

NEWS

from
Paul Tsongas

U.S. SENATOR FROM MASSACHUSETTS

April 16, 1982

Senator Paul Tsongas is sponsoring a press preview of the TV Documentary "Thinking Twice About Nuclear War" on Monday, April 19, 10:30 - 11:00 a.m., in Room 5110 Dirksen Senate Office Building. Prior to the screening of the film, Tsongas will make a statement on Ground Zero Week. He will be joined by the Strandbergs of Richmond, Virginia, who are profiled in the film with their four children.

The film, a documentary on public reaction to the threat of nuclear war, will be aired in its entirety on April 23, on PBS stations around the country. It was produced by the Public Interest Video Network, a Washington, D.C. based television production company
