

This is why the New Right wants to dump Paul Tsongas:

These are some of the ratings right-wing groups gave Paul Tsongas, based on his voting record, during his term in the Senate:

| | |
|--|-----|
| John Birch Society Conservative Index | 0% |
| American Conservative Union (cumulative) | 4% |
| Christian Voters Victory Fund | 0% |
| Americans for Constitutional Action (cumulative) | 13% |
| Conservatives Against Liberal Action | 6% |
| Christian Voice | 0% |

The New Right is counting on Political Action Committees and individuals around the country to raise millions of dollars for conservative candidates for 1984. The money is coming in right now.

This is why we need to keep Paul Tsongas in the Senate:

Paul's ratings by progressive groups include the following:

| | |
|--|------|
| Council for a Livable World | 100% |
| National Council of Senior Citizens | 100% |
| Americans for Democratic Action | 95% |
| AFL-CIO COPE | 100% |
| Leadership Conference on Civil Rights | 100% |
| American Association of University Women | 100% |
| United Auto Workers | 93% |
| Bread for the World | 100% |

Paul Tsongas is counting on you.

Think back a moment.

Since Ronald Reagan took office, we've seen many Senators running for cover, shifting their positions to suit the new conservative trend.

Now, look again at the ratings above:

Paul Tsongas hasn't run, and he hasn't wavered in his convictions.

Because Paul Tsongas doesn't change his position on equal rights, or arms control, or justice every time the political winds change direction.

Through these difficult years, Paul Tsongas has stuck with us.

Now, Paul Tsongas needs you.
