

Legislative Alert

WEDNESDAY

JUNE 17, 1981

- * The Senate will convene today at 11 AM. The Senate will continue debate on the Justice Department Authorization. Being considered is the Helms Amendment to prohibit busing. At some point during the afternoon, the Senate will put the Justice Department Authorization aside and will consider and act on the State Department Authorization, after which the Senate will continue consideration of the Justice Department Authorization.
- * The Public Lands Subcommittee today will hold hearings on the Hayakawa Rare II "Reform" bill. The bill is strongly opposed by all environmental groups.
- * The Foreign Relations Committee will hold hearings on the nominations of Charles Bray to be Ambassador to Senegal; James Hackett to be an Associate Director of ICA; James Conkling to be an Associate Director of ICA; and Jose Sorzano to be Representative on the Economic and Social Council of the U.N.
- * Highlights of Paul's Schedule:
 - Reception for Democratic Governors
 - Members of Congress for Peace through Law luncheon
 - Foreign Relations Forum re Military Budget and Inflation
 - Interview, "Greek Accent" Magazine
 - Ethiopian Embassy official
 - Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee dinner

 Note: The LEGISLATIVE ALERT will be on vacation next week.

