THE FACES OF FUN AND EXCITEMENT

Pep rallies, football games and after school parties made up Milton fun.

THE FACES OF EMOTION . . .

Milton students could be intense or relaxed, joyous or annoyed, when they got together at school affairs.

THE FACES OF INTENT AND STUDY

School routine, weekend fun, individual projects, and club activities made MHS many sided.

THE MANY FACETS OF MILTON

DEDICATION

For your consistently hard work and conscientious efforts to make Milton a better school, we the 1967 AERIE staff, dedicate this edition to you,

Mr. Carrol M. Beavers

IN MEMORIAM

Sheila Houze

Your memory will linger forever in our hearts because of your school spirit. Your high ideals, interest in others, and enthusiasm inspired us. We will miss you at the games and pep rallies.

Marilyn Ellis

That one short year with you here at Milton will not be forgotten. Your friendship with us will remain fixed in our hearts.

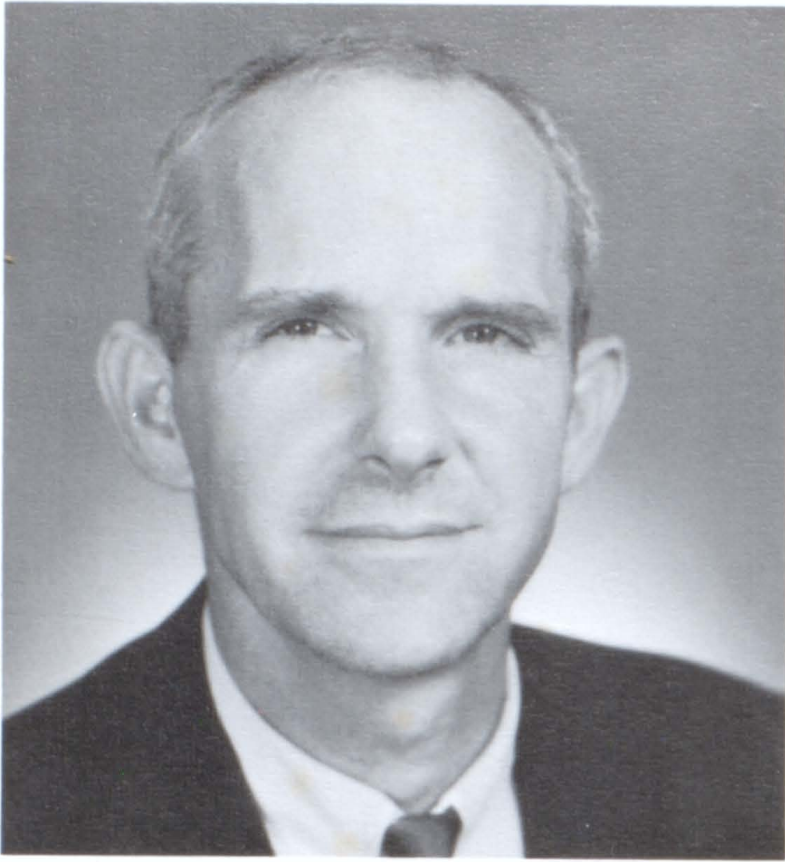

Richard Duran

Many knew him but briefly; yet he will forever be a part of Milton. To those who did not know him he will not be missed, but for those who did the gap that remains is vast.

MR. CARROL BEAVERS

To be a principal involves a great deal of hard work, determination, and interest. But to be a GOOD principal involves even more. In the past year you have shown that you are truly dedicated to Milton High School. For your interest, your consideration, your friendship, and your deep understanding, we, as representatives of the student body, would like to express our sincere gratitude for a job very well done.

Through the years, you have been helpful to all Milton students. We appreciate your kind understanding and all your efforts to make our high school years as profitable as possible. Thank you, Miss Higgins, for being such a wonderful assistant principal.

1966-67

Queen Myra Bryant and escort Bill Bates led off the 1966-67 Homecoming Dance, which was held in honor of the Queen and her Court. Myra is a cheerleader, member of Youth Jury, and Junior Civitan, and is involved in many other school activities.

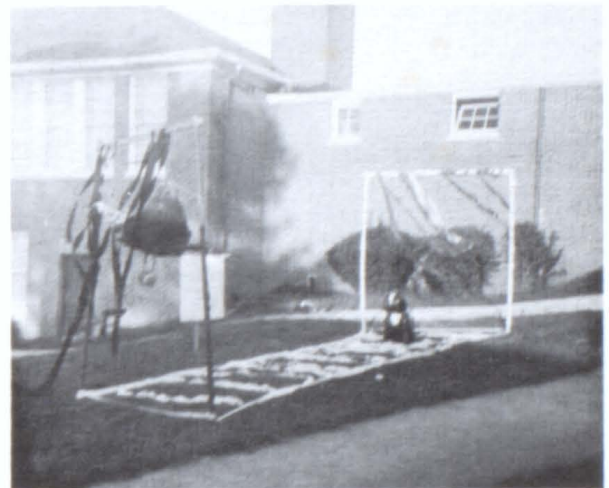

The highlight of the football season is Homecoming and with Homecoming is the climax of a Senior girl's year by being chosen Queen.

The Queen is selected by the student body from a group of six girls chosen by the Senior Class.

Homecoming is a very beautiful and traditional part of our school activities. . . . Thus we are proud to honor Queen Myra Bryant and her Court: Jeannie Allen, Jane Burgess, Linda Henderson, Pam Martin, and Connie McMullan.

HOMECOMING

For a second year the Student Council sponsored a Homecoming Exhibit Contest. The exhibit selected by the judges as best representing the theme of Homecoming was entered by F.H.A.

PEP SQUAD

BAND

Milton students may attribute a large portion of school spirit to the band and majorettes. Through their tireless efforts at pep rallies, school spirit has grown and become an important part of every student. The football team could always depend on the band to support them. Throughout the entire season, spirit and a determination to win never faltered within this group.

Sponsor:
Mr. David Scese

Band and majorettes pose in familiar Block "M" formation.

MAJORETTES

Our majorettes have highlighted many of the half-time shows this year with their original routines and high-stepping style. While leading the band on the football field their poise and precision was ever-present.

The majorettes were sponsored by Miss Kathy Jones.
