Nineteen Fifty-One
Hill Top

For dreams and ambitions are quite the same,
And empires rise at their magic name;
There is never a blessing we have today,
But somebody's dreaming has paved the way.
Why! Out on the edges of endless space
God dreamed a dream for the human race.
—BASIL WILLIS.

The FEATURES

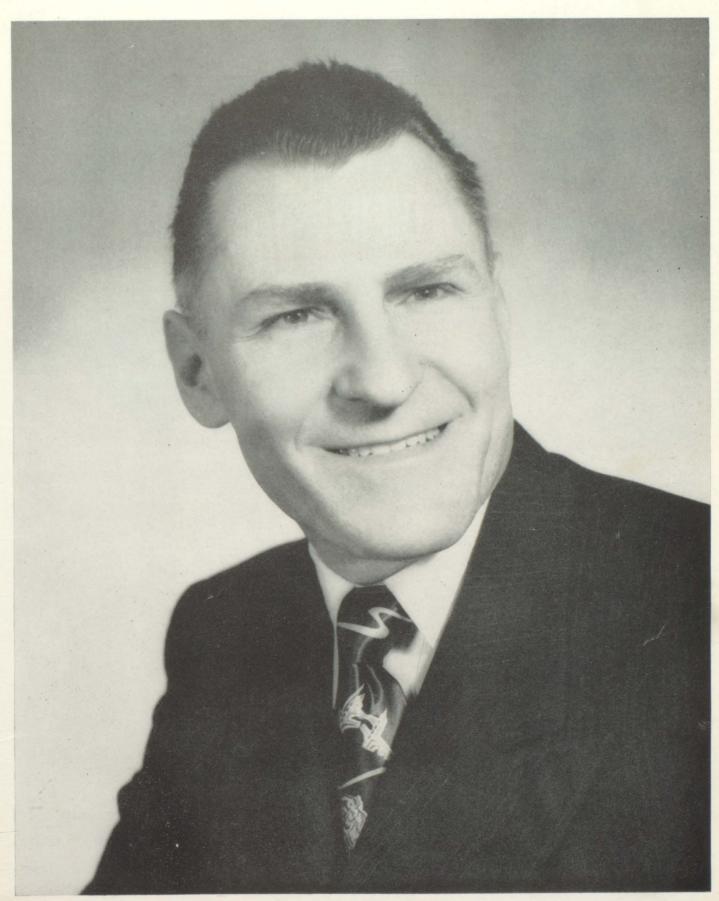

Tradition at Hapeville High began fifteen years ago, when a young man with a vision joined the charter faculty of the little high school on College Street. The young man was Mr. Roy Vincent Brewer; his vision was to help Hapeville High grow to a school of prominence.

With the passing of the years his work has made the vision come true, has made him a legendary hero, especially in the athletic department which he has developed. An athlete in his own right, Mr. Brewer has imparted his spirit and his sense of fair play to the boys and girls of this community for more than a decade. In turn they have symbolized their love and respect for him in this honorary name: Coacher.

These graduates of yesteryear and students of today recognize Mr. Brewer as a master coach, an understanding teacher, a qualified scientist, a tradition at Hapeville High. Because he has given himself to realize his vision for the school, we, the seniors of nineteen hundred fifty-one, dedicate The Hilltop to Our Coacher.

ALL ABOUT US

This, our Senior Year, has brought to a close five of the most wonderful years of our lives . . . years of work and play. Gazing fondly over the now-past, short span of our high school careers, we realize with an overwhelming sense of indebtedness what a tremendous amount of fun we have had . . . and what a tremendous number of people we owe for all of this fun. The dreams and ambitions of our youthful sub-frosh days have become a reality through hard work, perseverance . . . and lots of help! The big, big Junior-Seniors . . . the Valentine Balls, the Military Balls . . . all of the dances that each of us has had a part in at some time. . . . The gala Hobo Day when all the bums came dressed fit to kill . . . the football games . . . all so wonderful. We can never forget those last few days of school . . . everything crowded into one. "Just Ducky" was just ducky, and the pregraduation rush set us into a giddy spin that none of us would have been willing to miss. Yes, it was all mighty wonderful . . . all truly, a dream come true.

And now we must bid farewell to Hapeville High... our teachers, our friends, all of the things we know and have learned to love so very much. Some of us will trudge down other halls of learning, some will go out to seek employment, and still there will be others who will go on to the battlefields to help our country in the crisis it now faces. But wherever we go, whatever we do, a portion of our hearts will always remain here in the halls of Hapeville, where we have spent . . . the best years of our lives.

"...we are the stuff that dreams are made on.."

Yes, Juniors, you are the stuff that dreams are made on . . . the sweetest, most delicious sort of dreams. Without your friendship and companionship our senior year would have been a drab . . . you have really made our last year at HHS one to be remembered. Through your hard work and determined stick-to-itiveness, dreams of almost impossible magnitude were realized . . . the wonderful, wonderful Junior-Senior . . . the programs for the Girls' County Tournament . . .

To you, the Juniors of nineteen-fifty-one, we of the senior class raise as one a solemn tribute of praise for the past accomplishments, and a silent hope for your future successes.

Glimpses

Rebound Tension

No, not a maypole, just a huddle.

PRESENTING for the first time in history, the girls' active B-Team, complete with coach, managers, captains, regular sessions, and all the trimmings. A few of the girls: Shirley Pruitt laid many a fine block to protect her teammates as they shot 'em in the basket. . . . Marilyn Jordan was a Tessie in miniature at her pivot spot. . . . Shirley Folds was the long shot artist. . . . Joy Rasmussen fought and fought for her points. . . . Now for the guards: Edith Williamson and Barbara Culbreth were quick as bunnies. . . . Carol Camp blocked 'em "ever whicha way". . . . Joyce McCalmon developed into a good, all-round guard. This team will be going places, come another year!

of Glamour

Hars off to Coach Brewer's Lady Hornets—hereafter to be saluted as the BOOGERS. Yessir, they didn't mean maybe when they set about playing the ball game. Tho' teams come and teams go . . . and Coach roars some mo' . . . it's been so long since a gal's team has had such a successful season!

SEASON IN REVIEW

College Park came and left, victorious
... but scared!! Fulton's females were cut down to quite their own size.
Newton County, last year's champs, toppled from the ranks of the undefeated. The gals scored sweet revenge on Russell and Campbell. Sharpshooters for the team—North Fulton and Druid Hills! Ooooh, could they play sweet ball! The Boogers snarled all over Southwest Fulton, Forest Park and West Fulton . . . and on into the tournament with a great big MEOW!

C OACH CAMPBELL is keeping his eye on the eleven youngsters that made up the boys B-Team last season. All of the lads have proved themselves fully capable of giving their big brothers a run for their places. There is quite an enviable record for the B-Team Hornets. Sparked by Jack Demarest and Donald Rickett, the team just won and won. Larry McIntosh, Eddie Starnes, and Charles Bailey added the punch that turns the trick to victory.

ALL ABOUT YOUNG FIZ ED (A Short Story)

He is now two years old and is past the toddling age. He is the child prodigy at HHS, having made illustrious records on all occasions. Little Ed is the pride and joy of his doting guardian, Donna Lawson. Together they make quite a pair.

Some of their favorite past times? Let's see . . . they love to do exercise, youngsters usually thrive on rhythm; and they play all sorts of games . . . basketball, soccer, touch football, and such. They get the neighbors from HHS to join in for intramural competition . . . and Eddie adores "tumbling" acts. At Donna's suggestion the neighboring gangs from the "hill" got themselves divided into teams. Little Ed thought up some names for them: "Slick-Willies" and "The Things."

It's quite a big hop-skip-and-jump for a twoyear-old, but Ed is always right up for big square dances that gives him a chance to "show off" . . . and does he love it! Now just look over this page and you will see what Ed and Donna have been doing that makes their record this year truly illustrious . . . yep, it's even stupendous!

Do your daily exercise

Egyptian pyramids were never like this!

Jump ball!!!

Senior Superlatives

"This is our best . . ." the best that we of the Senior Class have to offer in the way of almost perfect students. Each student has in his own way made himself outstanding in his own field; whether it be the way he dresses or how he plays the game, he has made himself a little more prominent than the others around him. They represent the dreams of achievement to many an underclassman.

The HILL-TOP Staff is proud to have had the privilege of honoring these — our best . . .
