

COMMITTEE ON LABOR AND HUMAN RESOURCES
SUBCOMMITTEE ON CHILD AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Senator Alan Cranston, Chairman

Public Hearing on Amendment #'s 1675 and 1678 to
S. 1843 authorizing the creation of Presidential Commissions to Study
National Service and Volunteerism

8:45 a.m., March 13, 1980

Room 457

Russell Senate Office Building

* * * * *

WITNESS LIST

Honorable Paul E. Tsongas
U.S. Senator from Massachusetts

Honorable David Durenberger
U.S. Senator from Minnesota

Honorable Claiborne Pell
U.S. Senator from Rhode Island

Honorable Paul N. McCloskey, Jr.
Member of the House of Representatives from California

Honorable John Cavanaugh
Member of the House of Representatives from Nebraska

Honorable Leon E. Panetta
Member of the House of Representatives from California

Panel One

Harris Wofford
Jacqueline Grennan Wexler
Donald J. Eberly
The Committee for the Study of National Service
Washington, D.C.

Dr. Robert F. Sexton, Deputy Executive Secretary
Coalition for Alternatives in Post-Secondary Education
Frankfurt, Kentucky

June A. Willenz, Executive Director
American Veterans Committee
Washington, D.C.

Panel Two

Sam Brown, Director
The ACTION Agency
Washington, D.C.

Charles B. Knapp, Deputy Assistant Secretary
Department of Labor
Washington, D.C.

John L. Fulbright, Jr., Director
Office of Youth Programs
Department of the Interior
Washington, D.C.

Panel Three

Ellen G. Witman, Legislative Assistant
United Way
Alexandria, Virginia

Dorothy Height
President, Alliance for Volunteerism
President, National Council of Negro Women
Washington, D.C.

Mary Ripley, Acting President
VOLUNTEER
Washington, D.C.

Laura Lee Geraghty, Director
Minnesota Governor's Office of Volunteer Services
St. Paul, Minnesota

Panel Four

David Landau, Staff Counsel
American Civil Liberties Union
Washington, D.C.

Doris C. Jones
People Against the Draft
Menlo Park, California

Lewis Crampton, Former Commissioner
Massachusetts Department of Community Affairs
Newton, Massachusetts

Panel Five

B.T. Collins, Director
California Conservation Corps
Sacramento, California

accompanied by two corps members

Jim DeBlasio
Former Director
Seattle Program for Local Services
Employment Service Coordinator
Washington State Employment Security Department
Olympia, Washington

David Hornbeck, State Superintendent of Schools for Maryland
Baltimore, Maryland

accompanied by two students

Amelia Greiner, Director
Youth Community Service
Syracuse, New York

accompanied by four program participants