

ENERGY AT BROWN UNIVERSITY

Center for Energy Studies, Providence College and Rhode Island Energy Coordinating Council

Semester I 1982-1983

Thursday, October 7

Hermann F. Eilts, University Professor of International Relations at Boston University.

Former US Ambassador to Egypt and Saudi Arabia.

Geopolitics of Oil in the Middle East

Thursday, October 21

John F. O'Leary, Energy Consultant

Former First Deputy Secretary of Energy 1977-1979

United States Energy in the Last Decade

Thursday, December 2

Robert Bourassa, University Lecturer and Consultant

Former Prime Minister of Quebec

The Rivers of Northern Quebec and the Energy Future of the Northeast

All Three Lectures will be Delivered in Barus and Holley, Room 166 at 4 p.m.

On the day of each lecture a shuttle service will be provided between Providence College and Brown University. The bus will leave Providence College (Harkins Hall) at 3:30 p.m. for the outward journey and 6 p.m. (Barus and Holley parking lot) for the return journey.

University Lectureship Series presented jointly by Brown University Center for Energy Studies, Providence College and the Rhode Island Energy Coordinating Council with support from the Exxon Education Foundation and Sigma Xi.