Lakeshore High School 1973

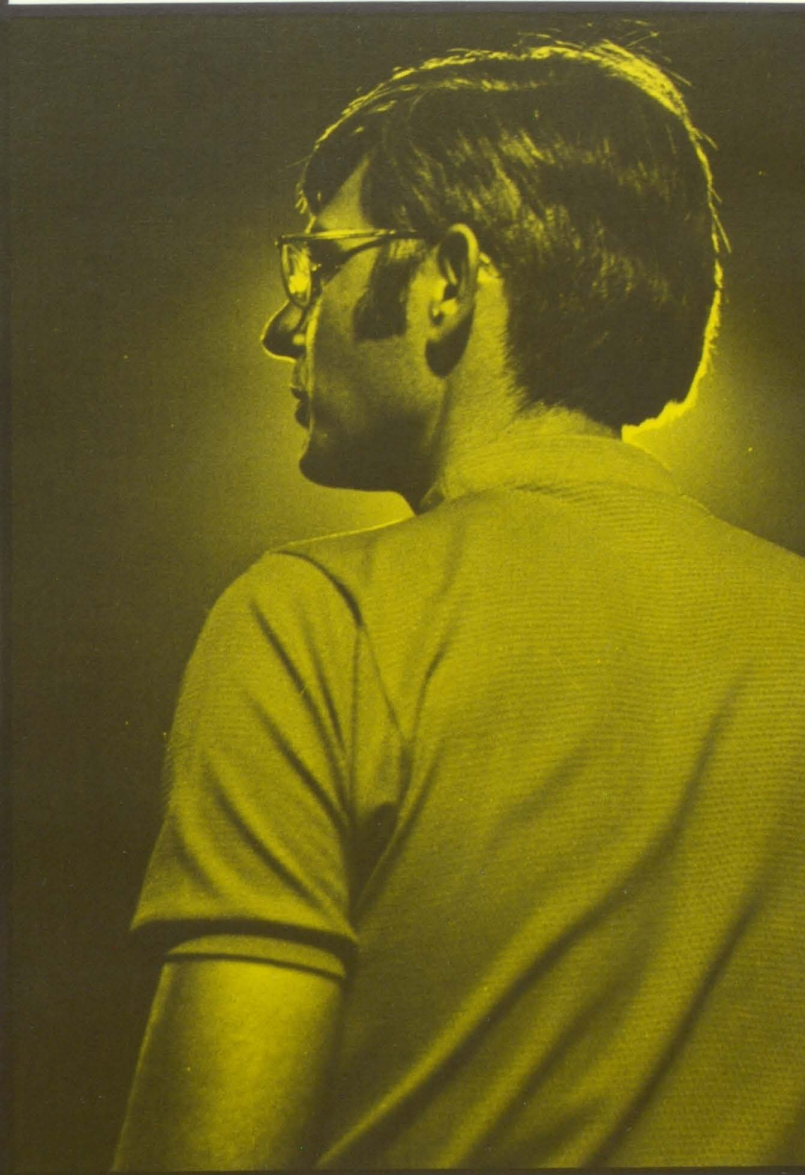

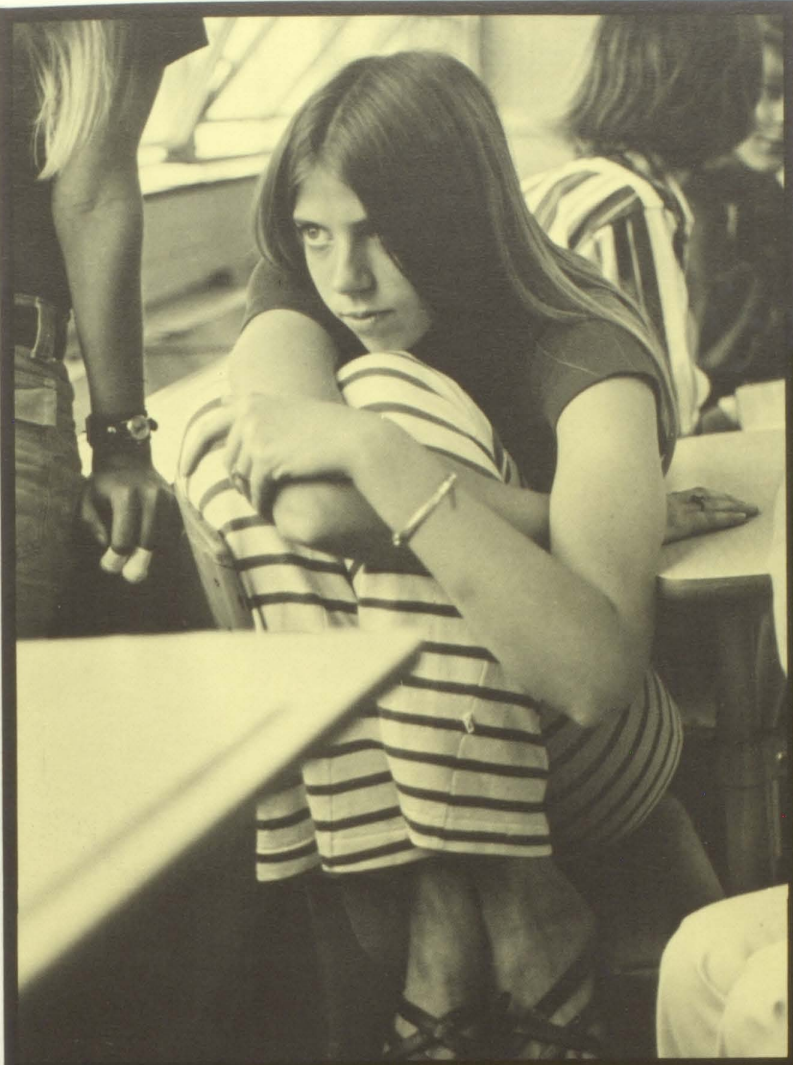

College Park, Georgia
Volume XI

We perform everyday of our lives.

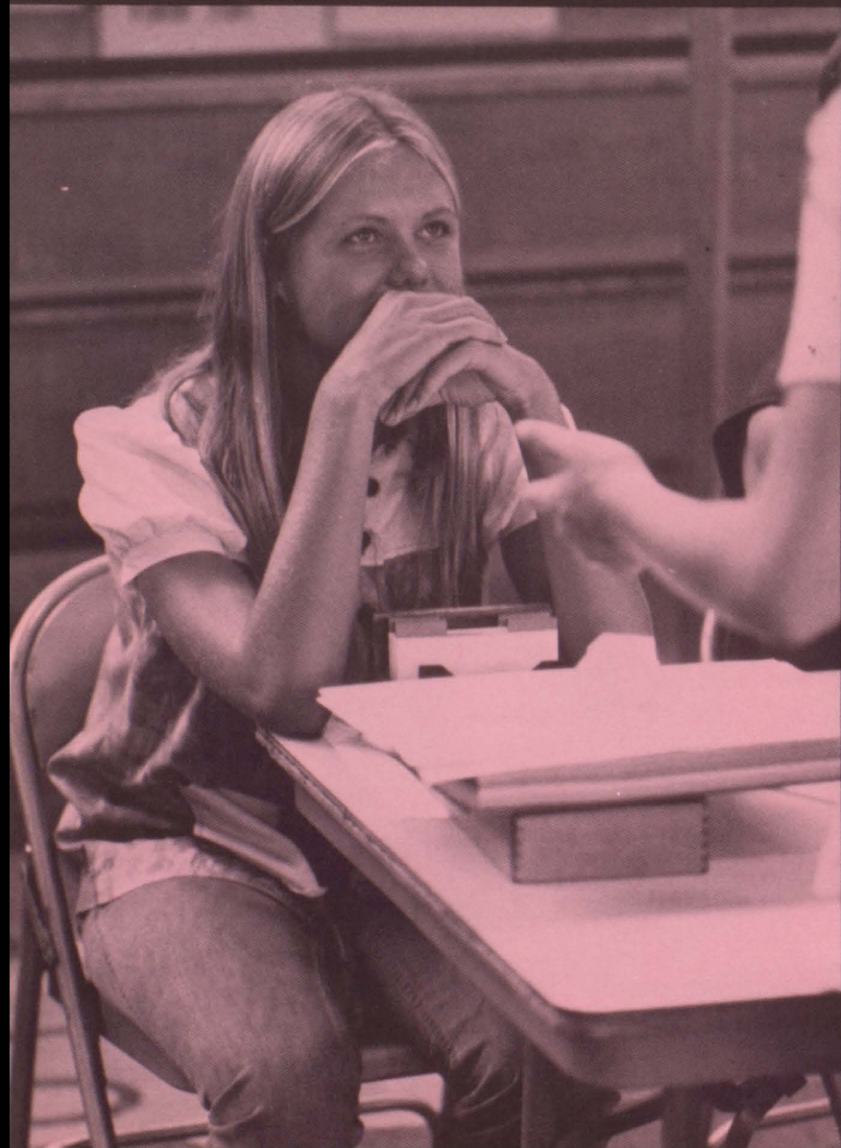

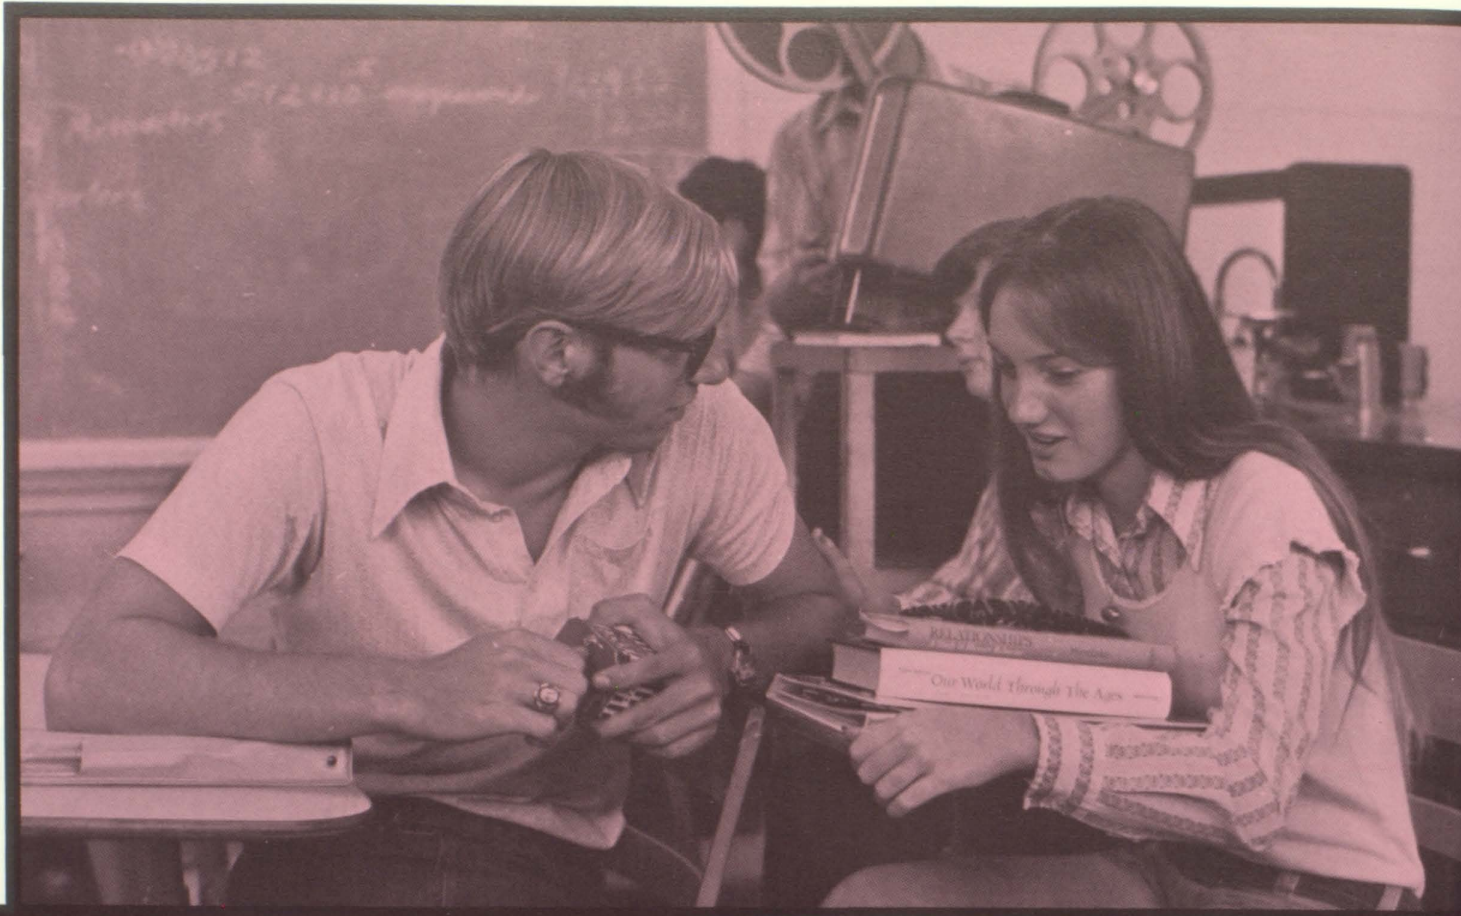

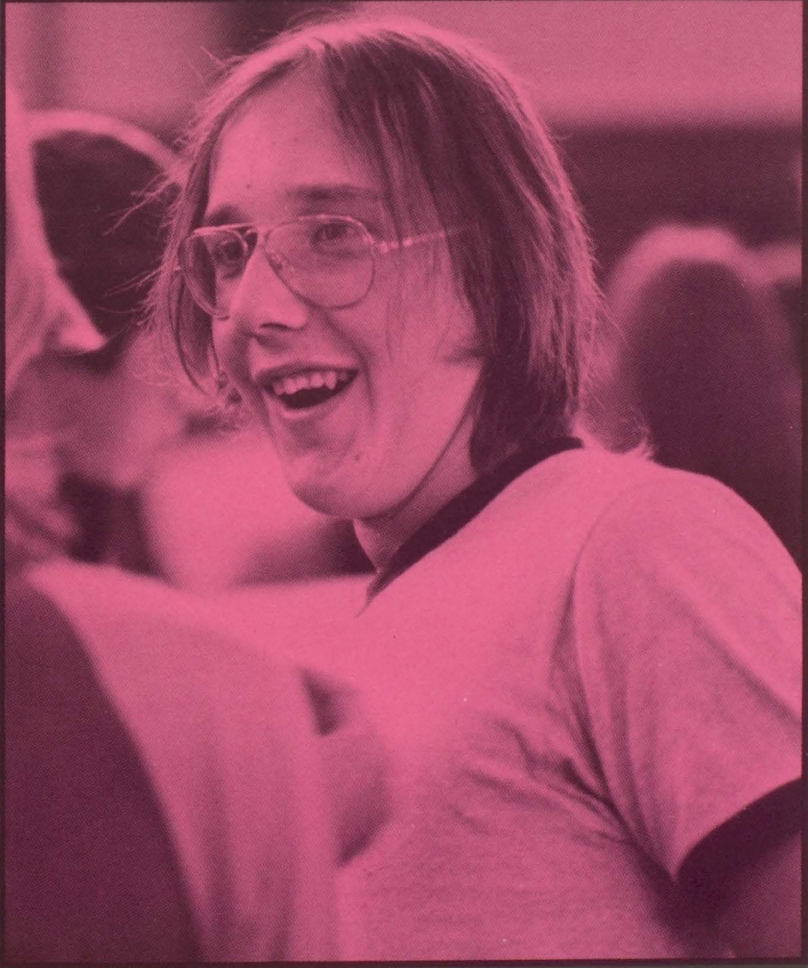

Sometimes we act alone . . .

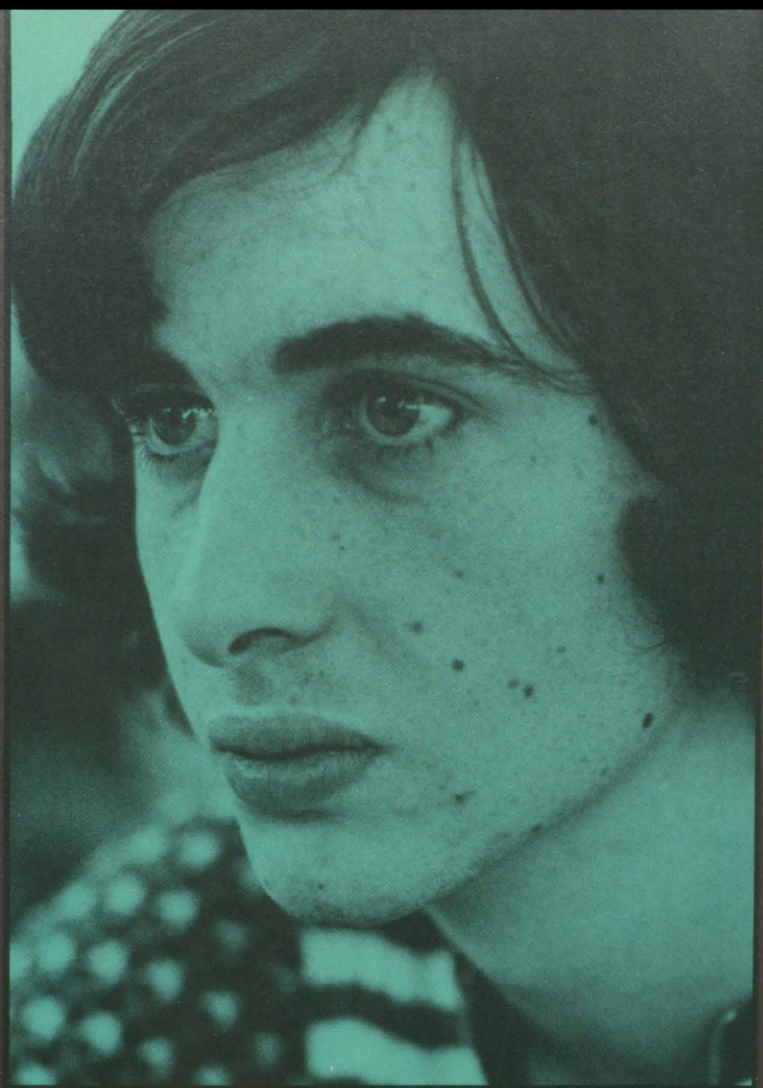

Often we perform together.

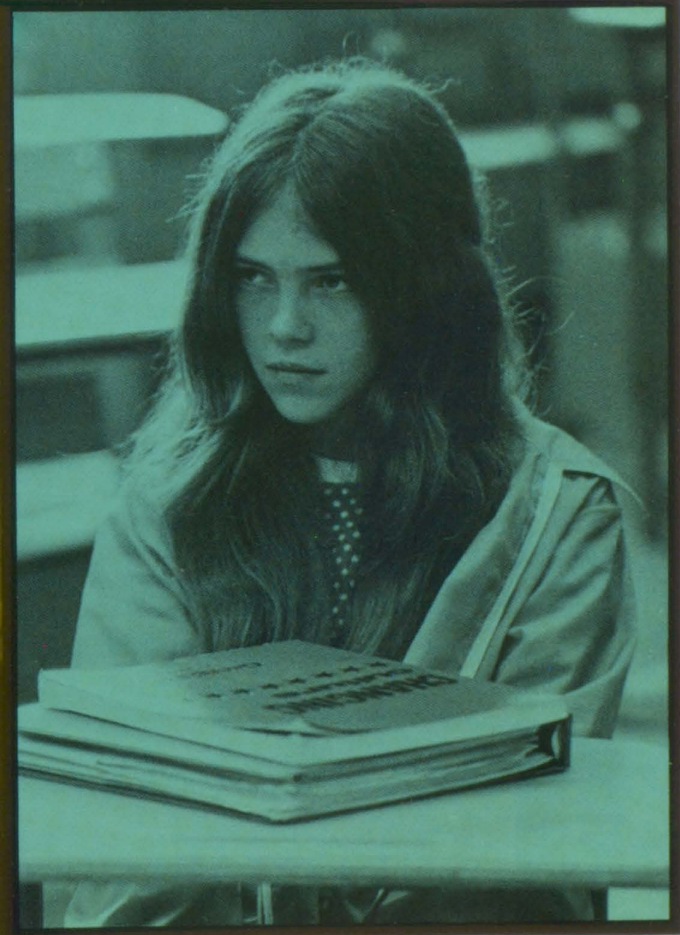

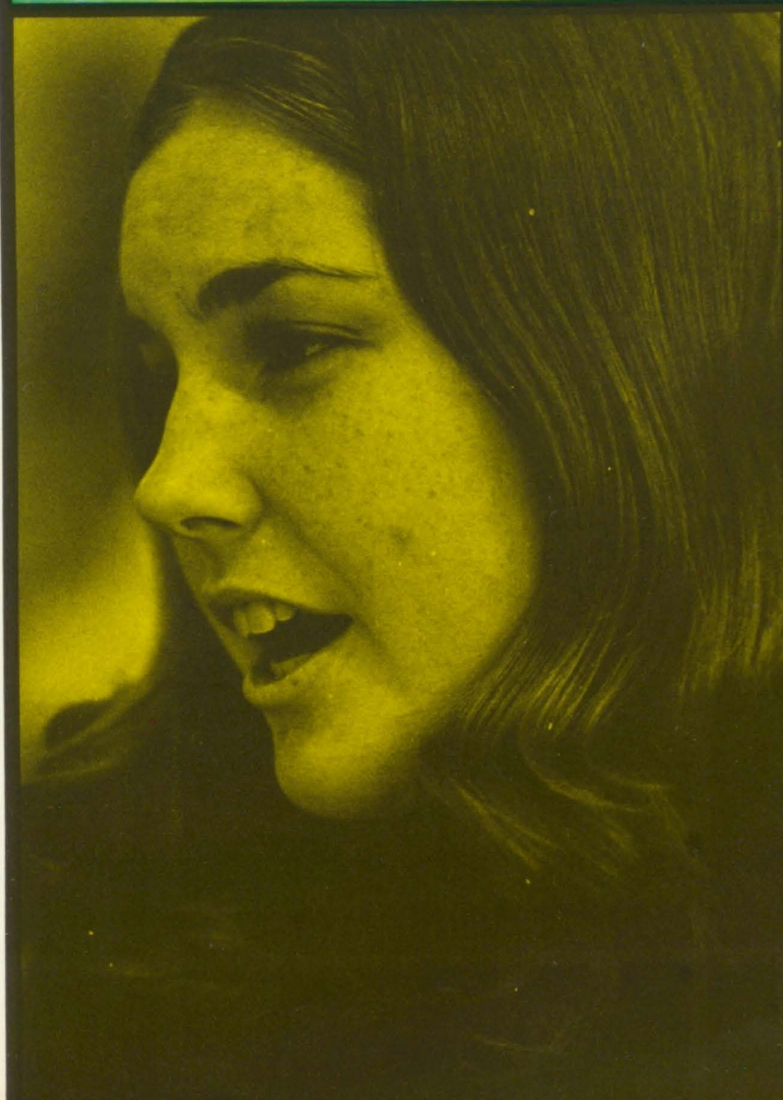

We show happiness in our faces . . .

We work upon our performances,

but behind the scenes . . .
we play ourselves.

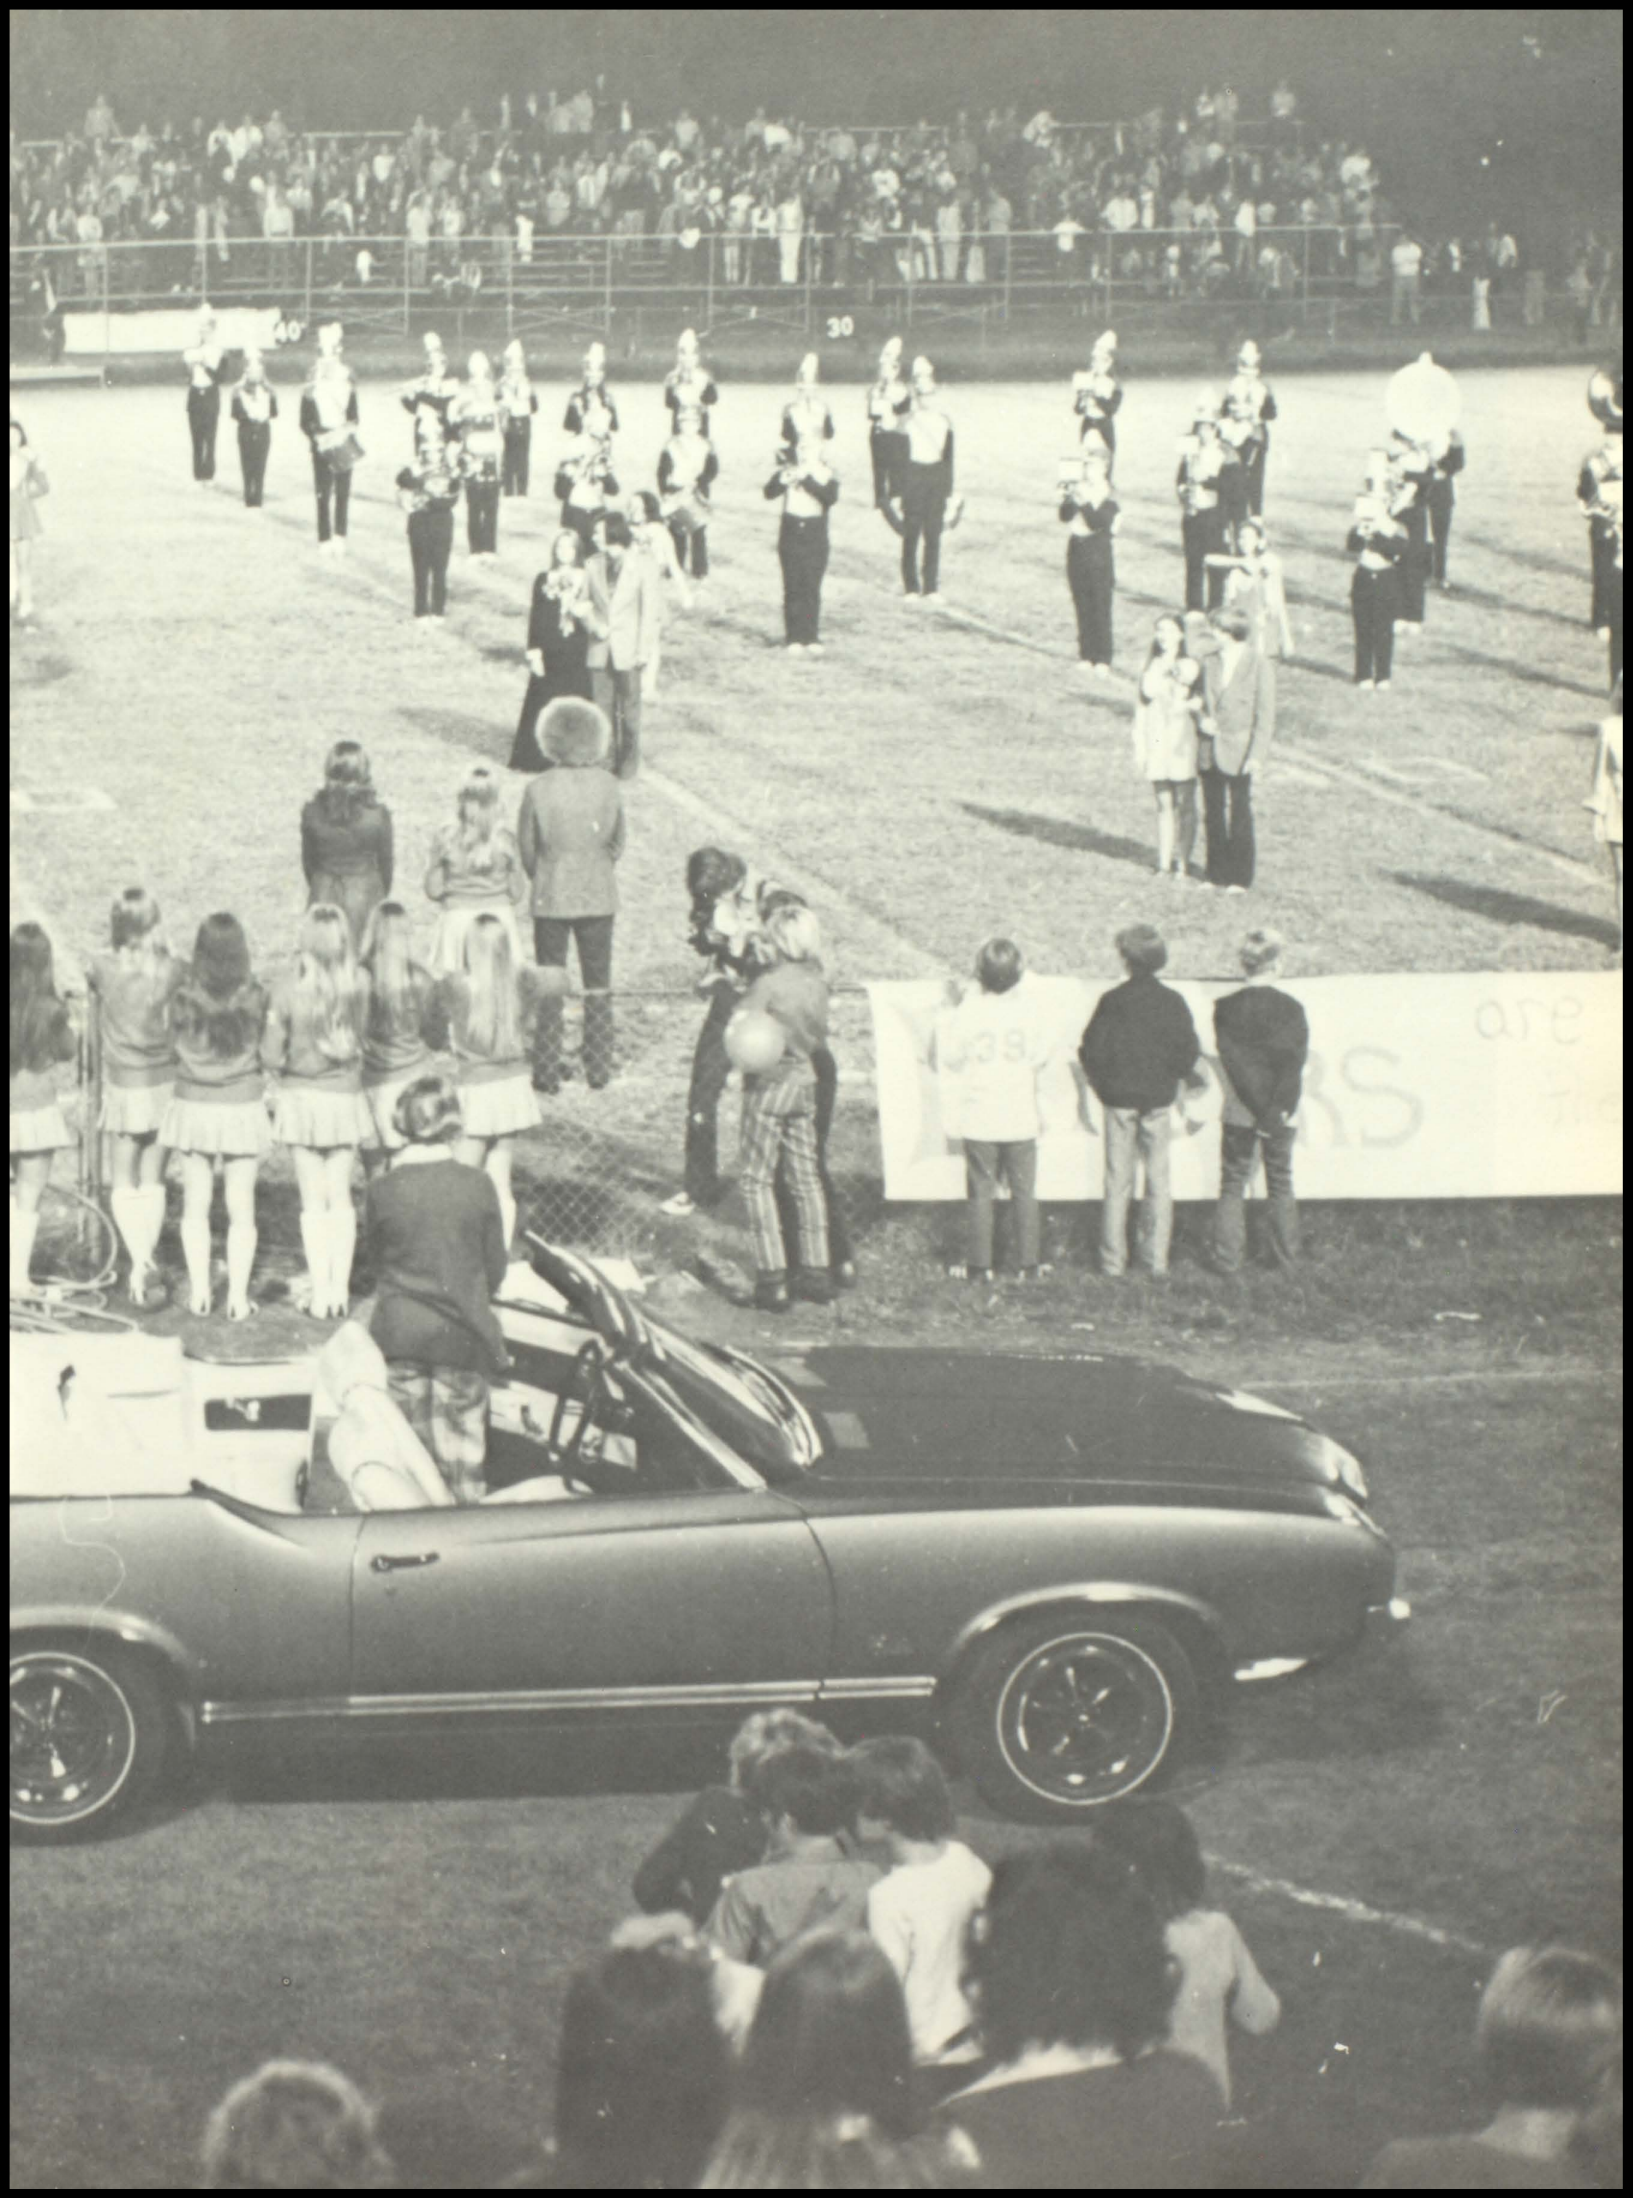

“All the world’s a stage,
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts.”

BOOSTER CLUB

Whether reading lines from Shakespeare ...
 "Double, double toil and trouble;
 Fire burn and cauldron bubble ..."

"Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow
 Creeps in this petty pace from day to day ..."

"Speak the speech, I pray you, as I pronounced it to you, trippingly on the tongue:"
 or verses from Milton ...

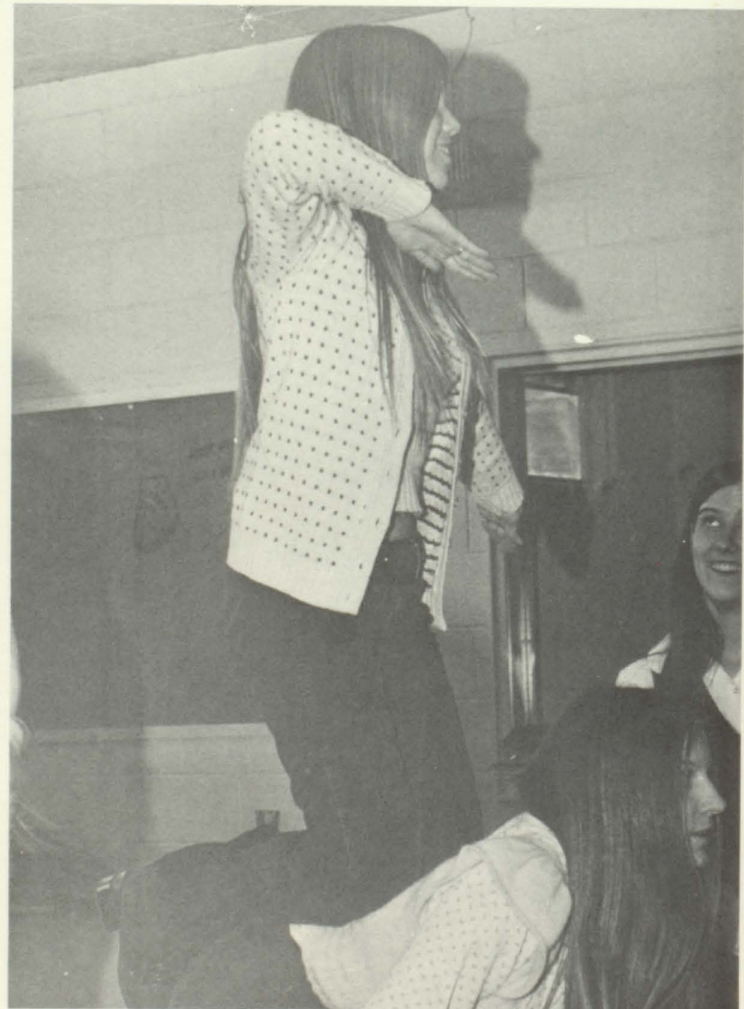

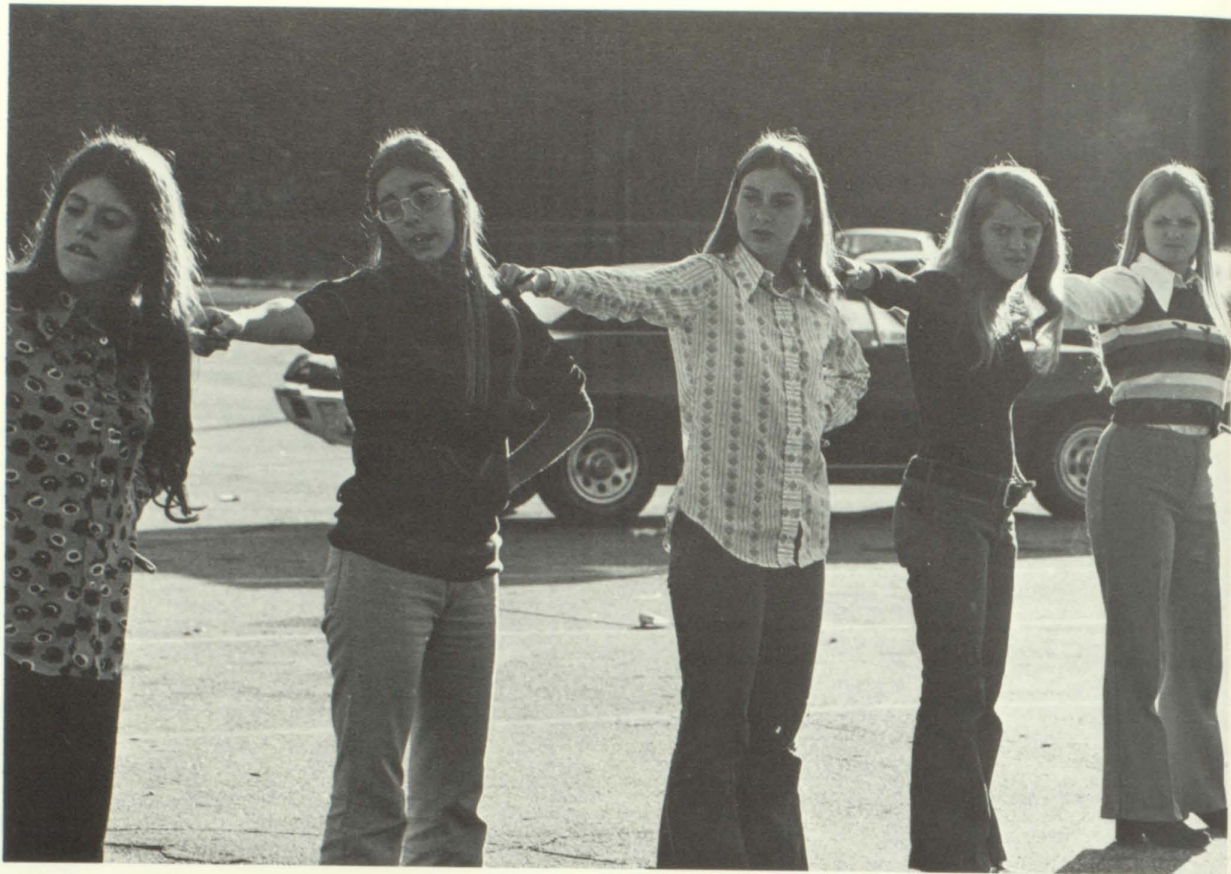

"So absolute she seems
 And in herself complete, so well to know
 Her own, that what she wills to do or say
 Seems wisest, virtuousest, discreetest, best ..."

or words from a Canterbury tale ...
 "Giving new weight to virtue by his speech,
 And gladly would he learn and gladly teach ..."

Mrs. Louise Carmack makes Ole England seem surprisingly real and ancient charcters strangely contemporary. A decade of Lancer students have been motivated by this master teacher to use the imagination and thus to gain clearer insight into the mind of man and ultimately into themselves. In appreciation, the 1973 ACCOLADE pays tribute to Mrs. Carmack for her dedication to Lakeshore and for her contribution to student lives.

A TRIBUTE

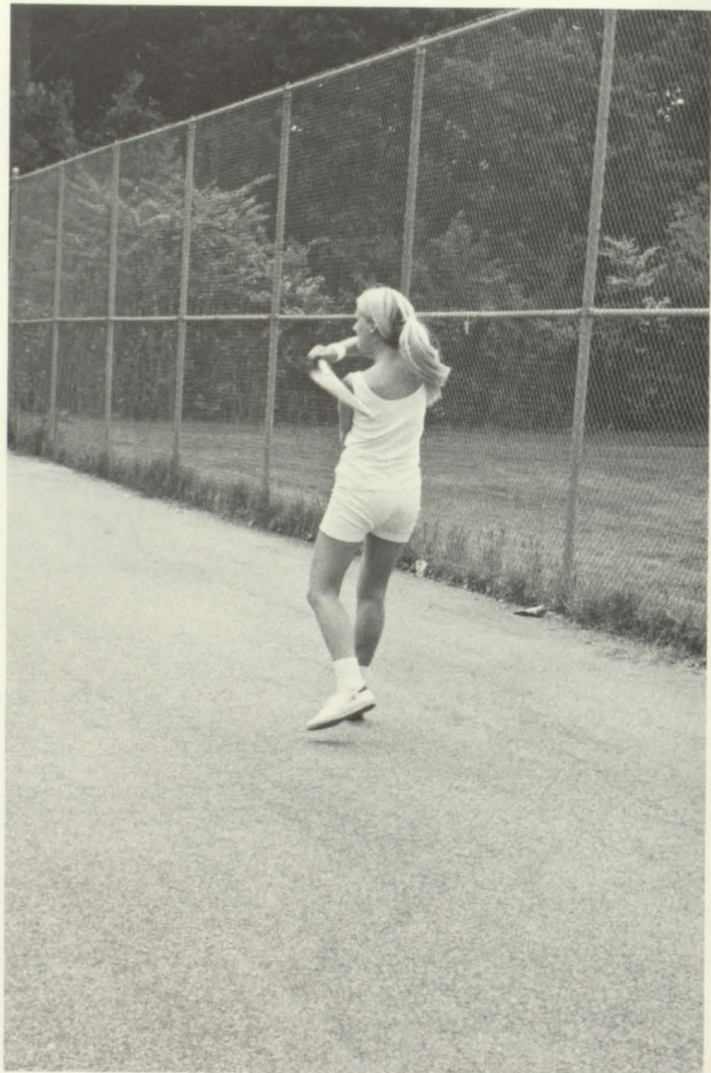

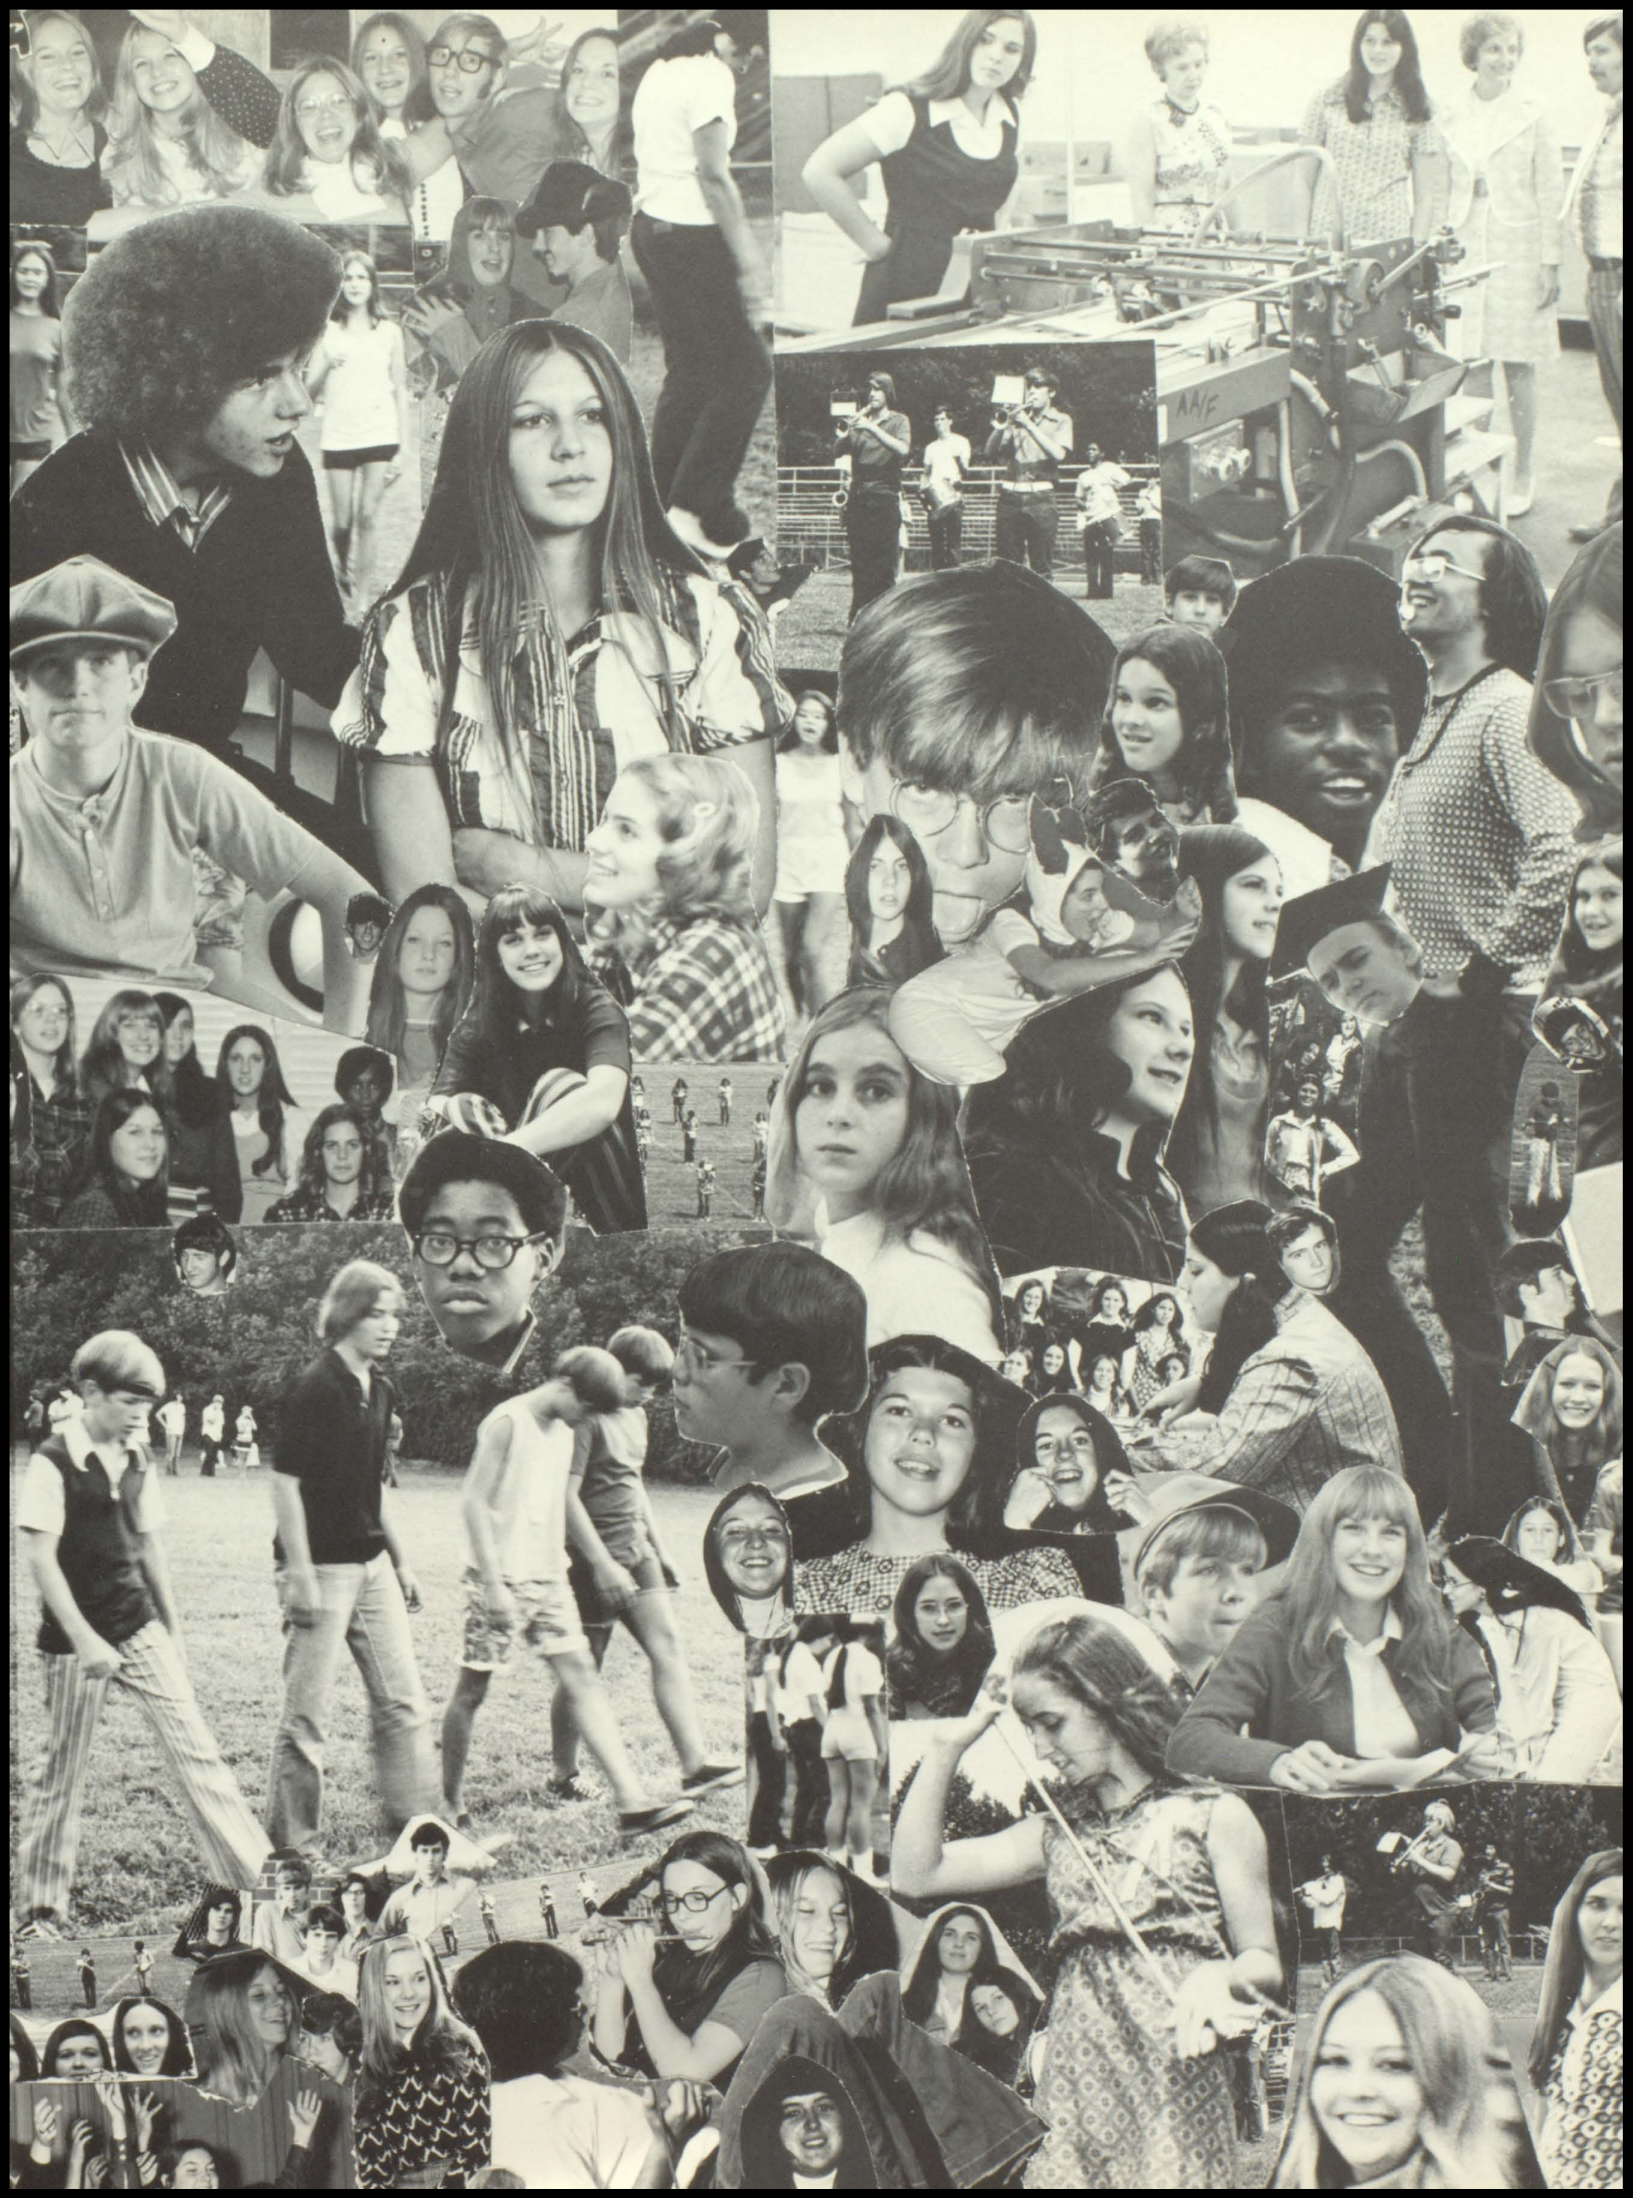

Rehearsal . . .
overcoming frustration
overlooking irritation
the effort, the willpower given
as an individual . . . as a team;
learning, correcting, improving
as an individual . . . as a team.

Rehearsal . . .
the realization that we are not living only in the highlight of a moment, but experiencing the elation of those accomplishments
made when no one else is there to see . . . to understand . . .

High school football is a remarkable experience. It not only tests the attitude and ability of a young man, but also his endurance and self-discipline. In two grueling weeks before school and ten or more weeks after school begins, thirty-one young men are dedicated to themselves, to each other, and to a promise.
The story of a promise . . .

Mrs. Gretchen Cole
Mrs. Katherine Creager
Mrs. Jo Ann Gwin

Dissecting a frog and maybe a cat ... experimenting in lab ... or simply learning from the text ... each process produced by the Lancer Cast is a learning adventure.

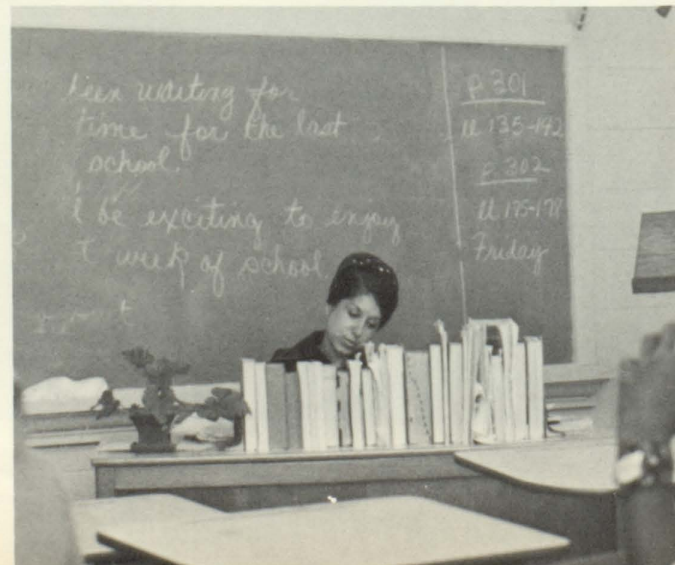

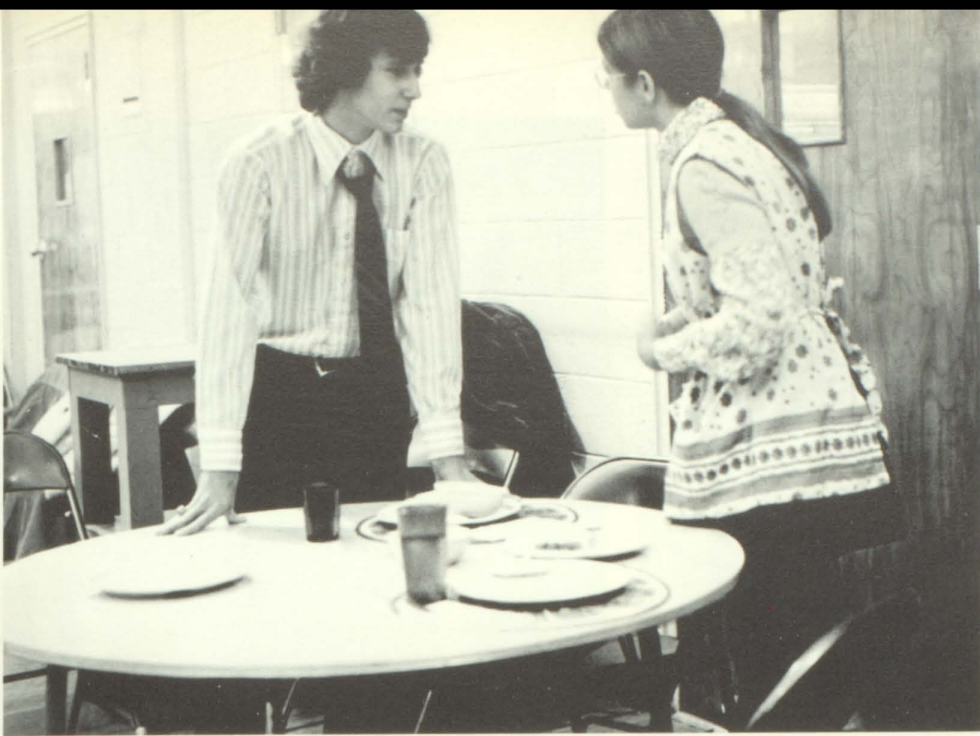

Written by:

Shakespeare, Shaw, O'Neill . . . great writers, but who is to say the words written by the cast of Lakeshore will not become the great works of tomorrow.

Mr. William Bailey
Mr. Ronnie Harbin

Mr. John Harden
Mrs. Joyce Moore
Mr. Allen Nichols
Miss Carole Stanford
Mrs. Barbara Warner

Engineered by:

Right angles? Cosines? Negative numbers? Ever have the feeling these concepts were invented to cause problems but not to answer them? Of course, every Lancer knows that a trapazoid is a . . . uh . . .

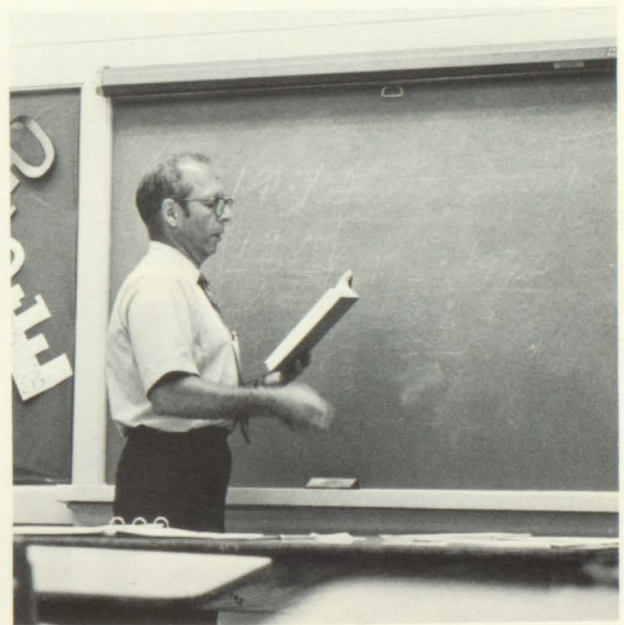

Miss Carol Hartz

Mrs. Charlcie Neal

Mr. David Newman

Mr. Paul Scheufler
Mr. Montgomery Smith
Mr. Alex Truitt

Those in the cast involved in costuming and catering are the creators of food and clothing and especially the developers of independence. Many Lancers come here for the pleasure of creative activities.

Special Effects by:

Executive

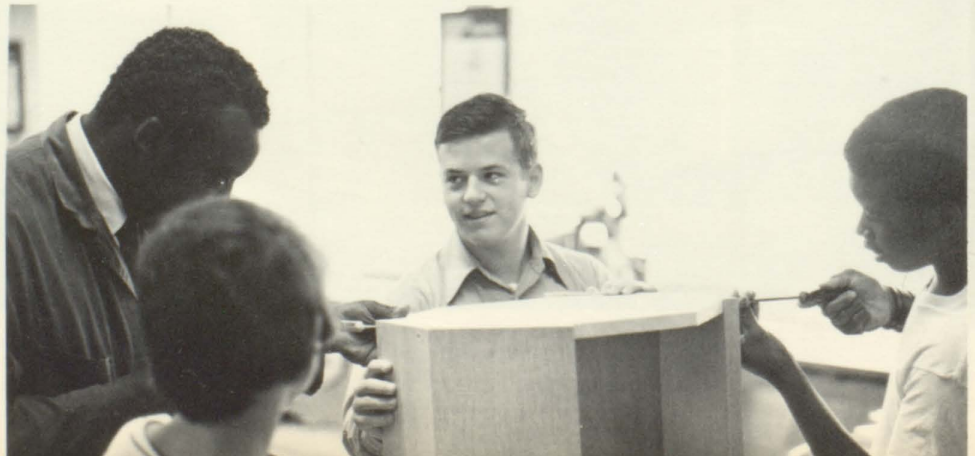

Mr. Charles Collins

Miss Sandra Hampton

Mr. Maurice Hefner

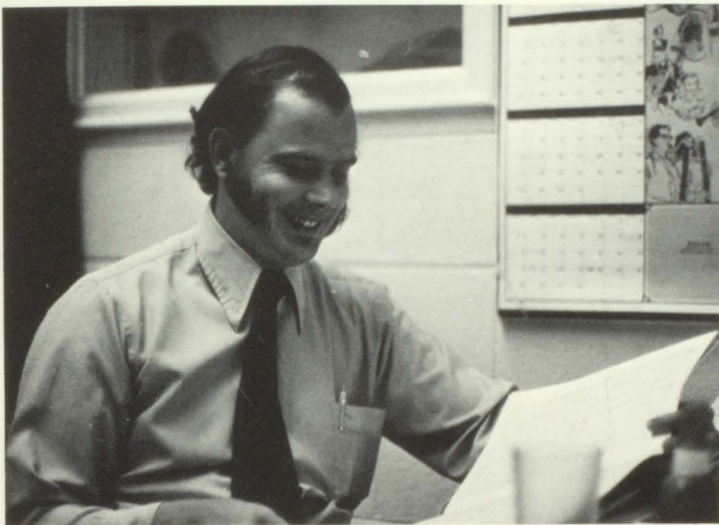

The ability to enjoy self-expression allows these Lancers to participate in many activities. Whether the activity is molding clay into a vase or conquering the intricacy of parallel parking, every Lancer can excel in Special Effects.

Come Saturday morning
I'm going away with my friend;
We'll Saturday spend till the end of the day.
Just I and my friend.
We'll travel for miles in our Saturday smiles,
And then we'll move on,
But we will remember long after Saturday's gone.

Come Saturday morning
I'm going away with my friend;
We'll Saturday laugh more than half of the day.
Just I and my friend
Dressed up in our rings and our Saturday things,
And then we'll move on,
But we will remember long after Saturday's gone.

Class Skits

First Place: Freshmen

Second Place: Juniors

Third Place: Sub-Freshmen

We have performed everyday of our lives.
Sometimes we have acted alone . . .
Often we have performed together.

We have shown happiness in our faces . . .
Sadness in our emotions.

We have worked upon our performances,
but behind the scenes . . .
we have ALWAYS played ourselves.

Thus ends the play . . .
Lakeshore High School 1973.
