

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, D.C.

1983 NOV 17 PM 6:00

November 17, 1983

Honorable Charles Mathias
Chairman
Committee on Rules and Administration
Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

The photographic work of Farag Peri is known worldwide and the American-Israeli Public Affairs Committee has brought to my attention a new collection of his work focusing on Jerusalem. I respectfully request that the Russell Rotunda be reserved for an exhibit of Mr. Peri's work on Jerusalem as follows:

Time: Daily business hours (10 a.m. - 5 p.m.)

Date: April 2 through April 13, 1984

Exhibit: A collection of approximately 50 photos entitled "Jerusalem - City of Peace"

Content of Exhibit: People and places in Jerusalem, expressing the three world religions of the city, Judaism, Islam, and Christianity. Photos will be displayed on easels or hinged screens, as appropriate.

Staff Contacts: Christopher Chamberlin of my staff
392 Russell Senate Office Building
phone: 224-1128
Social Security #: 066-34-6731

Ralph Nurnberger
American-Israeli Public Affairs Committee
phone: 638-2256
Social Security #: 051-38-1386

I believe that this exhibit would be informative and inspiring for members, staff, and the general public. I hope that this request can be approved.

Sincerely,

PAUL E. TSONGAS
United States Senator

Chris C. to check with AIPAC to be sure there are no
captions
characterizing
Jerusalem
as capital of Israel.
Then let Aire Cook know.