

NEWS

from
Paul Tsongas

U.S. SENATOR FROM MASSACHUSETTS

June 25, 1982

5:00 p.m.

HAIG RESIGNATION

The resignation of Alexander Haig is troubling. It suggests a foreign policy cast adrift. It suggests a Presidential vacuum in foreign affairs that can only be destabilizing. One must conclude that the departure of the most experienced foreign policy official in the Reagan Administration is an ominous sign. The fact that Secretary Haig said nothing positive about President Reagan in his statement this afternoon also suggests serious in-fighting within the Administration.

#####