

Legislative Alert

WEDNESDAY

APRIL 22, 1981

- * The Senate is in recess. Paul is in Massachusetts.
- * The Senate Finance Committee will hold hearings on Friday on taxation of Americans abroad....(See Tsongas-Chafee bill in April 16 Legislative Alert)
- * The Senate Energy Committee Subcommittee on Energy and Mineral Resources is holding a hearing today on alternative financing mechanisms for the Strategic Petroleum Reserve.
- * The Senate Energy Committee Subcommittee on Energy Regulation is holding hearings tomorrow on amendments to the Powerplant and Industrial Fuel Use Act.
- * The Senate Foreign Relations Committee will hold a second hearing on Monday on the confirmation of Chester Crocker to be Assistant Secretary of State for Africa. This additional hearing is at the insistence of Sen. Jesse Helms.
- * The Senate Energy Committee Subcommittee on Public Lands begins hearings today on S.842, the RARE II Review Act of 1981. This is the Hayakawa bill mentioned in earlier Legislative Alerts. This bill is likely to become a MAJOR ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUE.
- * For your information: NEW AIRFARE between Boston and Washington:

EASTERN AIRLINES and NEW YORK AIR each have a $39 one-way fare on SATURDAYS ONLY.

