

Legislative Alert

THURSDAY

APRIL 23, 1981

- * The Senate is in recess. Paul is in Massachusetts.
- * For your information: The SENATE SMALL BUSINESS COMMITTEE is now a standing committee of the Senate. It is no longer a select committee.
- * Since there seems to be some confusion, at times, regarding Paul's committee assignments, here they are as a special service of the LEGISLATIVE ALERT:
 - Energy and Natural Resources Committee
 - @Energy Conservation and Supply Subcommittee
 - @Energy Research and Development Subcommittee
 - @Water and Power Subcommittee
 - Small Business Committee
 - @Advocacy and the Future of Small Business Subcommittee, Ranking Minority Member
 - Foreign Relations Committee
 - @African Affairs Subcommittee, Ranking Minority Member
 - @East Asian and Pacific Affairs Subcommittee
 - @Western Hemisphere Affairs Subcommittee
- * Other positions which Paul holds include:
 - House-Senate Ad Hoc Monitoring Group on Southern Africa, Co-Coordinator
 - Northeast-Midwest Senate Coalition
 - Members of Congress for Peace through Law, Steering Committee
 - Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee
 - Senate Export Caucus
 - Congressional Solar Coalition
 - Environmental Study Conference
- * The Foreign Relations Committee mark-up of the State Department Authorization begins on Friday, May 1. Democrats may try to cut the authorization in several areas.
- * Committee votes on the Fur Seal Convention, the Malone nomination, and possibly the Crocker nomination are scheduled for Tuesday, April 28. Sen. Helms appears to be the only committee vote against the Crocker nomination.
