank Heple (retired), whom the General had known while he was stationed at Fort Ord; Mr. J. C. Juri, chairman of the Reception Committee. They were escorted to private rooms in the hotel where they met the local civilians of Salinas and where they were joined by Ann and Bill, who had driven down from San Francisco. Mr. Juri's daughter had arranged for Ann to be dressed as a cow girl. At 1130 hours, General and Mrs. Robertson, Colonel and Mrs. Woodward, and Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Smith joined the General's party and after lunch at the Elks Club the entire party was escorted to the Salinas Rodeo grounds. General Clark, Ann and Bill were taken to the stables where they were mounted on horses and as the parade arrived at the stadium, General Clark joined Mr. F. E. (Gene) Dayton, head of the Salinas Rodeo Association, and rode at the head of the parade, followed by Bill and Ann. The General spent the afternoon enjoying the wonderful performance of the California Rodeo, and immediately following the close of the program, he and his party departed by car for San Francisco, arriving at 1945 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 19 JUNE 1948 - General Clark played golf this morning. At 1230 hours he attended a luncheon at the Pacific Union Club given by Mr. Garrett McEnerney in honor of Mr. Basil O'Connor, head of the American Red Cross. The General was accompanied by General Charles Saltzman, Assistant Secretary of State, and an old friend who had arrived night before from Washington, D.C. to take part in the National American Red Cross convention here in San Francisco. That evening, accompanied by his family and General Saltzman, the General was the dinner guest of Mr. Nathan Cummings at the Hotel Fairmont.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 20 JUNE 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning and after lunch rested. At 1800 hours the General and Mrs. Clark had cocktails at their quarters for the following, and then the party went to the Officers Club where they had dinner and played bingo: General Saltzman, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mattison, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Muncie, Mrs. Spurgeon of Muncie, Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Hill, Colonel and Mrs. Browning, Colonel and Mrs. Sullivan, Mr. Nathan Cummings, Mr. Allyn, Mr. Stuart, Mr. Thely (friends of Mr. Cummings) Mr. Hayler of Muncie and Lt. Colonel and Mrs. C. C. Smith.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 21 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0840 hours and at 0930 hours conferred with Colonels Grogan and Ports with reference to the coming Borgstrom funeral ceremonies to be held at Tremonton, Utah. He spent the remainder of the morning attending to routine administrative matters. The General had lunch at his quarters and returned to his office. At 1500 hours the General had a conference with General Butler concerning Reserve Officer activities. At 1530 Senor Benedetto D'Acunzo, the new Italian Consul General, paid a call on General Clark. General Clark spent the evening at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 22 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 0930 hours he conferred with Lt. Colonel Ellis, acting Sixth Army JA. At 1000 hours he saw Lt. Colonel Rockwell, recruiting officer for Phoenix, Arizona. He remained at home in the afternoon and evening, treating a slight cold.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 23 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0850 hours. After going over accumulated correspondence, the General held a long conference with Colonel Grogan concerning his speech to be delivered at the National Red Cross convention this evening, and then he worked on the final draft of same. Following this the General talked with Colonel McMahon concerning his speaking engagements and then saw General Walter Sweeney (retired) and his grandson at 1130 hours. He then dictated some changes in his speech and then went to lunch. Following lunch he returned to his office and studied his speech and went over additional correspondence. He returned to quarters and rested. At 1815 hours he attended a cocktail party given by the local chapter of the National Red Cross in honor of Mr. Basil O'Connor, General Clark and Mrs. Hickey, who will also speak. At 1900 hours the General, accompanied by General Saltzman, Assistant Secretary of State, and Mrs. Clark, drove to the Civic Auditorium where they attended the Red Cross banquet at which General Clark was the principal speaker. At the close of the banquet, General Clark went to the Hotel Fairmont where he attended a small party given by Mrs. Spurgeon of Muncie.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 24 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours. He immediately saw General Charles Saltzman, and talked with him for the next hour. Later he dictated some letters and then held a long conference with Col. McMahon concerning the Selective Service program. Later he conferred with Col. Grogan and then with Colonel Slocum of G-3. Colonel Grogan then briefed the General on the schedule for the Borstrom funeral at Tremonton, Utah on Saturday.

The General left his office for lunch at his quarters, and spent the afternoon playing golf. At 1730 hours he attended a cocktail party given by Colonel McMahon in honor of General Saltzman. General Saltzman departed this evening by plane to return to Washington.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO-ENROUTE TO TREMENTON, UTAH - 25 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and worked on his speech to be delivered at Trementon. He later conferred with Colonel McMahon and then left his office in order to prepare for his trip to Utah. He then left on the Overland Limited at 1230 hours, accompanied by Major Luther.

* * * *

TREMENTON, UTAH - 26 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at Ogden at 0640 hours and was met by Colonels Grogan and Ports. They proceeded to the hotel where the General was interviewed by the local press, and after breakfast they discussed final arrangements with regard to the funeral. At 0845 hours General Clark, accompanied by Colonel Grogan, General Hunt, Admiral Redman and General Schramm drove to the Stake House in Garland where general services were held honoring the four Borgstrom sons who were killed in the war within six months of each other. The General was one of the principal speakers at the funeral ceremonies, along with Mr. Albert ^{Smith} of the Latter Day Saints, and principal of the local high school. Immediately following services, General Clark was host at a luncheon in the local Armory to the Borgstrom family and friends and local civic dignitaries. After lunch, General Clark and the Borgstrom family returned to the church where they witnessed the removal of the remains from the church. They were placed in Army hearsts and taken to the cemetery. Following services at the cemetery General Clark bade goodbye to the Borgstrom family and departed for the Ogden Municipal Airport to board his plane on the return trip to San Francisco.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 27 JUNE 1948 - General Clark remained at his quarters during the morning and in the afternoon played golf. He had dinner with Colonel and Mrs. Peter Lloyd at the club, which was preceded by cocktails at their home. The General returned to quarters at 2000 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 28 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours. He saw Colonel McMahon concerning the decoration ceremony and reception to be held this afternoon, and he later went over the citations to be given in order that he might prepare the remarks he will make this afternoon at the ceremony. He later talked with Colonel Grogan and then attended to official correspondence. After lunch at his quarters, the General rested and then returned to the office at 1600 hours where he was joined by Mrs. Clark. The ceremony commenced at 1630 hours. Among guests at the ceremony were Admirals Nimitz and Oldendorf, who received the Army DSM, members of the Army Advisory Committee of San Francisco, and members of the Austrian delegation to the International Labor Organization. Immediately following the ceremony, General Clark was host at a reception at the Officers Club. That evening, General and Mrs. Clark had guests for a movie at the hut.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 29 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and held a long conference with the acting Chief of Staff, Colonel McMahon, on the Selective Service program, and the reopening of old camps. G-3 also was called in on the conference. He then dictated some official correspondence and later saw Colonel Woodward concerning the new Board of Governors for the Officers Club. After an early lunch, General Clark played golf. That evening he attended a dinner in honor of Admiral Nimitz and General Arnold at the Pacific Union Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 30 JUNE 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and immediately saw the acting Chief of Staff Colonel McMahon. He later saw acting Judge Advocate Lt. Colonel Ellis, who briefed him on the case of Private Donald Warner, prisoner in the guard house. General Clark saw Mrs. Warner at 1000 hours. General Clark spent the rest of the morning working on his speech to be given this noon in honor of the founding of San Francisco. At 1215 hours General and Mrs. Clark attended a luncheon at the Officers Club commemorating the founding of the Mission Dolores. That evening he attended a cocktail party given by General and Mrs. Hunt at the Franciscan Club, followed by attendance at the Ice Follies as guests of Colonel and Mrs. Sullivan.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 1 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours. He spent the greater part of the morning taking care of correspondence and then conferred with Colonel Mc Mahon. At 1125 he saw General Edwin L. Sibert and later conferred with Colonels Grogan and Slocum. After lunch the General rested for a short time and then played golf with Colonel Lloyd. That evening, with his family, the General had dinner with Nathan Cummings at the Hotel Fairmont.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 2 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 0930 hours saw Lt. Colonel Ellis, acting JA, and then conferred with Col. McMahon. At 1100 hours he saw Mrs. Mattison and her nephew, Cpl. Terrence McGough, whom the General had aided in being returned to the States after an eye injury. After lunch at his quarters, General Clark rested and then went down town to do some shopping. In the evening he attended a cocktail party at Letterman Officers Club given by Colonel and Mrs. Gorby.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 JULY 1948 - General Clark remained at home a part of the morning and later played golf. He rested in the afternoon and evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 JULY 1948 - General Clark went fishing this day.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 JULY 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning. This day was a holiday and he did not go to his office.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. He conferred with Colonel McMahon and other staff members and in the afternoon went fishing with Lt. Col. Howard Moore.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. He saw Colonel Pape, G-2, at 0930 hours and at 1030 hours Mr. Harry A. Scott, the new Canadian Consul General in San Francisco, called to pay his respects. At 1100 hours General Clark held a decoration ceremony in his office in which he awarded posthumously the Silver Star with Oak Leaf Cluster and the Bronze Star Medal to Captain Rex T. McCord. The decoration was made to the Captain's sister Mrs. Voncelle McCord Eastham, who was accompanied by her young son Max. Following this ceremony, General Clark presented the Brazilian Medal of War to Colonels Grogan and McMahon. In the afternoon the General played golf with Colonels Lloyd and Woodward and Captain Talbot. At 1800 hours Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robertson (Vice President of Garwood Industries) called at the General's quarters for cocktails, accompanied by Colonel and Mrs. Grogan. At 1930 hours General and Mrs. Clark, accompanied by Ann and Bert Meek, Colonel and Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Joseph Sullivan and Captain Dallam, went downtown to the Tonga Room at the Hotel Fairmont as guests of Mr. Benj. Swigg, president of the Fairmont Hotel Association, for dinner.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 1015 hours, accompanied by Colonel Lloyd, the deputy Post Commander, the General inspected the Presidio and studied proposed sites for trailer camps for the Army personnel. At 1130 hours, Colonel Thayer C. Rich, former surgeon of headquarters, USFA, called to pay his respects. General Clark had lunch at his quarters and returned to his office at 1415 hours. He left the office at 1530 and played golf with Colonel Lloyd. He remained at home with his family throughout the evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. At 0930 hours he saw Lt. Colonel Ellis, acting JA and reviewed two court martial cases with him. At 0950 hours the General interviewed three new field grade officers, who had just reported at Army Headquarters for duty - Lt Colonel Henderson, Major Holland, Colonel Holley. At 1000 hours the General held a conference with G-3 regarding the new organization of the Fourth Infantry Division. In the afternoon, he went salmon fishing off the Farrallone Islands, returning to the Post at 1830 hours. The General, accompanied by Mrs. Clark then went to cocktails and buffet supper at the Presidio Officers Club given by Major Jack Luther as a going away party for Captain and Mrs. Lee Ecklon, Captain and Mrs. William Waters, Lt. and Mrs. Bud Cecil, and Major Oswalt.

* * * *

SONOMA COUNTY - 10 JULY 1948 - At 1030 hours General and Mrs. Clark went to Sonoma County to the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Coblentz to spend the weekend.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 JULY 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark returned from Sonoma County at 1500 hours and went to cocktails at the quarters of Colonel and Mrs. Joseph Sullivan at 1800 hours and then to the Officers Club for dinner and bingo as guests of the Sullivans - in honor of Major General Harry J. Collins.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 12 JULY 1948 - The General arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 0930 hours he held a conference with Major General Harry J. Collins, new Commanding General, 2nd Infantry Division, Fort Lewis, Washington. At 1000 hours, Brigadier General Milton Boone, Quartermaster, retired, called on the General. At 1215 hours General Clark returned home for lunch and came back to the office at 1415 hours. At 1530 he left to play golf with Colonel Peter J. Lloyd. At 1830 hours, General and Mrs. Clark gave a buffet supper and movie party which ended at 2300 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 13 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours. At 1000 hours he saw Mr. Cheek, Director of the San Francisco office of Internal Intelligence Agency, with Colonel Pape, Army G-2. At 1100 hours he discussed several court martial cases with Lt. Colonel Ellis, acting Army JA. In the Afternoon the General went fishing inside the Bay for striped bass. He dined at home in the evening with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 14 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours. At 0915 hours Colonel John E. McMahon, commanding officer of Sixth Army Escort Detachment, Oakland, California, called to pay his respects. At 0930 hours, Lt. Colonel King, director of the San Francisco Marketing Center, accompanied by Colonel Sullivan, Army Quartermaster, called. At 1000 hours the General saw General Whitlock, new Commanding General of the 10th Division. At 1100 hours, General Clark saw Mr. Williamson of the Fortune Fisheries, and Mr. Gordon Tevis. In the afternoon he played golf with Colonel Lloyd, and dined at home that evening with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 15 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours and at 1000 hours attended the Chief of Staff's staff conference. He had lunch at his quarters, and in the afternoon played golf with Colonel Lloyd. That evening General and Mrs. Clark went to dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, 3570 Jackson Street.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 16 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours. At 1100 hours the General saw Dr. Matthewson. He had lunch at his quarters, and returned to the office at 1415 hours, returning home at 1600 hours. That evening, General Clark, accompanied by Mrs. Clark and Ann, went to dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. ~~Jean~~ Kene Witter, Piedmont, California.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA - 17 JULY 1948 - The General left his quarters at 0815 hours, accompanied by Captain Dallam, and drove to Hamilton Field and took off by plane at 0900 hours enroute to Washington, D.C. to attend the funeral of General Pershing. The plane landed at Cheyenne, Wyoming at 1200 hours. There they were met by Colonel Elliott, post commander, and Lt. Colonel Page, Post Executive Officer, and had lunch at the Officers Club, Fort Warren. The plane left Cheyenne at 1330 hours and arrived Indianapolis, Indiana at 1800 hours (CDST). The General stayed over night as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. O. McCormick.

* * * *

INDIANAPOLIS-WASHINGTON, D.C. - 18 JULY 1948 - General Clark departed for Washington, DC at 0930 hours and arrived at the Washington National Airport at 1200 hours where they were met by Major Scott of General Bradley's office. General Clark went to his mother's home to spend the night.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, D.C. - 19 JULY 1948 - At 0915 hours General Clark went to the Pentagon Building where he conferred with several staff directors, including General Irving, deputy director of Personnel, General Chamberlin, director of Intelligence, and General Gruenther, director of Joint Chiefs of Staff. General Clark's son Bill arrive this morning with General Maxwell Taylor, superintendent of USMA. At 1000 hours General Clark had a conference with the Secretary of Defense Forrestal and at 1100 hours went to General Bradley's office for lunch, attended by the Army Commanders, Chiefs of the General Staffs. At 1225, in a group with Generals Eisenhower and Bradley, the Army Commanders and Chiefs of Staffs, General Clark went to the Capitol and there joined in the procession accompanying the body of General of the Armies Pershing to Arlington National Cemetery for interment. The line of procession was from the Capitol, down Constitution Avenue, to the Memorial Bridge, from there to the Amphitheater to Arlington Cemetery. The ceremonies were concluded at 1545 hours and General Clark returned to the Pentagon Building and immediately thereafter departed for his mother's home. That evening, General Clark dined at the Army-Navy Club with his mother and son, accompanied by Lt. Col. Jack Nygaard.

* * * *

left

WASHINGTON-SAN FRANCISCO - 20 JULY 1948 - General Clark/his mother's home at 0815 hours and took off from the National Airport at 0845 hours enroute to San Francisco. They stopped at Scott Field, East St. Louis, Illinois, where they were met by the acting Base Commander, Colonel Pratt. They had lunch at the Officers Mess and departed Scott Field at 1230 hours (CDT), arriving Cheyenne, Wyoming at 1300 hours (RMST). The General was again met by Colonel Elliott, Post Commander. Also at the airport, General Clark was met by a former enlisted man in his command, now retired, Sgt. Weste. At 1345 hours (RMST) General Clark and party departed Cheyenne and arrived Hamilton Field at 1715 hours. From there they drove to his quarters at the Presidio, arriving 1800 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 21 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours. At 1030 hours the General swore in the first contingent of Regular Army WAC enlisted personnel. At 1100 hours, with Admiral Beary, commander of Western Sea Frontier, General Clark presented the Medal of Merit for outstanding service during the past war in civilian capacity to Doctors Terman and Ewell, scientists. The General had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon with Colonel Lloyd. That evening, General and Mrs. Clark entertained twenty guests at cocktails at the house and then at the Smorgasbord dinner dance at the Presidio Officers Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 22 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. At 0900 hours he saw Colonel Pape, G-2 and at 0930 hours Colonel Ports, Assistant G-1, regarding the album to be sent to the Borgstrom family in Tremonton, Utah. At 1000 hours, Major General Ewart Plank, Commanding General of the New York Port of Embarkation, called to pay his respects. At 1030 hours, Colonel Edmunds, Army Information Officer, discussed Army Advisory activities with General Clark. During the afternoon the General went fishing inside the bay. At 1730 hours, General

Weible, director of Training Army Field Forces, went to the house for cocktails. At 1930 hours, General and Mrs. Clark went to dinner at the Blue Fox Cafe to celebrate Ann's birthday.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 23 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0930 hours had a conference with General Weible-G-3 of the Army Field Forces. The General had lunch at home and departed immediately thereafter for Bohemian Grove where he stayed at the camp of Mr. Herbert Hoover.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO (BOHEMIAN GROVE) - 24 JULY 1948 - General Clark was at Bohemian Grove.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 25 JULY 1948 - General Clark returned from Bohemian Grove in the early afternoon and that evening General and Mrs. Clark were the guests of Colonel and Mrs. Woodward for cocktails at their quarters and dinner and bingo at the Officers Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 26 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0900 hours and at 1000 hours had a conference with Major General Robertson and Colonel Slocum regarding the visit to National Guard camps. He had lunch at home and returned to his office in the afternoon. He left the office at 1500 hours and played golf during the afternoon with Colonel Lloyd. He dined at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 27 JULY 1948 - General Clark departed his quarters for Hamilton Field at 0815 hours, accompanied by Colonel Slocum, Army G-3, Colonel Hidalgo, National Guard representative, and Captain Dallam. He flew to Camp San Luis Obispo where he was met at the airport by Major General Curtis D. O'Sullivan, California State Adjutant General. He drove from the airport to the camp where he was met by an Honor Guard of the National Guard units which were encamped there. Immediately after reviewing the Honor Guard he drove to Headquarters of Major General John U. Calkins where he met the various members of the staff. Accompanied by General Calkins, the General then inspected the camp, primarily the firing ranges and training activities. He then had lunch with Generals O'Sullivan and Calkins at the Consolidated Officers Mess and immediately after lunch, accompanied by General O'Sullivan, went on a tour of inspection of the permanent installations of the camp. At 1330 hours he departed from Camp San Luis Obispo, drove to the airport, and flew to Camp Cooke, California. General O'Sullivan accompanied him. At Camp Cooke, he was met by Brigadier General David P. Harvey (CG 112th AA Brigade) and went on a tour of inspection of the firing batteries, along the coast. Due to a heavy fog, the National Guard unit was unable to present the scheduled firing with the 90 millimeters and General Clark was only able to see the firing of 40 millimeter cannon. At 1430 hours the General departed Camp Cooke and flew to Hamilton Field. He returned home at 1700 hours and dined at home with his family that evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 28 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 0930 hours presented golf trophies for the Army tournament held at the Presidio Golf Club. At 1000 hours, Mr. Allen Davidson, R. F. McDonald and Mr. Walter Heyden of the AAFMES Shrine Temple of Oakland called on the General for the purpose of having publicity pictures taken in connection with General Clark's coming indoctrination as a noble of the Mystic Shrine. At 1015 hours the General held a conference with General Watson, Commanding General of the Southern Military District. At 1130 hours he went to the Post Theater where he saw news reels of the Pershing funeral. He had lunch at his quarters and at 1400 hours had an appointment with Colonel Gorby, medical officer at Letterman General Hospital. He returned to his office at 1515 hours and later in the afternoon played golf. At 1830 hours, General and Mrs. Clark, accompanied by Captain Dallam and Ann, went to the Fairmont Hotel where they met Mr. Nathan Cummings and then went to dinner at the El Prado and afterwards went to the Curran Theater to see Bobby Clark in Sweethearts.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 29 JULY 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0900 hours saw Colonel Gray, JA. At 0930 he saw Colonel D'Orsa and at 1000 hours Colonel Jones from the Inspector General Department in Washington, who was accompanied by Colonel Falk, 6th Army IG. At 1030 he saw Colonel Edmunds regarding Army Advisory activities. He had lunch at his quarters and departed at 1500 hours for Bohemian Grove, accompanied by Mr. Lowell Thomas. They arrived at the Grove approximately 1630 hours.

* * * *

BOHEMIAN GROVE -- 30 JULY 1948 - General Clark spent this day at the Grove.

* * * *

BOHEMIAN GROVE - 31 JULY 1948 - General Clark spent this day at the Grove.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 1 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark departed from Bohemian Grove at 1000 hours and returned to the Presidio at 1130. He had lunch at his quarters and spent the afternoon at home. That evening General and Mrs. Clark had dinner with Colonel Alvin Owsley.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 2 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark had breakfast with Colonel Alvin Owsley, who then accompanied him to the office at 0915. At 1000 hours he saw Lt. Charles Cecil, Assistant Club Officer, who is departing for overseas duty. At 1100 hours he saw Colonel Sullivan, QM, at 1115 hours saw Colonel Oxx and at 1130 hours Colonel Lloyd. He left his office at 1145 hours and spent the rest of the day fishing with Lt. Col. Howard Moore. Returning from fishing at 1930 hours, he had dinner at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and spent the morning attending to routine administrative matters. At 1215 hours the General, accompanied by Colonel Martin, G-1, Colonel McCreary, Army Recruiting Officer, Colonel J. B. Edmunds, Army Information Officer, Colonel Stanley J. Grogan, Deputy Chief of Staff, and Captain Dallam, had lunch at the Family with Mr. Coblentz, managing editor of the San Francisco Call Bulletin and Mr. Randolph Hearst. The General returned to the office at 1430 hours and remained until 1630. He dined at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and at 0930 hours had a conference with G-2 and G-3 regarding submarine protection. At 1030 hours Captain Roland, U. S. Navy, had a conference with the General and Colonel Oxx, the Army Engineer. At 1200 hours, General Clark had lunch at the Family With Al Schwabacher, junior and senior, and in the afternoon he played golf with Colonel Woodward, Army G-4. At 1830 hours General and Mrs. Clark entertained Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Taylor (radio commentator and journalist) at dinner and after dinner they had a group for a movie at the hut.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0900 hours Major General Albert E. Brown, Commanding General of the Northern Military District, called on the General. At 1000 Dr. Smyth of the Army Historical Division in Washington had a conference with the General and at 1100 hours Mr. Fred Reinhardt and Mr. Eldredge Durbrow, both State Department personnel, and formerly states at the American Embassy in Moscow, called on the General. General Clark had lunch at home and in the afternoon played golf with Colonel Lloyd. He dined at home that evening with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and at 0945 hours met the new field grade officers who had been assigned to Headquarters during the preceding month. At 1000 hours, Mr. Robert Gross, publicity director of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, called for an interview and at 1030 hours General Clark had a conference with Admiral Beary and General Upston. At 1130 hours, Lt. Colonel Gray, JA, presented several court martial cases for the General's consideration. The General had lunch at home and returned to the office at 1430 hours when Brig. Gen. Talbot, USA retired, and his son, Lt. Colonel Talbot, called to pay their respects. At 1515 hours, General Cates, commandant Marine Corps, called for a formal visit. The General left his office at 1600 hours and dined at home that evening with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 AUGUST 1948 - The General played golf during the day and at 1930 hours was guest of the Marine Memorial Club of San Francisco at a banquet celebrating the anniversary of the First Marine Division landing on Guadalcanal. General Clifton B. Cates, commandant of the Marine Corps, was the speaker, and Mr. Paul Smith of the San Francisco Chronicle was the toastmaster.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark remained at his quarters during the day and at 1800 hours went for cocktails at the quarters of General and Mrs. Robertson after which they were the Robertsons' guests at the Officers Club for dinner and bingo.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 0930 had a meeting of the District Commanders, at which Generals Watson, Butler and Brown were present with members of their staffs. At 1100 hours, Captain Lee Ecklon, Presidio Officers Club officer, called to pay his respects and say goodbye to the General prior to his departure for Camp Lee and Quartermaster School. The General played golf in the afternoon and in the evening had dinner at home with his family. Later in the evening they entertained guests at a movie at the house.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark and Mrs. Clark, Ann and Captain Dallam, departed at 0730 hours enroute to Camano Island. The trip through the Sacramento Valley was uneventful, with a picnic lunch at Shasta Dam. The party arrived at Klamath Falls at 1630 hours and they spent the night there.

* * * *

ENROUTE TO NW - 11 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark and party had an early breakfast and continued on to Salem, Oregon, arriving approximately 1500 hours. The General immediately called on Major General Thomas Rilea, the State Adjutant General, and together they went to call on Governor Hall of Oregon. General Clark and his group then went to the motel where they were staying and at 1830 hours General Rilea called to pick them up to take them to the home of Brigadier General and Mrs. Mason for cocktails, and then to the hotel where they were guests of General and Mrs. Rilea for dinner. Also in attendance was Governor Hall.

* * * *

ENROUTE TO NW - 12 AUGUST - General Clark and party left Salem at 0730 hours with a police escort provided by General Mason. They passed through Portland, Oregon and arrived at Fort Lewis at 1330 hours. General Clark went to the Fort Lewis Inn, changed into uniform, and was met by Major General Harry Collins, and went on to the Headquarters at Fort Lewis to review the Honor Guard. After inspection of the Honor Guard, General Clark went to Headquarters of Second Infantry Division where he conferred with General Collins for a short time, and then returned to Fort Lewis Inn for a rest. At 1730 hours General and Mrs. Collins held a large reception for General and Mrs. Clark at the Officers Club to which all of the officers and their ladies of Fort Lewis and the surrounding area were invited. The reception concluded at 1930 hours and General and Mrs. Collins gave a formal dinner party for the Clarks at the Officers Club.

* * * *

FORT LEWIS AND ENROUTE TO CAMANO ISLAND - 13 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark/to went to the office of General Collins at 0900 hours and immediately started on an inspection of facilities and training activities at the Fort. He was conducted on the inspection by General Collins and Lt. Colonel Preston, G-3 of the Division. The General attended a luncheon given by General Collins at the Officers Club at noon and there was forced to cancel the review to be held in the afternoon due to inclement weather. General and Mrs. Clark, Ann and Captain Dallam departed Fort Lewis at 1330 hours and arrived Seattle at 1600 hours. They went to the home of Tom and Maude Griffiths and with the Griffiths departed approximately 1700 hours for Camano Island. They arrived at the Island at 1830 hours, had dinner and retired early in the evening.

* * * *

CAMANO ISLAND, WASHINGTON - 14 - 20 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark spent this time on the Island fishing and resting.

* * * *

CAMANO ISLAND - 21 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark spent the day fishing and in the evening attended a large barbecue at Hope Island as guest of Captain and Mrs. Paul Wagner.

* * * *

CAMANO ISLAND - 22 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark remained at home resting.

* * * *

CAMANO ISLAND-SEATTLE - 23 AUGUST 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths went into Seattle to make some calls. Mrs. Clark ordered a fur coat from the Alaska Fur Company, and the party returned to the Island in time for dinner.

* * * *

VICTORIA, B.C. - 24 AUGUST 1948 - At 1100 hours, General and Mrs. Clark, Ann and Captain Dallam, and Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths were picked up in the crash boat by General and Mrs. Ogden, Commanding General of Second Engineers Special Brigade at Fort Worden, Washington, and proceeded to Victoria, BC. They arrived at 1400 hours where the General inspected the Honor Guard of the Canadian Scottish Regiment, and then proceeded with Mrs. Clark and Ann to Government House where they were the guests of Lt. Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Banks. Mrs. Clark and Ann went shopping in the afternoon and the General rested at Government House and at 1700 hours went to a cocktail party at the home of Admiral Percy Nelles, president of the United Services Institution at Vancouver Island, who had invited General Clark to come to Victoria. Following the cocktail party, General and Captain Dallam went to a stag cocktail party and dinner at the Union Club as guests of Admiral Nelles. Mrs. Clark and Ann returned to Government House where they were the guests of Mrs. Banks. Following the dinner, General Clark proceeded to the Armory in Victoria where he addressed off the record the members of the United Services Institution - some five, six hundred - who had gathered to hear the General. Following the speech, General Clark inspected the various messes in the Armory and then returned to Government House at 2300 hours.

* * * *

VICTORIA-TACOMA, WASHINGTON - 25 AUGUST 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark, Ann and Captain Dallam, Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, boarded the crash boat at 0900 hours and returned through a heavy fog to Camano Island, arriving at 1145 hours. They then departed at once for Tacoma, Washington, arriving at 1600 hours. The General and Mrs. Clark, and Ann, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Murray, Graveley Lake, Tacoma. That evening, accompanied by the Murrays, they went to the quarters of Colonel and Mrs. Edwin B. Howard at Fort Lewis for the Howards' tenth anniversary party, returning approximately 2200 hours.

* * * *

TACOMA-FORT LEWIS, WASHINGTON - 26 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark went to Headquarters of the 2nd Infantry Division at Fort Lewis at 0900 hours after reviewing the Honor Guard of eighteen-year-olds who had completed from one to four weeks' training. He was very much pleased at their appearance. He had a conference at 1030 hours with Colonel Donaldson of Seattle Port of Embarkation with regard to the unification of facilities in the Seattle area. At noon, General Collins gave a luncheon party of his senior staff officers for General Clark and immediately following the luncheon a review was held in General Clark's honor on the main parade ground of Fort Lewis with all troops of the Division and Post participating. At 1730 hours, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Murray gave a cocktail party for General and Mrs. Clark at their home and at 1900 hours General and Mrs. Clark and the Murrays went to the home of Cyrtion Wagner for dinner. At 2130 hours, General and Mrs. Collins came by the Wagners', accompanied by Colonel Grogan and General and Mrs. Clark accompanied them to the Hotel Winthrop where they attended the Grand Convention Ball of the American Legion.

They were entertained in the distinguished guests suite as the guests of Colonel Jim Stack, former aide to General Eisenhower, and other members of the Distinguished Guests Committee. They returned home about midnight.

* * * *

TACOMA, WASHINGTON - 27 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark went from the Murrays' directly to the Fellowship Hall in Tacoma where he was met by Colonel Stack and taken to the platform where he delivered a forty-five minute address to the assembled American Legion convention. After the convention adjourned, he went to the Tacoma Club where a luncheon was given by the Distinguished Guests Committee for General Clark, Senator Cain, Congressmen Mack and Jones, and others who were included on the list of distinguished guests. Following the luncheon, the General, accompanied by Colonel Stack, rode in the parade and reviewed the parade at the Reviewing Stand. It rained very heavily throughout the parade. Immediately following the parade, the General was provided with a motorcycle escort to return to Fort Lewis and upon arrival there, immediately left for Salem, Oregon, accompanied by Mrs. Clark, Ann and Captain Dallam. They had dinner in Portland and arrived Salem approximately 2200 hours and again stayed the night at the Rose Garden Motel.

* * * *

ENROUTE TO PRESIDIO - 28 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark and party departed Salem at 0830 hours and stopped in Eugene, Oregon at the recruiting station, and then proceeded on to Grant's Pass where they had lunch. The General originally planned to go to Ben Bow for the evening, but as the roads were reported in bad condition he changed his route and proceeded to Medford, Oregon where he stopped at the recruiting station there. The party then proceeded on to Shasta Springs, arriving about 1800 hours, but unfortunately no accommodations were available and the party proceeded to Redding, California where they had dinner and obtained accommodations for the evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 29 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark and party departed Redding at 0700 hours and arrived at the Presidio at 1200 hours. The family had dinner at home and a movie at the house in the evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 30 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours and at 1030 hours Lt. General Walton Walker called to pay his respects. General and Mrs. Walker are enroute to Tokyo where General Walker will assume command of the 8th Army. At 1100 hours Major General Lester, new Commanding General of Fort Mason, SFPOE, called to pay his respects, and at 1130 hours Brigadier General Cole, new Commanding General of Letterman General Hospital, called. The General had lunch at home and returned to his office at 1330 hours. At 1400 hours, President George Albert Smith of the Mormon Church, called to pay his respects. At 1415 hours, Lt. General John R. Hodges, former Commanding General at Korea, called on the General. At 1445 hours General Clark had a conference with Major General Moore and Colonel Oxx of the Armed Forces Headquarters, and at 1515 Colonel Heine and Colonel Pape, the new and old Army G-2's, called on General Clark. The General dined at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 31 AUGUST 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 had a conference with Colonel Sullivan, Quartermaster. At 1100 hours, he presented awards and decorations at a ceremony outside his office, and announced the promotion of Colonel Sullivan to rank of Brigadier General. He had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon with Colonel Lloyd.

SAN FRANCISCO - 1 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and at 1000 hours Lt. Colonel (Chaplain) Brown, new Assistant Army Chaplain, called on the General. At 1015 hours the General saw Captain Kelleher, USN, Naval representative at the Armed Forces Headquarters. At 1030 hours M. Jean de laGarde, the new French Consul General in San Francisco, called to pay his respects. At 1100 hours Alard Calkins, Army Advisory Representative, accompanied by Mr. Fiske, called for a conference with the General. The General had lunch at Bohemian Club and in the afternoon played golf with Colonel Lloyd. At 1830 hours, General and Mrs. Clark had guests at the house for dinner and a movie afterwards, in honor of Lt. General and Mrs. Walton Walker. The Luncheon at the Bohemian Club at noon was given in honor of Lt. General Eichelberger.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 2 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0930 hours Mr. Rupley of the Bureau of the Budget called for a short conference. At 1000 hours, Lt. General Robert L. Eichelberger, retiring Commanding General of 8th Army in Japan, called to pay his respects. At 1130 hours the General met the newly assigned field grade officers to the Sixth Army Headquarters. He had lunch at home with his family and in the afternoon played golf with Colonel Woodward. In the evening he participated as Grand Marshal of the American Legion parade in San Francisco. He rode up Market Street in the parade accompanied by Mr. Harry Foster, the department commander of the California State American Legion. The General was accompanied by Mrs. Clark and Ann at the reviewing stand, and they returned home at 1130 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1030 hours saw Colonel Pichel. At 1045 hours he saw M/Sgt. Karl Botnen, who had served with the General for many years. At 1215 hours the General was guest of honor with Governor Warren at the American Legion luncheon at the Hotel Whitcomb. At 1500 hours he went to the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco where he addressed the American Legion in convention. The General returned to the Presidio at 1700 hours and played golf the remainder of the afternoon. He dined at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning and at 1100 hours left San Francisco for a luncheon party in Burlingame as guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron, publisher of the San Francisco Chronicle. Also as guests were Lt. General and Mrs. Eichelberger. General Clark returned from Burlingame in the late afternoon and dined at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark went fishing at 0630 hours and spent the entire day outside the Golden Gate. He dined at home that evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 SEPTEMBER 1948 - The fishing trip planned with Mrs. Clark and Ann and General and Mrs. Sullivan was postponed due to inclement weather and instead General and Mrs. Clark had a picnic lunch at home and spent the day at their quarters.

That evening General and Mrs. Clark, General and Mrs. Sullivan, Ann and Captain Dallam went to the opening performance of Judith Anderson's play MEDEA. After the theater they went backstage to meet Miss Anderson and then went to the St. Francis Hotel as guests of Mr. Guthrie McClintock, producer of the play, to a supper party in honor of Miss Anderson. They returned to their quarters at 0130 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 0930 hours had an appointment with General Thomas Hanley, the director of Procurement of the Department of the Army in Washington. At 1000 hours he saw Colonel Mary Hallaren, WAC Director of the Army, and at 1100 hours saw General George F. Moore and Colonel Frank Oxx. He had lunch at home and in the afternoon played golf. General and Mrs. Clark attended a reception at the Presidio Officers Club given for Colonel Hallaren at 1700, and at 1730 hours went to the reception held at the Officers Club of Letterman General Hospital for the Surgeon General of the Army, General Bliss, and his party. General Clark had dinner at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and at 1000 hours had an appointment with Lt. Colonel Gray, JA. At 1100 hours Admiral Sir William Tennant, Commander in Chief of the British West Indies Fleet, made a formal call on the General, accompanied by Captain G.H.B. Fawkes, Captain of HMS SHEFFIELD, Mr. Meiklereid, British Consul General in San Francisco, and Captain P.W.W. Wooten, British Naval Attache in Washington. At 1215 hours, General Clark returned the call aboard the SHEFFIELD. During the afternoon he played golf with Colonel Lloyd and at 1730 hours attended a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. Meiklereid in honor of Admiral Tennant.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0930 hours saw Colonel Fay Ross, new Army Special Services Officer. At 1000 hours he had a conference with Admiral Donald B. Beary. He then had lunch at home and went fishing in the afternoon. That evening the General went to the Bohemian Club as guest of Admiral and Mrs. Beary, who gave a formal dinner party for Admiral Tennant.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at 0900 hours at his office and at 1000 hours had a conference with Colonel Edmunds, Army Information Officer. The General had lunch at home and returned to his office at 1400 hours. At 1500 hours Brigadier General Huglin, new Commanding General at Fairfield-Suisun Airbase, called on the General. At 1630 hours the General left his office for the Main Parade Ground for a review held in honor of Admiral Sir William Tennant and Captain G.H.B. Fawkes. Immediately following the review, the General went to the Presidio Officers Club for a reception in honor of Admiral Tennant and Captain Fawkes. Following this, General and Mrs. Clark went to the home of Consul General and Mrs. Meiklereid (British) for dinner in honor of Admiral Tennant and Captain Fawkes.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark played golf all day and at 1900 hours went to Colonel and Mrs. John L. Hill's quarters for cocktails and then to Presidio Officers Club for the monthly formal dinner dance.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 12 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark, General and Mrs. Sullivan spent the day in the Bay fishing. They had quite a successful day and returned with a great many cod and striped bass. At 2000 hours General and Mrs. Clark were guests of Admiral Tennant at dinner aboard HMS SHEFFIELD.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 13 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the Presidio Golf Club at 0900 hours where he met Admiral Tennant and members of his staff. A golf match had been arranged for these officers, matching them with officers of Army Headquarters. At 1330 hours all returned to the Presidio Officers Club where General Clark gave an informal luncheon. At 1830 hours, General and Mrs. Clark and Ann went to the SHEFFIELD for cocktails and after the reception went to the home of Colonel Oxx for his birthday party.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 14 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 hours saw General Blesse, MC, Surgeon of the Army Field Forces, and at 1045 hours had a conference with General Butler, CG of the Central Military District. At 1230 hours the General was guest of Mr. W. W. Crocker at a luncheon in honor of Mr. Bernard Baruch. Present were: E. D. Coblentz (Call-Bulletin), Garret McEnerney, John Parks Davis, J. F. Sullivan (V.P. of Crocker National Bank). The General returned to his office at 1430 hours and then accompanied Mrs. Clark to the hospital where she was to have a tonsilectomy the next morning.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 15 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and at 1100 hours had a conference with General Sullivan and Mr. A. M. Mardikian. He had lunch at home and returned to the office at 1330 hours. At 1400 hours Mr. W. John Kenney, Undersecretary of the Navy, called on the General, accompanied by Admiral Donald B. Beary, Commandant of Western Sea Frontier. General Clark returned to his quarters at 1530 hours and at 1630 hours departed for Oakland where he attended a dinner at the Leamington Hotel prior to his initiation as a Noble of the Mystic Shrine at the Aahmes Temple of Oakland. Following the dinner at the Leamington, the General went to the Scottish Rite Temple for the induction ceremonies and after the ceremonies returned to the Leamington Hotel penthouse where a small party was given in his honor.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 16 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 hours had a conference with Major General James C. Lester, CG SFPOE, regarding the water-front strike situation. At 1200 hours the General was speaker of the day at the Shrine Luncheon held at the Hotel Palace. He returned from the luncheon at 1400 hours and played golf with Colonel Lloyd in the afternoon. At 1930 hours, accompanied by Major General Moore and Brig. General Sullivan, he went to the Bohemian Club for dinner in his honor.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 17 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and at 1000 hours made his radio broadcast transcription at his desk. At 1015 hours General Clark had a conference with General Moore and Colonel Oxx and following that had a conference with General Robertson regarding the water-front strike. He had lunch at home, returning to his office in the afternoon to get the final papers prior to his departure for Washington, D.C. That evening, Mrs. Clark had still not recovered completely from her operation and they cancelled plans to go to the dinner at General and Mrs. Heaton's, and instead had dinner at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 18 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark, accompanied by Colonel Falk, Army IG, and Colonel C. C. Herrick of the Veterans Hospital in Oakland, and Captain Dallam, departed at 0515 hours for Hamilton Field and took off in the General's plane at 0600 hours enroute to Washington, DC. They stopped at Cheyenne, Wyoming to refuel, and the General drove around Cheyenne for about a half hour looking over his old stamping ground. At 1800 hours the party arrived in Chicago and the General stayed overnight with Nathan Cummings at the Hotel Drake.

* * * *

CHICAGO-WASHINGTON, DC - 19 SEPTEMBER 1948 - At 1000 hours General Clark and party took off for Washington and arrived at the National Air Port, Washington, at 1430 hours. The General went directly to his mother's apartment where he was to remain for the entire stay. In the evening he dined with Secretary of Defense and Mrs. Forrestal and with the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force and their Chiefs of Staff.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC - 20 SEPTEMBER 1948 - At 0830 hours General Clark went to the Pentagon Building to see Lt. General LeRoy Lutes, head of the National Military Establishment Munitions Board. During the morning he also had conferences with Mr. Symington, Mr. Royall and General Bradley, and went home for lunch with his mother. He returned to the Pentagon Building at 1315 hours and went directly to Mr. Forrestal's office where he remained for another conference. In the afternoon he had a series of conferences with Major General Alfred M. Gruenther, Director of Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Major General F. A. Irving, Deputy Director of Personnel and Administration, General A. C. Wedemeyer, Director of Plans and Operations. During the day, Lt. Bill Clark arrived from West Point and the General had dinner at home with his mother and son. At 2100 hours he returned to the Pentagon Building for further conferences with the Secretary of Defense and the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force and their Chiefs of Staff. He returned home at 2300 hours.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC-OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA.- 21 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark went to the Pentagon Building at 0845 hours and immediately had a conference with Mr. Symington, Secretary of the Air Force, followed by a briefing conference in General Wedemeyer's office of the latest war plans. At 1100 hours the General returned to the National Airport and took off enroute to San Francisco. They stopped at Memphis, Tennessee to refuel and then went on to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma where they stayed overnight at Tinker Field. Major General F. S. Borum, Commanding General of the Oklahoma City Air Materiel ^{Area}, arranged a small dinner party for General Clark and his party and then took the General on a tour of inspection of the Tinker Field Aircraft plants.

* * * *

OKLAHOMA CITY-HAMILTON FIELD, CALIF - 22 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark and party departed Tinker Field at 0800 hours and stopped at Kirtland Field, Albuquerque, New Mexico, to pick up lunch, and then immediately departed for Hamilton Field. They arrived Hamilton Field at 1700 hours and arrived at the Presidio about 1745 hours. The General had dinner at his quarters.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 23 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 1000 hours had a conference with Major General Moore and Colonel Oxx to bring them up to date on the results of his conference in Washington. He had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon with Colonel Lloyd. He had a small party at his home in honor of Colonel Grogan's birthday. Later he had dinner at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 24 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark went to inspect the Information Center at 0830 hours and arrived at his office at 0900 hours. He spent the morning in various conferences. He had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon. He had dinner at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 25 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning and had lunch at home, remaining there in the afternoon. General and Mrs. Clark were guests at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. James Taggart that evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 26 SEPTEMBER 1948 - At 0530 hours General Clark went fishing in the Bay with Colonel Louis Martin and Lt. Colonel Gray, and returned home at 1630 hours. Colonel and Mrs. Martin had dinner with the Clarks and in the evening a small group was invited in to see a movie.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 27 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0915 hours and at 0930 hours had a conference with Lt. Colonel Gray, the Army JA. At 1000 hours he conferred with General Moore and Colonel Oxx and at 1030 hours had a conference with Colonel Edmunds and Mr. Casgrain of the Department of the Army Community Relations Section. He had lunch at home and returned to the office in the afternoon. At 1600 hours the General played a round of golf. At 1800 hours General and Mrs. Sullivan were guests of General and Mrs. Clark for a farewell dinner prior to their departure. Following dinner they played gin rummy.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 28 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours and at 1000 hours saw Mr. Coblenz, editor of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin, for a conference. At 1100 hours General and Mrs. Clark departed for Hamilton Field where they took off for Idaho Falls, Idaho. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harriman at Ashton, Idaho. The plane arrived at 1630 hours and the party motored from Idaho Falls to Ashton.

* * * *

ASHTON, IDAHO - 29 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark fished at the Harriman Ranch (Railroad Ranch) and spent the day out of doors.

* * * *

ASHTON, IDAHO-SAN FRANCISCO - 30 SEPTEMBER 1948 - General Clark was not feeling well and they departed from Railroad Ranch for Idaho Falls and flew to Ogden, Utah where they picked up the General's plane and returned to San Francisco about 1530 hours. The General immediately went to Letterman Hospital. The doctors diagnosed that the General had a case of shingles and would be forced to remain indoors resting for a week or two.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 1 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark remained at home. He saw various staff officers at the house.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 2 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark remained at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark remained at home.

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark remained at home and saw his Chief of Staff and various other members of his staff.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark remained at home all day. This was Mrs. Clark's birthday and after dinner they had a few friendsⁱⁿ for a movie.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark remained at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0900 hours and at 0930 hours saw General Moore regarding the cold storage project. At 1000 hours he saw General Marquat of General MacArthur's headquarters. At 1030 hours he saw Major General Harry Collins, CG of 2nd Infantry Division, Ft. Lewis. At 1100 hours he had a short conference with Lt. Col. Gray, the JA. At 1115 hours Colonel Paul G. Rutten, a friend of the General's, came in to pay his respects. At 1125 hours he saw Colonel Wm. Shambora, the Surgeon General of the Hawaiian Department, who came in to pay his respects. He had lunch at home and rested during the afternoon. That evening there was a small gathering at the house for buffet supper in honor of General Collins and General Ralph Tate, Retd.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0915 hours and at 0930 hours had a conference with General Moore. He had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon with Colonel Lloyd. The family dined at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark went fishing with Colonel Gorby. He returned home about 1400 hours, rested, and spent the evening at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning, had lunch at home, and fished for a short time in the afternoon. In the evening General and Mrs. Clark entertained the Lt. Governor of British Columbia and Mrs. Charles Banks at a formal dinner party at the Presidio Officers Club. Included as guests were Consul General and Mrs. Meiklereid, (British), Consul General and Mrs. Harry A. Scott (Canadian), Major General and Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Richard McCreery, Mr. and Mrs. James Taggart, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Wm. S. Lawson, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Frederick B. Butler, Brig. General George F. Moore. Following dinner they showed a movie at the hut. The party lasted until 0100 hours the next day.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours. At 1000 hours he had a conference with Colonel Oxx regarding Armed Forces unification program and at 1100 hours Colonel Otho Humphries, the new Army QM, called to pay his respects. General Clark had lunch at home and in the afternoon played golf. The family dined at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 12 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. At 1000 hours he saw Mr. Ben Anderson, a friend of Judge Michael Musmanno. At 1100 hours the General interviewed recently arrived field grade officers. He had lunch at home and in the afternoon played golf with Colonels Woodward and Lloyd.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 13 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours. At 0930 hours he saw Brig. Gen. Prickett of the IG Section out of Washington. He was the head of a group conducting the annual general inspection of the Sixth Army Headquarters. At 1100 hours he saw Major General Luther Miller, Chief of Chaplains, accompanied by Colonel Pat Ryan, Army Chaplain, and Lt. Col. Brown, deputy Army Chaplain. He had lunch at home and returned to the office later. He played golf about 1630 hours and dined at home in the evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 14 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 1030 hours was called upon by the Consul General of India, S. K. Kirpalani. He had lunch at home and returned to the office at 1430 hours. At 1600 hours Master George Pedroni, a young man from Mill Valley, California who is an ardent stamp collector and corresponds with the General, came to call on him. At 1630 the General went to the Hotel Fairmont to a cocktail party given by the Mediterranean Doctors Association, and at 1800 hours General and Mrs. Clark went to Chaplain and Mrs. Brown's quarters for an informal dinner in honor of Chaplain Ryan and his mother.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 15 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0930 hours. He spent the morning attending to routine office matters and at noon had lunch at the Bohemian Club as guest of the Mediterranean Doctors Association where he made a short talk. After lunch he returned to the office and shortly after returned to quarters. At 1730 hours General Prickett and his deputy came to the General's quarters for cocktails. General and Mrs. Clark had dinner at home and went to the Post Theater for a movie.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 16 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning with General Robertson and Colonel Lloyd. He had lunch at home and spent the afternoon resting. In the evening General and Mrs. Clark had guests in for dessert and a movie.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 17 OCTOBER 1948 - A group of 37 doctors and their wives from the Mediterranean Doctors Association went to the General's quarters at 1130 hours for cocktails and a visit. At 1330 hours the General departed for the Portola Festival and Parade. He rode in the parade and as honorary Grand Marshal reviewed the parade from the reviewing stand in front of the City Hall. He had dinner at home and then with a group of friends went to the Portola Pageant at the Cow Palace in Daly City.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 18 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and at 0930 hours saw Mr. Garret McEnerney, Jr., attorney, who called on the General for a conference. He remained until 1045 hours. At 1130 hours the General went to the Post Theater for a private showing of the SECRET LANDING, a new technicolored documentary by Admiral Byrd of the latest Antarctic expedition. He had lunch at home, returned to the office at 1400 hours and later in the afternoon played golf. He had dinner at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 19 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours. He saw various staff officers during the morning; had lunch at home and returned to his office at 1345 hours. At 1430 hours he went to the Post Court Martial building to open the Food Service Consultants conference and made a few remarks to them. Following this he went out to play golf with Colonel Lloyd. At 1800 hours the General went to the Officers Club for cocktails and dinner in honor of the Food Service consultants.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 20 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and saw various staff officers during the morning. He had lunch at home and returned to his office at 1430 hours. At 1445 hours Admiral (Vice) George D. Murray, the new Commandant of the Western Sea Frontier, called to pay his respects. At 1515 hours Major General William Chase, Commanding General, First Cavalry Division in Japan, came in to say hello to the General. The General left his office for his quarters at 1600 hours and at 1900 hours went to the Pacific Union Club for dinner given by Mr. James B. Black, president of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, in honor of the directors of the United States Steel Corporation.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 21 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 hours held a conference with Major General Curtis O'Sullivan, State of California Adjutant General, who was accompanied by Colonel Boyd, the Senior State National Guard Instructor. The General had lunch at home and in the afternoon played golf with Colonel Woodward and General Robertson. He had dinner at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 22 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours. At 0900 hours he received the final call from the Food Service consultants. At 1000 hours he saw Mr. Cyrus Washburn, Chairman of the National Defense Committee, and member of the Commonwealth Club, and at 1030 hours saw General Frederic Butler, CG of the Central Military District. General Clark had lunch at home and in the afternoon played golf. At 1800 hours he went to a cocktail party at the quarters of Lt. and Mrs. William Fleming and following that had dinner at the St. Francis Hotel as guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron and went with them to the Opera House for the Friars Frolic, the final stage show of the Portola Pageant in San Francisco.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO-WELLS, NEVADA - 23 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark, accompanied by Lt. Colonel Howard Moore, departed the Presidio at 0715 hours for Hamilton Field and took off for Wells, Nevada for a hunting trip. They arrived at 0930 hours and were met by Colonel Lynn Ostler and proceeded to the Richards Ranch at Ruby Lake in Nevada, and went hunting during the afternoon.

* * * *

WELLS, NEVADA-SAN FRANCISCO - 24 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark started hunting at 0430 hours and was in the saddle most of the day. He returned to the ranch in the later afternoon. Accompanied by Colonel Moore, he returned to the airport and took off for Hamilton Field at 1830 hours, arriving Hamilton Field at 2120 hours and the Presidio at 2200 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 25 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and through the morning saw various staff officers. He had lunch at his quarters and in the afternoon played golf with Colonel Lloyd. The General had dinner at home with his family and in the evening had a group of friends in for a movie at the hut.

* * * *

MOFFETT FIELD -

SAN FRANCISCO/- 26 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 1100 hours departed for Moffett Field where he was guest of honor of the Palo Alto service clubs for their Navy Day luncheon. He made a short talk after lunch, and then toured the Moffett Field installations, including a visit to the supersonic wind tunnel and regular large wind tunnel, which are both operated by the National Air Advisory Committee. Following that he motored to Stanford University where he inspected the ROTC installations and had a conference with Colonel Basil Perry, professor of MS&T. The General called on the acting president of Stanford and went on a brief tour of the campus. The tour was followed by a review given by the cadet ROTCs of Stanford University. He returned to San Francisco at 1700 hours and had dinner at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 27 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and throughout the morning conferred with various staff officers. He had lunch at the Pacific Union Club as guest of Mr. Herman Phleger, the luncheon being given in honor of Captain Selby McCreery, brother of General Sir Richard McCreery. The General returned to his office in the afternoon and at 1800 hours went to the St. Francis Hotel for cocktails and dinner, as guest of Glen Codman honoring Mr. Ezra Clark.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 28 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours and at 0900 had a conference with Colonel Oxx. At 1000 he attended a meeting of the Airfield Panel of Armed Forces Headquarters, and at noon went to the Palace Hotel for the Shrine Navy Day luncheon. He returned to his office in the afternoon and in the evening at 1800 hours, with Mrs. Clark and Ann, went down to the 3rd and Townsend depot to meet Dr. and Mrs. Charles McCormick of Indianapolis who were to be their house guests. Immediately following this meeting the group went to the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brunch for cocktails and then to the Palace Hotel for dinner as guests of Mr. Ezra Clark.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 29 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark took Dr. McCormick fishing in the morning and returned to quarters at noon due to rough weather. They then played golf in the afternoon and at 1800 hours General and Mrs. Clark and Dr. and Mrs. McCormick went to the quarters of Colonel and Mrs. Louis Martin for cocktails and a hamburger supper and then returned to the hut where a movie was shown for a group of friends.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 30 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning and spent the afternoon at home. In the evening, General and Mrs. Clark and Dr. and Mrs. McCormick were guests of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. C. Coburn Smith. They had cocktails at the Smiths' quarters followed by a Hallowe'en party at the Officers Club. Mrs. Clark won the grand prize for the best costume; she was dressed as a Fiji Islander.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 31 OCTOBER 1948 - General Clark and Dr. McCormick played golf during the day and spent the evening at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 1 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 hours saw Admiral Ketchum, Commander, Fleet Air Arm, Alameda Naval Air Station. At 1030 hours the General had a conference with Colonel H. J. Matchett and at 1100 hours presented the Medal of Merit to Dr. Luis W. Alvarez, physicist at the University of California. At 1130 hours he met the newly assigned field grade officers to the Headquarters. He had lunch at home and at 1400 hours, Mr. Roy Hudson, chief gardener of Golden Gate Park, came to the quarters to advise the General on latest planting procedures and arrange for new garden soil. The General returned to his office at 1500 hours and remained until 1630 hours. At 1730 hours the General and Mrs. Clark said goodbye to Ann, who was leaving for the East, and then went to a cocktail party given by Colonel and Mrs. McMahon in honor of Mrs. McCormick. They had dinner at home and then had a movie for a group of friends. General Clark played poker with the gentlemen and Mrs. Clark entertained the ladies.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 2 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0830 hours and at 0900 hours saw Colonel Thomas and Mr. Naramore from the Department of the Army. At 1000 hours he saw Messrs. Ferris, Doten and Russell of a local advertising firm handling recruiting advertising in this area. They were accompanied by Colonel Dean of the Recruiting Section of Sixth Army. At 1100 hours Mr. Herbert Fleischhacker, Sr. and George Cameron called on the General regarding the German Art Exhibition. General Clark lunched at home and played golf in the afternoon. In the evening, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. McCormick, General and Mrs. Clark went to the home of Paul Verdier for dinner and the evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 0930 hours saw Lt. Colonel Charles H. Andrus, Eighth Army Liaison Officers at the SFPOE. At 1000 hours he saw Mayor Robinson of San Francisco and at 1100 hours conferred with Mr. Archie M. Mardikian. He lunched at home and in the afternoon played golf with Colonel Lloyd. General and Mrs. Clark and Dr. and Mrs. McCormick had cocktails at the Mark Hopkins and Fairmont Hotels and dinner at Tarantinos.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0845 hours and at 0930 hours met Dr. Eugene M. Zuckert, Assistant Secretary of the Air Force, on the front steps of the Headquarters Building and, in company with Dr. Zuckert, inspected the Guard of Honor. The General had a conference with Dr. Zuckert and his two assistants, Mr. William Sweeney and Colonel Ernest Keating, during the morning and at 1215 hours gave a luncheon for Dr. Zuckert at the Officers Club. In the afternoon the General returned to his office having arranged a golf match for Dr. Zuckert and Mr. Sweeney with Colonel Woodward and Lt. Colonel Moore. At 1700 hours a reception was held at the Officers Club in honor of Vice Admiral George D. Murray, new Commandant of the Western Sea Frontier and in the evening General and Mrs. Clark and Dr. and Mrs. McCormick were dinner guests of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Howard Moore.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0900 hours and saw various staff officers during the morning. He had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon with Mr. Eugene M. Zuckert, Under Secretary of the Air Force, and Colonel Lloyd. At 1830 hours Chaplain and Mrs. Brown and Chaplain Ryan with his mother came to the house for dinner. Following dinner, an additional group of friends was invited to a movie at the hut.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0845 and at 0900 had a conference with Mr. Zuckert. He left his office to play golf at 1030 hours, and had lunch at home at 1400 hours and spent the afternoon there. General and Mrs. Clark went to the quarters of General and Mrs. Davidson for cocktails and then to the officers club as their guests for the formal dinner dance.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning and rested at home in the afternoon. At 1830 hours he and Mrs. Clark went to the Cow Palace at Daly City for dinner as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nion Tucker, and then to the Grand National Livestock show.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and conferred with various staff officers throughout the morning. He had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon. He had dinner at home and in the evening had a group of friends in for a movie.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 conferred with Brig. General Frederic Butler, Commander, Central Military District. He had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon with Al Schwabacher, Jr. and Colonel Woodward. At 1900 hours General and Mrs. Clark went to the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cauthorn for cocktails and then as their guests to the Mark Hopkins for dinner and opening night of Hildegard.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours. At 1000 he saw Mrs. Gloria Cecil about going to Japan, and at 1100 hours had an insurance physical examination given by Dr. Baker of the Prudential

Life Insurance Company. He had lunch at home and returned to the office in the afternoon. At 1530 hours he went to the golf course and played with Colonel Lloyd. At 1930 hours, Mr. William Bullitt, former United States Ambassador to France, came to the Post for dinner with the General prior to his departure for China.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 NOVEMBER 1948 - This being Armistice Day, General Clark did not go to the office and played golf in the morning with Colonels Lloyd and Woodward. He had lunch at his quarters and spent the afternoon there. At 1800 hours, accompanied by Brig. General Davidson, he went to Stilwell Hall where he was guest of honor of the Society of Military Engineers. After dinner he gave a talk to the Society and returned home about 2100.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - FORT ORD - PALM SPRINGS - 12 NOVEMBER 1948 - At 0800 hours, General and Mrs. Clark, accompanied by Captain Dallam, went to Hamilton Field and took off by plane for Fort Ord. The group arrived at 0930 hours and the General conducted an inspection of training and facilities at Fort Ord. They had lunch at the Officers Club with Major General Jens A. Doe, Commanding General, 4th Infantry Division, Fort Ord, and members of the staff. At 1500 hours the General departed by plane for Palm Springs, California, where he and Mrs. Clark were to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Darryl F. Zanuck, Vice President in charge of production of 20th Century-Fox Film Corporation. The group arrived Palm Springs at 1730 hours and were met at the airport by Mr. Zanuck's chauffeur and taken to the house. The General had a swim and dinner at 1900, and then went for a short walk. The Zanucks and the rest of the house guests were still in Hollywood and were not to arrive until the following morning.

* * * *

PALM SPRINGS, CALIF - 13 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arose at 0900 hours and went for a swim. He had breakfast with Mrs. Clark beside the swimming pool. The other guests for the weekend were Rosalind Russell and husband and Constance Bennett and her husband. During the day they enjoyed the swimming pool and tennis courts. The group had a late dinner at 2100 hours and the General played pool and later went for a swim.

* * * *

PALM SPRINGS, CALIF - 14 NOVEMBER 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark and the other guests remained at the home of the Zanucks relaxing and sunning and enjoying the recreational facilities at hand.

* * * *

PALM SPRINGS - LOS ANGELES - 15 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark departed from Palm Springs at 0845 hours and arrived at the Glendale Airport at 0930 hours. He was met by Brigadier General LeRoy Watson, Commander of Southern Military District. They immediately went to McCormick General Hospital in Pasadena where they were greeted by Colonel Welch, Commanding Officer, and taken on a tour of inspection of the hospital. General Clark was well pleased with the setup. From Pasadena, the group motored to downtown Los Angeles to see General Watson's headquarters and following that brief inspection they went to the newly organized Officers Club on Wilshire Blvd. and lunched there as guests of Colonel Roberts, Commanding Officers of the 13th Armored Division. Among the guests were Major General Huddleston, Commanding General of 40th Infantry Division California National Guard and members of his staff. Following lunch the General went with General Watson to the Douglas Aircraft Factory, Long Beach, California, for a demonstration of the new transport C-124, which will be the world's largest transport plane. The demonstration consisted of showing the General the type and amount of equipment which could be put on the plane - one demonstration showed a portable crane being placed in the fuselage, followed by a second demonstration placing a tractor and a semi-trailer, in addition to a 2½ ton truck, inside the fuselage. Following this, General Clark motored to Fort MacArthur at San Pedro, where he inspected facilities of the Post which has recently been made the local ORC training ground. Following the inspection, General and Mrs. Watson gave a reception in honor of General and Mrs. Clark. Mrs. Clark had motored from Palm Springs during the day with Miss Constance Bennett and her husband, and had then been driven to Fort MacArthur by a studio car. Following the reception, General and Mrs. Clark and Captain Dallam, departed for Mines Field in Inglewood and took off for San Francisco, returning to the Presidio at 2200 hours.

97

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 16 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0825 hours and during the morning was briefed by various staff members covering projects to be taken up at the Army Commanders Conference. The General had lunch at home and played golf in the afternoon with Colonel Woodward. He had dinner at home with Mrs. Clark and at 2000 hours went to Stilwell Hall to address the monthly meeting of the San Francisco Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 17 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 0945 hours saw Lt. Colonel Gray, JA. At 1000 hours he had a conference with Major General Moore and Colonel Oxx, of Armed Forces Headquarters. He had lunch at home and returned to the office at 1400 hours. He saw various staff officers and returned to his quarters at 1645. At 1730 General and Mrs. Clark went to Dr. Chandler's for cocktails and later to dinner at the St. Francis Yacht Club as guests of Colonel and Mrs. Lawton Butler, Army AG.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 18 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 and at 0945 hours received Lt. Colonel Fields, who had formerly served as an enlisted man under General Clark's command at Fort Lewis. He came in to pay his respects prior to his departure for China. At 1030 the General had a conference with the G-3 section regarding civilian defense program. At 1345 hours the General saw Lt. Colonel Gray, JA, and then returned to quarters for lunch. At 1300 hours he went golfing with Colonel Lloyd and Navy Captain Talbot. At 1600 hours, accompanied by Generals Robertson and Davidson, the General went to Admiral Murray's office at the Federal Office Building, and following that went to the opening of the joint public information center, 100 McAllister Street. He had dinner at home, with Clare Booth Luce as guest.

* * * *

San Francisco-Kansas City, Missouri - 19 NOVEMBER 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark, accompanied by Captain Dallam, departed from Hamilton Field at 0800 hours for the East Coast. They stopped at Cheyenne, Wyoming for lunch and then landed that evening at Olathe, Kansas, about 30 miles south of Kansas City, Missouri. General and Mrs. Clark motored into Kansas City and spent the night at the Muhlbach Hotel as guests of the manager, Mr. Barney Allis.

* * * *

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI-BATTLE CREEK, MICHIGAN - 20 NOVEMBER 1948 - The plane picked up General and Mrs. Clark at the Kansas City Airport at 1130 hours and the party flew north to Battle Creek, Michigan, arriving 1500 hours. They were met at the airport by Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Clark, at whose home the General and Mrs. Clark were to spend the weekend. In the evening the Ezra Clarks had a few friends in for cocktails and supper.

* * * *

BATTLE CREEK, MICHIGAN - 21 NOVEMBER 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark remained at the Ezra Clarks during the day and in the evening went to a cocktail party and then had dinner at the Post Hotel.

* * * *

BATTLE CREEK-DETROIT, MICHIGAN - 22 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark spoke before the Battle Creek High School at 1100 hours and departed from Battle Creek at 1315 hours. He arrived Detroit where he was met at the airport by Colonel Cummings, Michigan Military District, and Mr. H. M. Robbins, Secretary of the Committee on Foreign Relations, and went directly to the Statler Hotel to remain there overnight. In the evening the General was the guest of and principal speaker at the meeting of the Committee on Foreign Relations.

* * * *

DETROIT-NEW YORK CITY - 23 NOVEMBER 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark and Captain Dallam went to the airport and departed for Mitchel Field, Long Island, arriving there at 1330 hours. They were met at the airport by Ann and Bill Clark, who had motored from West Point to meet them. They drove to the Hotel Astor in New York City. General Clark contacted many friends in the afternoon and in the evening went to see HIGH BUTTON SHOES as guest of Mr. Robert Christenberry, President of the Astor Hotel.

* * * *

NEW YORK CITY - 24 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark called on Mr. Henry Luce in the morning and at lunch was entertained by Mr. J.P. Hennessy, Chairman of the Board of the Statler Hotels, at Club 21. During the afternoon the General made several calls and in the evening had dinner with the family at Sardi's and went to LIFE WITH MOTHER.

* * * *

NEW YORK CITY - 25 NOVEMBER 1948 - Thanksgiving Day. The Clark family spent the morning at the hotel and in the afternoon went for cocktails to the home of General and Mrs. Eisenhower, following which they were guests at a Thanksgiving Dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard.

* * * *

NEW YORK CITY - 26 NOVEMBER 1948 - The Clarks spent the day in and around the hotel as Ann was not feeling well. They made several calls in the afternoon and in the evening, after dinner, went to the Winter Garden to see Bobby Clark's show AS THE GIRLS GO.

* * * *

NEW YORK CITY-PHILADELPHIA - 27 NOVEMBER 1948 - Ann and Captain Dallam departed from the hotel by automobile at 0700 hours to drive to Philadelphia. General and Mrs. Clark departed on the 0915 train, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harriman. They arrived at the Philadelphia Municipal Stadium at 1145 hours and went directly to their seats where they watched the pregame parade and the Army-Navy football game. Following the game, a reception given by General and Mrs. Maxwell Taylor, superintendent of U.S.M.A., was attended by the Clarks, following which they entertained friends in their suite at the Hotel Benjamin Franklin.

* * * *

PHILADELPHIA-WASHINGTON, DC - 28 NOVEMBER 1948 - General and Mrs. Clark departed for Washington by train at 1015 hours and arrived there at 1230. They were met by an officer of General Bradley's staff and taken to their apartment at Fort Myer, Va. Ann and Captain Dallam drove from Philadelphia and arrived at 1515 hours, and Ann, not feeling well, immediately went to bed. In the evening the General and Mrs. Clark had dinner with Mrs. Clark, Senior, and returned home to Fort Myer.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC - 29 NOVEMBER 1948 - General Clark left his quarters at 0800 hours to go to the Pentagon Building for the start of the Army Commanders Conference which lasted the entire morning. He had lunch with General Bradley in the Secretary of the Army's dining room, and in the afternoon contacted various staff officers of the Department of the Army. In the evening General and Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Clark, Senior were guests of General and Mrs. Bradley at their home for dinner.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC - 30 NOVEMBER 1948 - The Army Commanders Conference again started at 0830 hours and the General spent the entire morning at the conference. He lunched again in the Secretary of the Army's dining room and in the afternoon contacted various staff officers. At 1500 hours he called on Mr. W. Averell Harriman at his office and then returned to the Pentagon Building. That evening, General and Mrs. Clark dined at O'Donnell's Restaurant.

* * * *

WASHINGTON, DC-OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA - 1 DECEMBER 1948 - Ann and Mrs. Clark, accompanied by Sgt. Frank Roberts, departed at 0800 hours to drive in Ann's new car to the West Coast. The General went to the Pentagon Building at 0830 hours where the meeting of the Army Commanders was again resumed for the entire morning. At 1245 hours the conference ended and the General, accompanied by Colonels Woodward and Slocum, G-4 and G-3 of Sixth Army, immediately went to the airport to return to San Francisco. They took off at 1300 hours and landed at Oklahoma City where they remained overnight at Tinker Field as guests of Brigadier General James Spry.

* * * *

OKLAHOMA CITY-SAN FRANCISCO - 2 DECEMBER 1948 - The party departed Tinker Field at 0800 hours and stopped for refueling at Albuquerque. They arrived Hamilton Field at 1630 hours, and returned by car to the Presidio reaching the General's quarters at 1700 hours. The General had a short conference with Colonel McMahon and retired early.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 3 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0915 hours and had a series of conferences with various staff officers throughout the morning. He had lunch at home and during the afternoon played golf with Colonel Lloyd and General Robertson and in the evening went out with friends.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 4 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning with Colonel Woodward and Generals Robertson and Kilburn. In the late afternoon the General left for Oakland to attend the Winter Ceremonial of the AAHMES Temple. He had dinner there and made a short talk.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 5 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning and remained at home in the afternoon. He went out with friends for dinner that evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 6 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 0930 hours had a conference with Major General Harry Collins, who had come down from Fort Lewis to discuss various staff matters. At 1100 hours the General had a private conference with Wendell Witter of Dean Witter & Company, Investments, and then lunched at home. He played golf in the afternoon, had dinner at home and retired early.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 7 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0900 and at 0920 went to San Bruno to the Golden Gate National Cemetery to attend the burial services of Pvt. Leonard M. Conway. He returned from the services at 1100 hours and at 1115 had a conference with Colonel Oxx. He lunched at home, returning to the office in the afternoon, most of which was spent attending to correspondence. He returned to quarters at 1600 hours and in the evening had dinner in town with friends.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 8 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 0930 hours saw Brigadier General Zundell, Chief of Counter Intelligence Corps. At 1030 hours the General conducted the initial commissioning ceremony of six newly commissioned Second Lieutenants, direct from civilian life. At 1130 hours he saw Major General Jens Doe, Fourth Infantry Division Commander, who drove up from Monterey for the call. He had lunch at home and played golf with Colonel Lloyd in the afternoon. He remained home in the evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 9 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 0900 saw Brigadier General Fitch from the Adjutant General's office in Washington who is here to conduct a recruiting conference. At 0915 hours he saw Major General Robert Frederickson; at 1100 hours Rear Admiral Lynde D. McCormick, new 12th Naval District Commander, called to pay his respects. At 1130 hours, accompanied by Colonel McMahon, the General went to the Palace Hotel for the Shrine luncheon. He returned to his office following the luncheon and at 1730 departed for Treasure Island for a reception given by Vice Admiral and Mrs. Murray honoring Rear Admiral McCormick and Mrs. McCormick.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 10 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 saw Lt. Colonel Ellis, acting Judge Advocate, on some court martial cases. At 1245 hours he went to the Presidio Officers Club where he was host to a party given in honor of Colonel Jacques de la Boisse, the French Military Attache at Washington. The luncheon lasted until 1500 hours and then the General brought Colonel de la Boisse and Captain Meslet, his aide, to the office to show them pictures of his dealings with the French in North Africa and Italy. At 1830 hours, accompanied by Captain Dallam, the General went to the St. Francis Hotel as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fleishhacker Senior at dinner. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron. Following this the party went to the deYoung Museum at Golden Gate Park for the opening of the exhibit of captured German art. The General gave a short talk at 2100 hours and after touring the art galleries the General returned home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 11 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning with General Robertson, General Kilburn and Colonel Woodward, and then lunched at home. At 1430 hours Mrs. Clark and Ann arrived home after crossing the country by car. They spent the remainder of the afternoon talking over the trip and at 1800 hours General and Mrs. Clark were guests of Colonel and Mrs. Peter Lloyd for cocktails at their home and dinner and dancing at the Officers Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 12 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark spent the entire day at home. They had dinner in town with friends.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 13 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1000 hours saw the newly-assigned field grade officers. At 1200 hours he went home for lunch and returned to the office about 1400 hours. He left at 1530 hours and returned home. At 1830 hours the General went to dinner at the Pacific Union Club given by the Army Advisory Committee, with Mr. James Calkins as host.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 14 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0930 hours. He saw various staff officers during the morning and at noon lunched at home. He played golf in the afternoon with Colonels Lloyd and Woodward and in the evening the General, Mrs. Clark and Ann had dinner in town as guests of Mr. Nathan Cummings.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 15 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and at 1030 hours saw Mr. Harry Mazlich and his group comprising the March of Dimes Committee in Los Angeles. At 1100 hours he saw General George Moore and then lunched at home with his family. In the afternoon, the General returned to his office for a short while and went out to play golf at 1500 hours. He dined at home that evening.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 16 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0915 hours and at 1000 hours saw Lansing Tevis, after which he saw various staff officers of Headquarters. He had lunch at home and during the afternoon played golf. Dined at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 17 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0845 hours and at 1000 the French Naval Attache, Captain Lancelot, who was here from Washington, DC, called to pay his respects. The General lunched at home and went shopping in the afternoon. He dined at home with the family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 18 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark played golf in the morning with General Kilburn and Colonels Woodward and Lloyd. He lunched at home about 1300 hours and then went to NBC studios in San Francisco to participate in a nation-wide broadcast of the Vienna Boys Choir. Later in the afternoon he went for a walk and then dined at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 19 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark and family drove to Sonoma to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Coblentz for lunch. Returning to the Presidio, the family spent the evening at home.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 20 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and saw various staff members throughout the morning. At 1215 hours the General lunched with Dr. Chandler of the Stanford Medical Department at the Bohemian Club. The General spent the evening at home with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 21 DECEMBER 1948 - Bill Clark arrived from West Point at 0130 hours to spend Christmas vacation with his family. The General arrived at his office at 0930 hours and at 1000 saw Mr. Kay of the San Francisco Chronicle. Mr. Kay had written articles on recruits at Fort Ord and he was to discuss them with the General. At 1100 hours General James A. Lester, CG of the San Francisco Port of Embarkation, was presented with the Legion of Merit by General Clark. The General lunched at home and remained there until 1800 hours at which time he and his family went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Brendon Brady for cocktails. The General then continued on to the Pacific-Union Club special holiday dinner at 1930 hours.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 22 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0930 hours and attended to routine office matters. He lunched at home and remained there throughout the afternoon. At 1830 hours the family went to the quarters of Colonel and Mrs. Edmunds for cocktails after which they went to the Christmas dinner dance at the Officers Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 23 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and attended to routine office matters. At 1000 hours he saw General Lester on the attendant circumstances surrounding the wedding at Oakland Army Base involving an American officer and an Oriental bride. The General spent the after noon at home and in the evening the family, accompanied by Captain Dallam, had dinner at de Fior d'Italia.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 24 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and returned to quarters at noon. In the meantime the plane from Seattle carrying Mr. and Mrs. Tom Griffiths arrived at 1130 hours. In the afternoon the General went downtown shopping and then returned to quarters where he spent the evening with his family.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 25 DECEMBER 1948 - At 1045 hours General and Mrs. Clark, in company with Brig. General and Mrs. Frank L. Cole, and Judge Michael Musmanno, who had arrived from the East to spend Christmas with the Clarks, toured Letterman General Hospital greeting the patients. At 1300 hours the Clark family, Judge Musmanno, Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths had dinner at Headquarters Company. At 1800 hours General and Mrs. Clark had cocktails at their quarters for about 24 people, and then had dinner at the Officers Club.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 26 DECEMBER 1948 - The Clarks spent the greater part of the day at home and then were guests of George and Archie Mardikian at OMAR KHAYYAM'S following which Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths left by plane for Seattle at 1915 hours. General and Mrs. Clark, Ann, and Judge Musmanno attended George White's Variety show at the Curran Theater as guests of Mr. Louis Lurie, President of the Curran and Geary Theaters.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 27 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0830 hours and attended to routine office matters until noon, when he returned to his quarters for the afternoon and evening. Judge Musmanno left by plane this morning to return to Los Angeles.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 28 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0845 hours and after attending to routine office matters returned to his quarters.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 29 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at the office at 0915 hours and saw various members of the staff. At 1100 hours Dr. Van Woerden, Consul General of the Netherlands, called on the General to pay a Christmas call and discuss international events. The General returned to his quarters for lunch and spent the afternoon at home. At 1730 hours the Clark family went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taggart for cocktails, and then to the quarters of Colonel and Mrs. Browning at 1830 hours and then to the Officers Club for the informal dinner dance.

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 30 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0830 hours and at 1000 hours saw Commander Jose Rivas y Sanz, who was in port with his corvette of the Mexican Navy, in company with Consul of Mexico, Mr. Edmundo Gonzalez. The General and ~~Bill~~ returned to his quarters at noon and at 1830 hours, with Mrs. Clark and Ann, went to the country place of Mr. Gordon Tevis, (Glen Ellen, Sonoma County).

* * * *

SAN FRANCISCO - 31 DECEMBER 1948 - General Clark arrived at his office at 0900 hours and attended to routine office matters. He returned to his quarters at noon and in the evening attended the New Year's party at the officers club.

* * * *