ARCHITECTURAL SIGNIFICANCE (describe important architectural features and evaluate in terms of other buildings within community)

328 Wilder is an interesting amalgam of the Second Empire and Stick Styles. Shed hoods at the first story windows, and trusswork at the gable and dormer ends are Stick Style characteristics on this otherwise Second Empire, mansard-roofed house.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE (explain the role owners played in local or state history and how the building relates to the development of the community)

George Evans was a city Engineer for many years.
