The fabric of time is at best composed of intricate threads of experience. Within the embroidery of the fabric are interwoven our yesterdays, our todays and our not too distant tomorrows.

Too easily are these threads faded; unraveling their original design and losing their true prospective. The reasons are various: age, newly gained friends, new places . . .

July 15, 1992

Mrs. Mary Metger
1434 Bubbling Creek Road
Atlanta, GA

Dear Mrs. Metger,

It is hard to believe, but it has been 10 years since our graduation from Ridgeview. Several of us, who graduated in '82 have been working hard to locate our class and plan our reunion. Thus far, we have contacted most of our class and the response has been great.

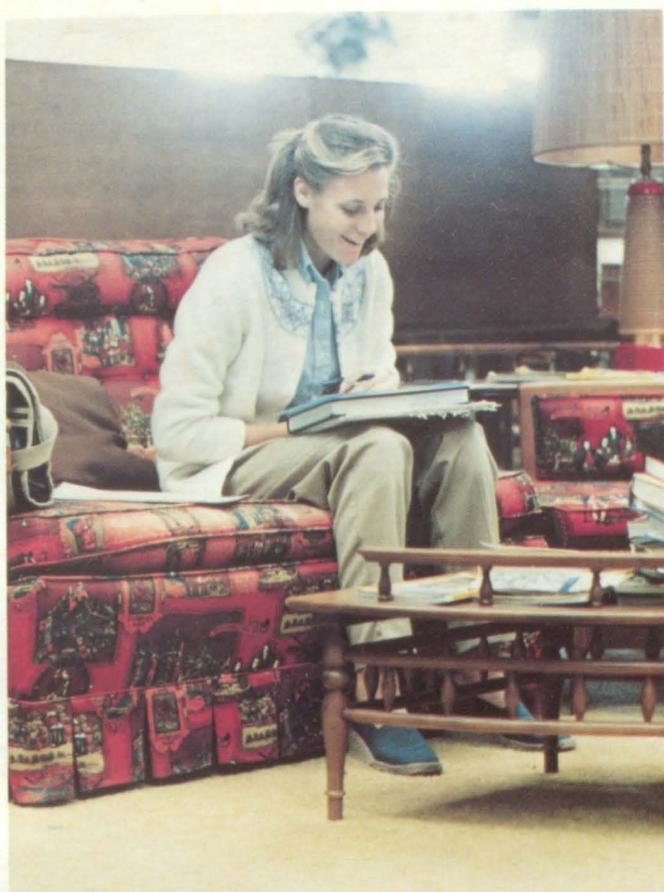

We would like to extend to you and your spouse / or guest an invitation to attend our reunion. It is Saturday, August 1st at the Atlanta Botanical Gardens. If you would like to come at 6:30 for a reception (cash bar) and hors d'oeuvres the cost is $20 per person. Otherwise the program and festivities will begin at 8:00 p.m. and it will be free of charge.

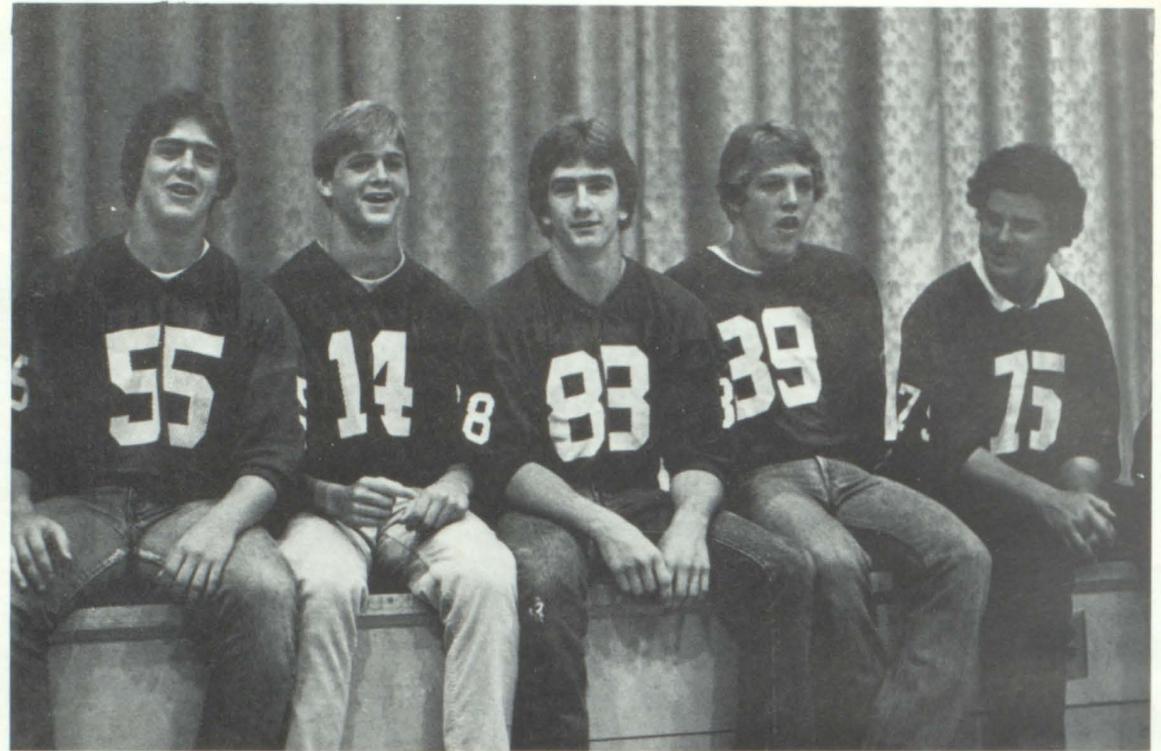

We are expecting a large turnout, so please make your plans to attend. Please R.S.V.P. by Wednesday, July 29th to Diane Demos Davis [898-8373 - work / 664-9734 - home]. We are look forward to seeing you on August 1st!!

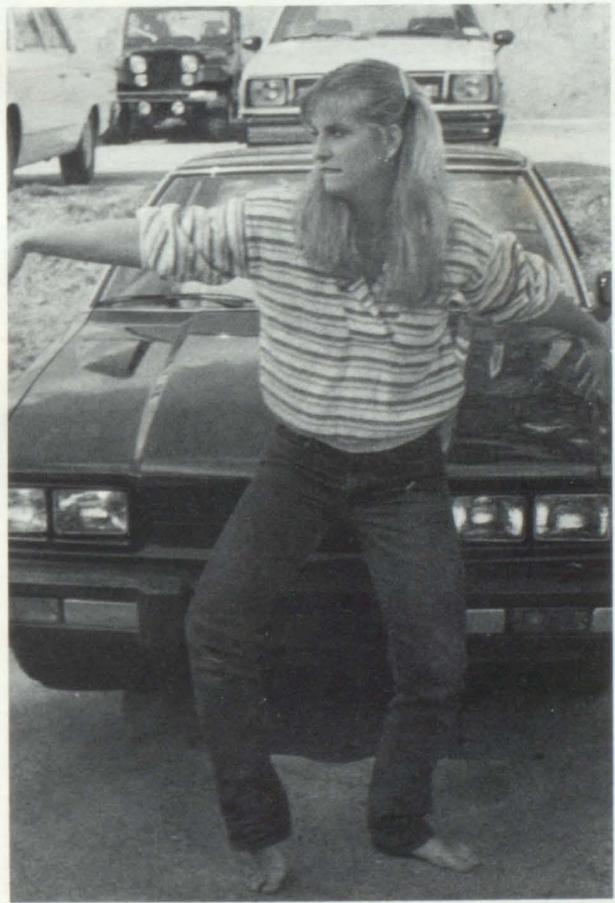

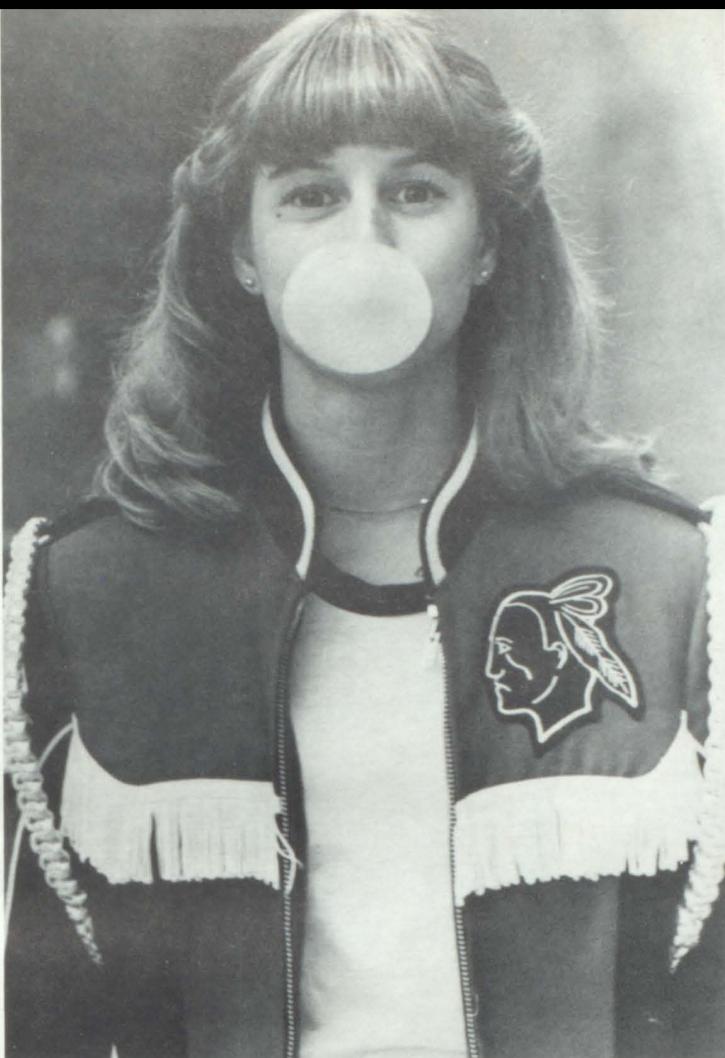

Sincerely,

The Reunion Committee

These reasons fray the intricate designs of experience so that we lose track of our todays and a not too distant future seems impossibly lost.

When we do not know our place within the fragile fabric of time and hesitate to take a step ahead, we look back to see where upon those trembling threads of experience we have been.

When we take that first glance backwards, we gaze upon a parade of human experience and emotion:

The joy of that first date walks hand in hand with the trauma of its inevitable break-up;

the fight for social acceptance parallels the struggles in the classroom;

the security one feels with friends is coupled somehow with the knowledge that someday, we all must grow-up and leave those friends behind.

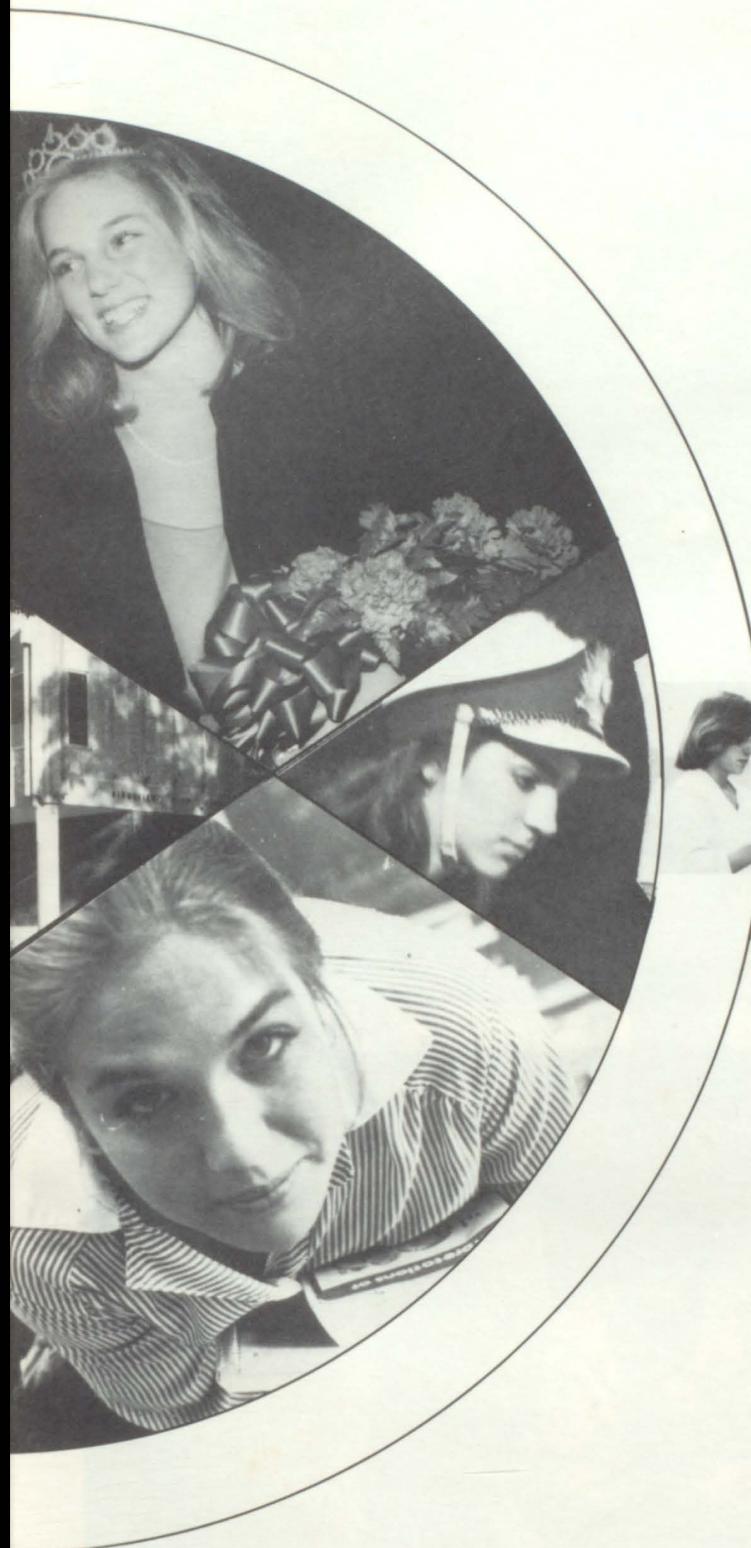

In gazing back, therefore, upon that fragile fabric of time, we are assailed by emotions at once bitter and sweet.

This is how we were: Each of us a unique pattern interwoven with others along the fabric of time. This is how we are: the pulse and heart-beat of time; the entities which breathe life into time and shape its motion. This is how we will be: molded by time, our special place in its vast design and what we carry with us thru that pattern. This is life.

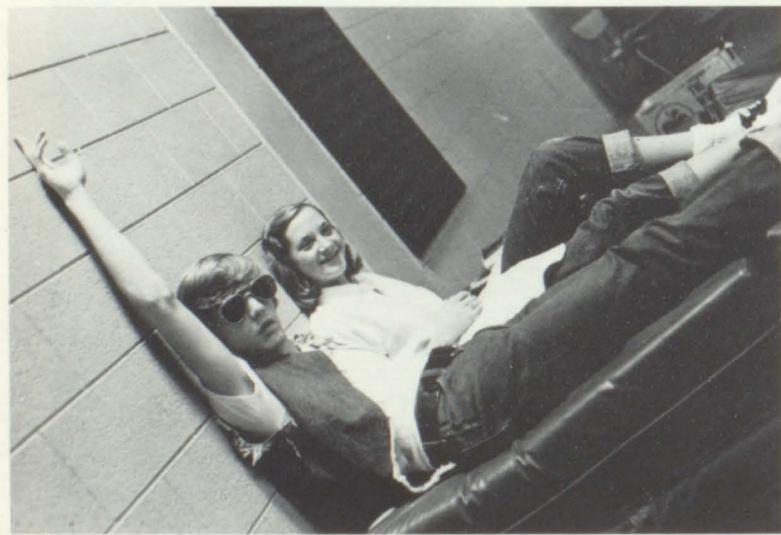

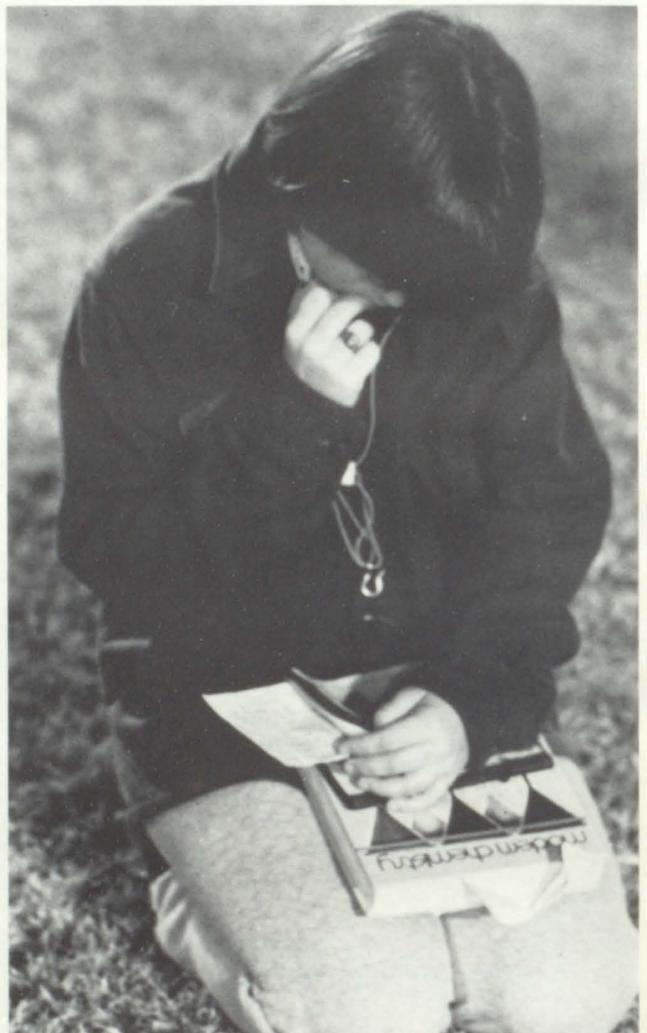

"The discriminating palate prefers an outside lunch anyday."

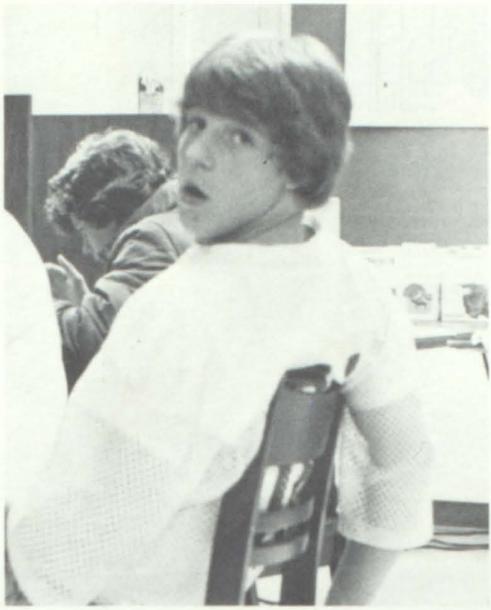

"Look — no more cracks about the little white hat — okay?"

"Some people still don't think I hold this wall up!"

"Gee . . . did he say mark time or march at letter A?"

"Maybe things would've been better for me if I had learned to read."

"Oooh . . . that guy has got to be the cutest person in the school!"

"Just hand over your lunch money peacefully — we don't want to get rough, see?"

"It says: Too little sun will make you pale."

"Oh! So that's where babies come from!!"

"Actually I'd prefer contacts . . .!"

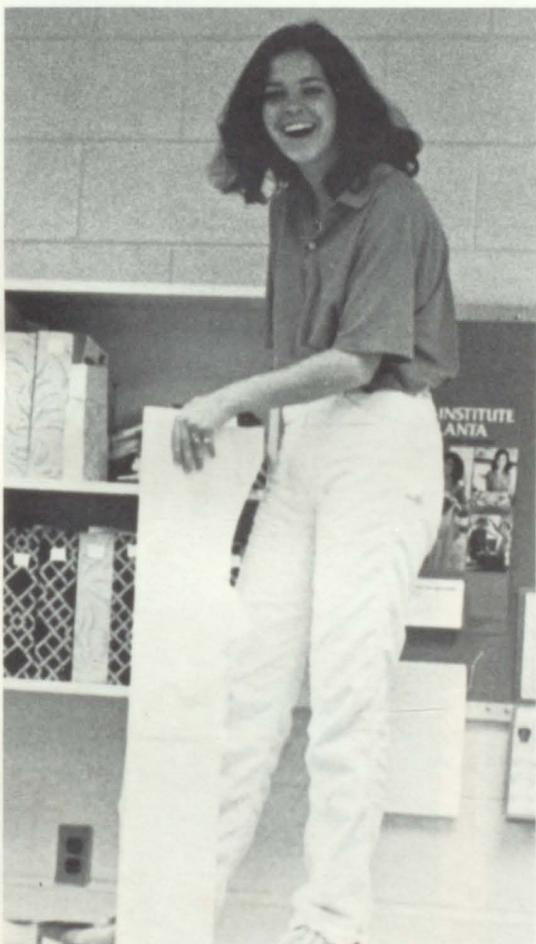

"Okay! Okay! I promise no more spitballs!"

"Aw — don't take it so bad — everybody loses their popcorn some time!"
30-STUDENT LIFE

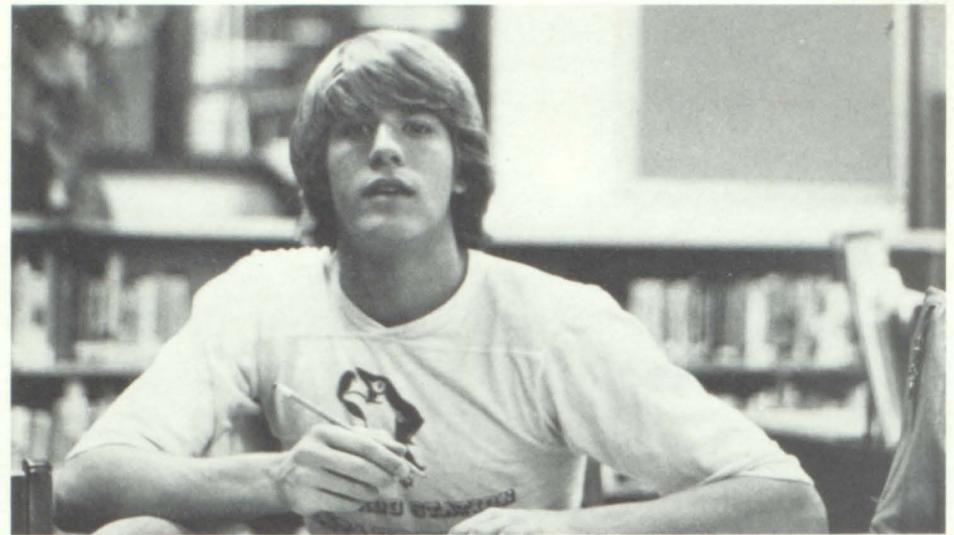

"Ha-ha! If only the poor fool knew what I put in his popcorn!"

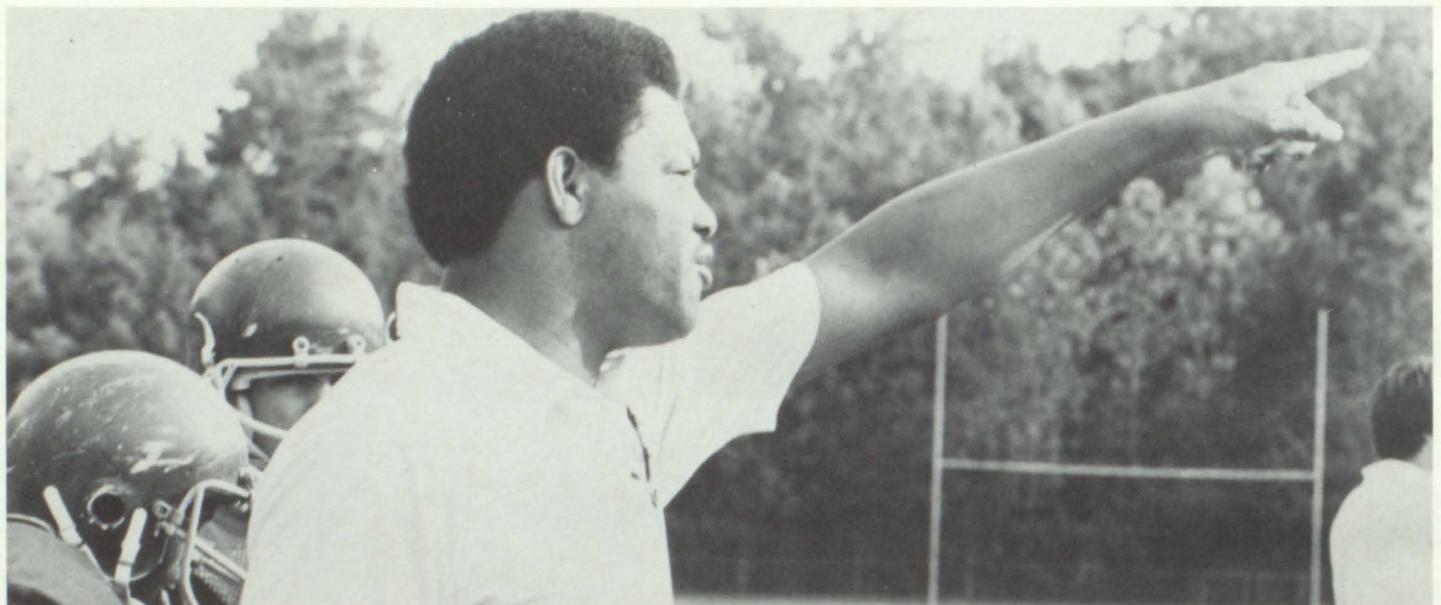

"I swear — I just gave it a little tug and . . . well . . ."

"Hmmm . . . if I play my cards right, I might get my picture in this book!"

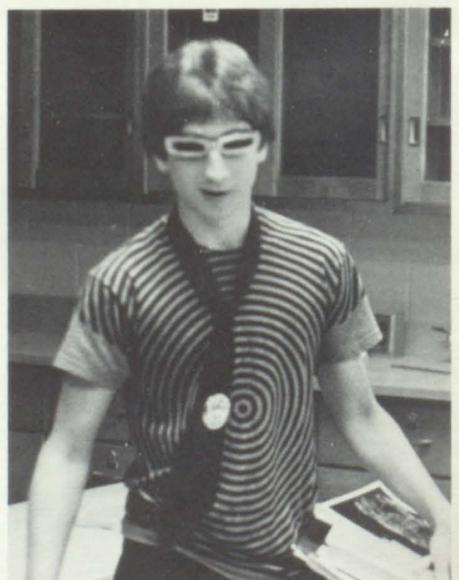

"Did I hear someone say they needed a date this Friday???"

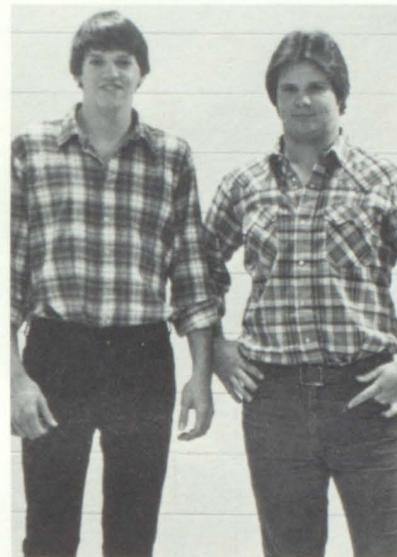

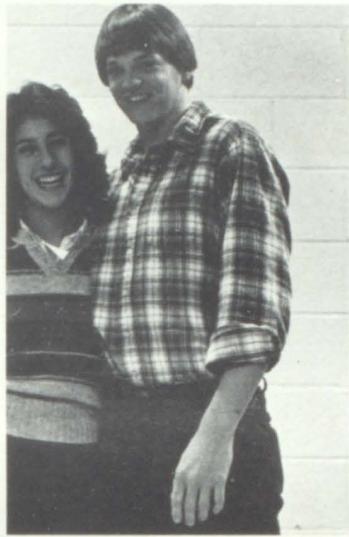

"No Junior! Run the other way! The other way!!!"

"Yep, someday my prince will come!"

"Excuse me . . . is this planet taken?"

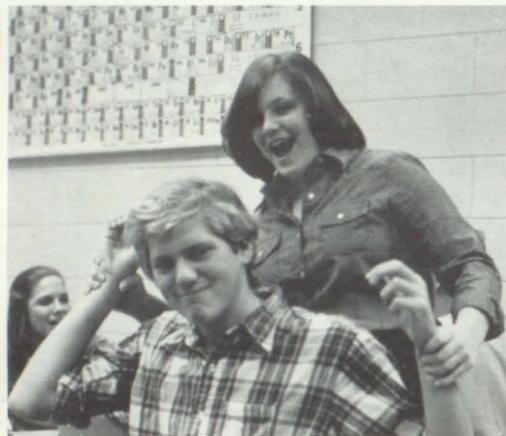

"That's right! My friend here should get a lot of presents for Christmas. She's been a good girl all year!"

"Awwwww . . . who said you had to have music to dance?"

"What! Cheating Again?"

"Mmmmmmm . . . another yummy lunch!"

"Whudduya mean I can't have recess like the other kids???"

"What'd she say about me?"

"I don't know . . . maybe the purple and orange clash . . . "

"I wish she'd pass back the tests! The suspense is killing me!"

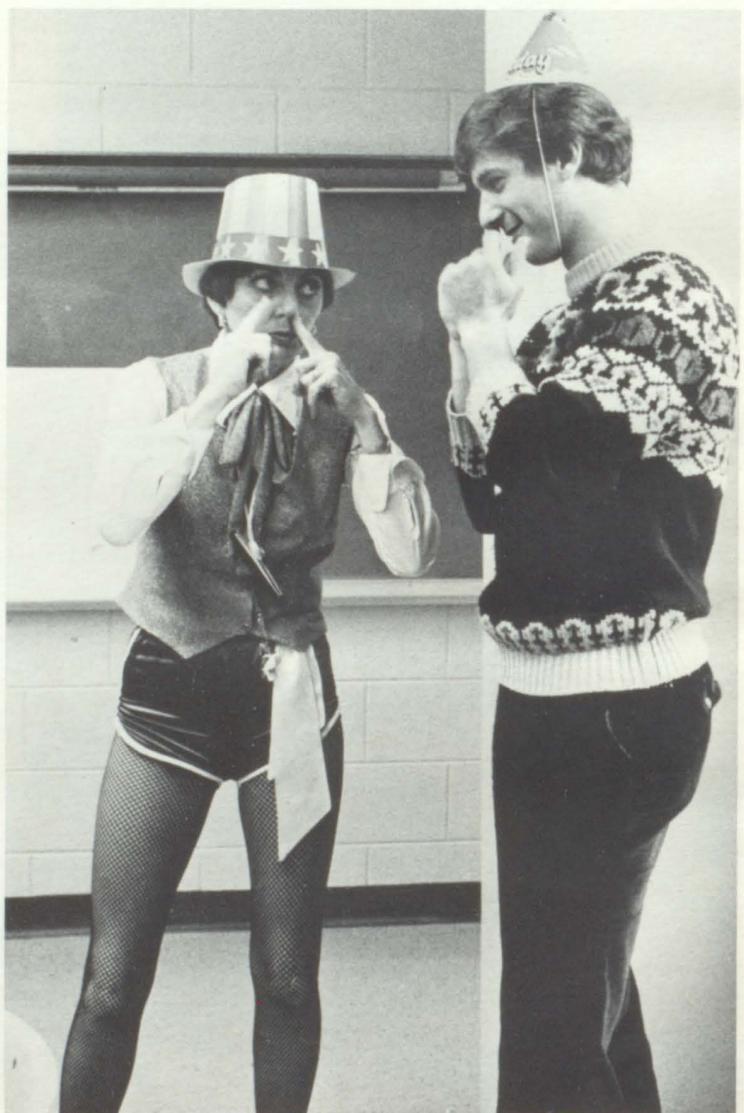

"It always helps to show proper respect to your teacher".

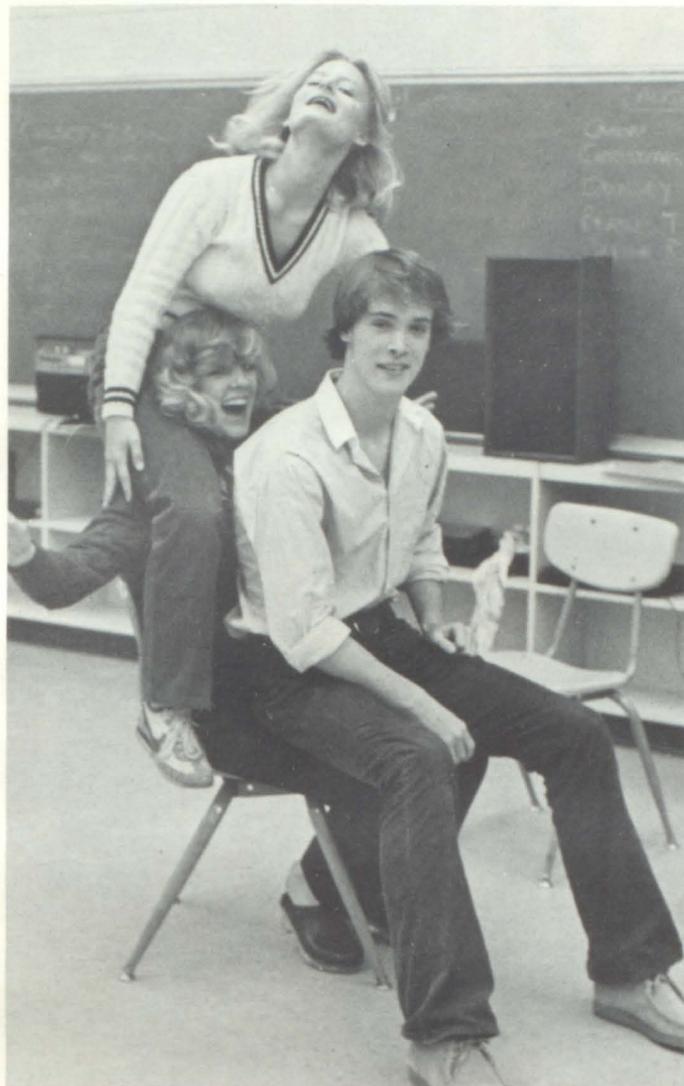

"uh-oh . . . I think she found the frog in her coffee . . . "

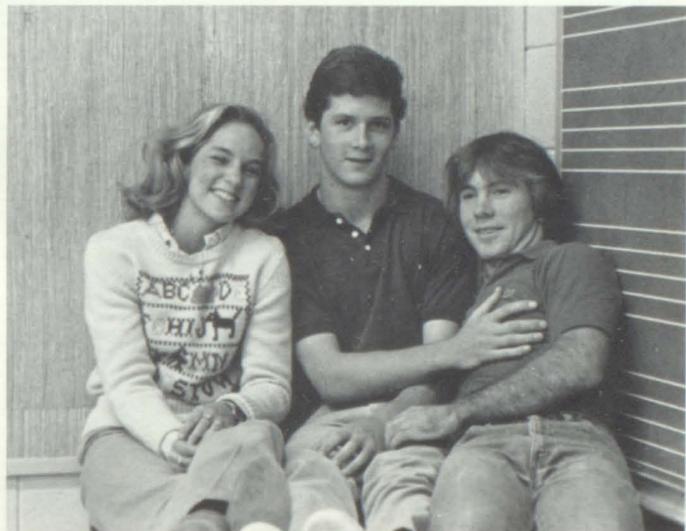

"You're doing fine Neil . . . just remember . . . keep in step and don't wipe that smile off your face - or you've had it!"

"Actually, it works better with a Kleenex."

"Wait! I think I'm picking up Mexico City!"

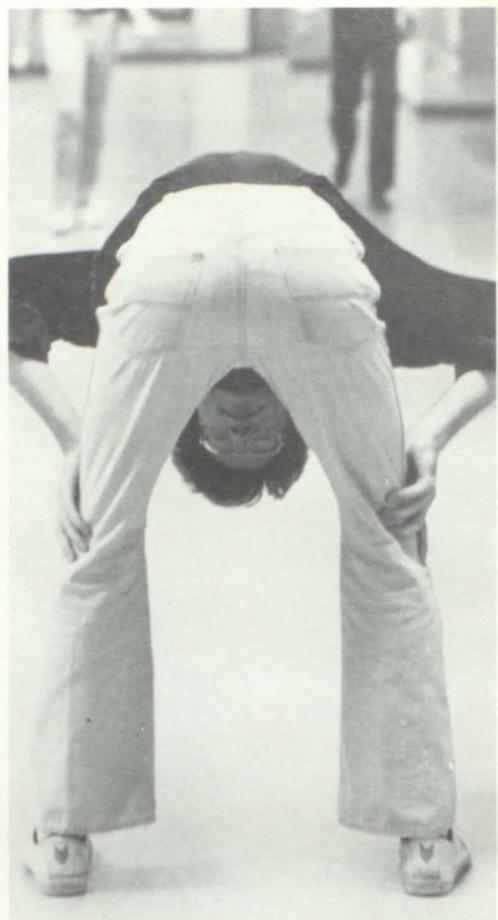

"Down boy . . . the dame's with me!"

" . . . and I'm not coming back either!"

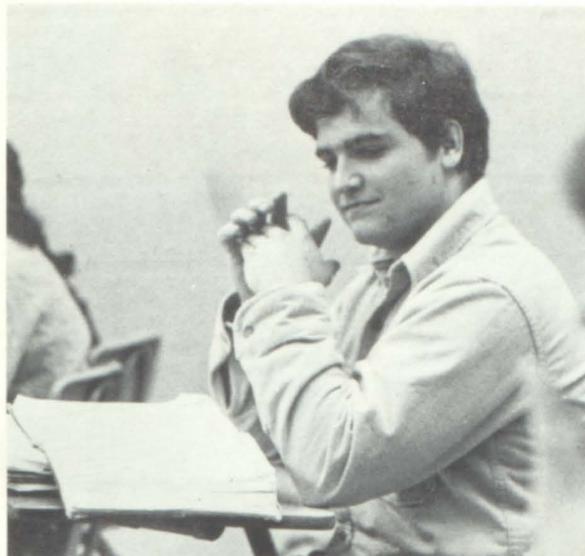

"It's lonely being the only solitaire hopscotch player in the world!"

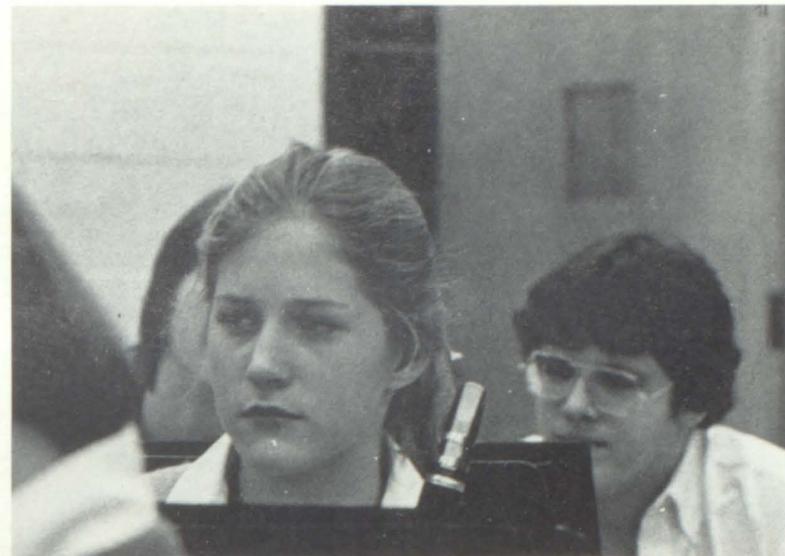

"Imagine how he'll feel when he finds out he took the box of marching boots instead of fruit!"

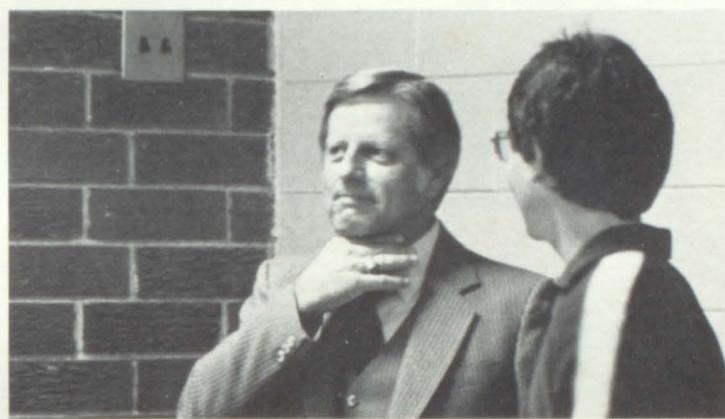

"Hey . . . maybe I did leave the oven on!"

"If he misses one more note I think I'll scream . . . "

". . . and I've had it up to here with false fire alarms!"

"If these 'ol halls could only talk!"

"Then again, if I don't become a corporate lawyer, I could always go into show biz!"

"Yep . . . I'd say you smashed that 'ol spider pretty good!"

Learning by osmosis

"Who invited YOU into this conversation?"

"I thought you girls couldn't wear things like THAT!"

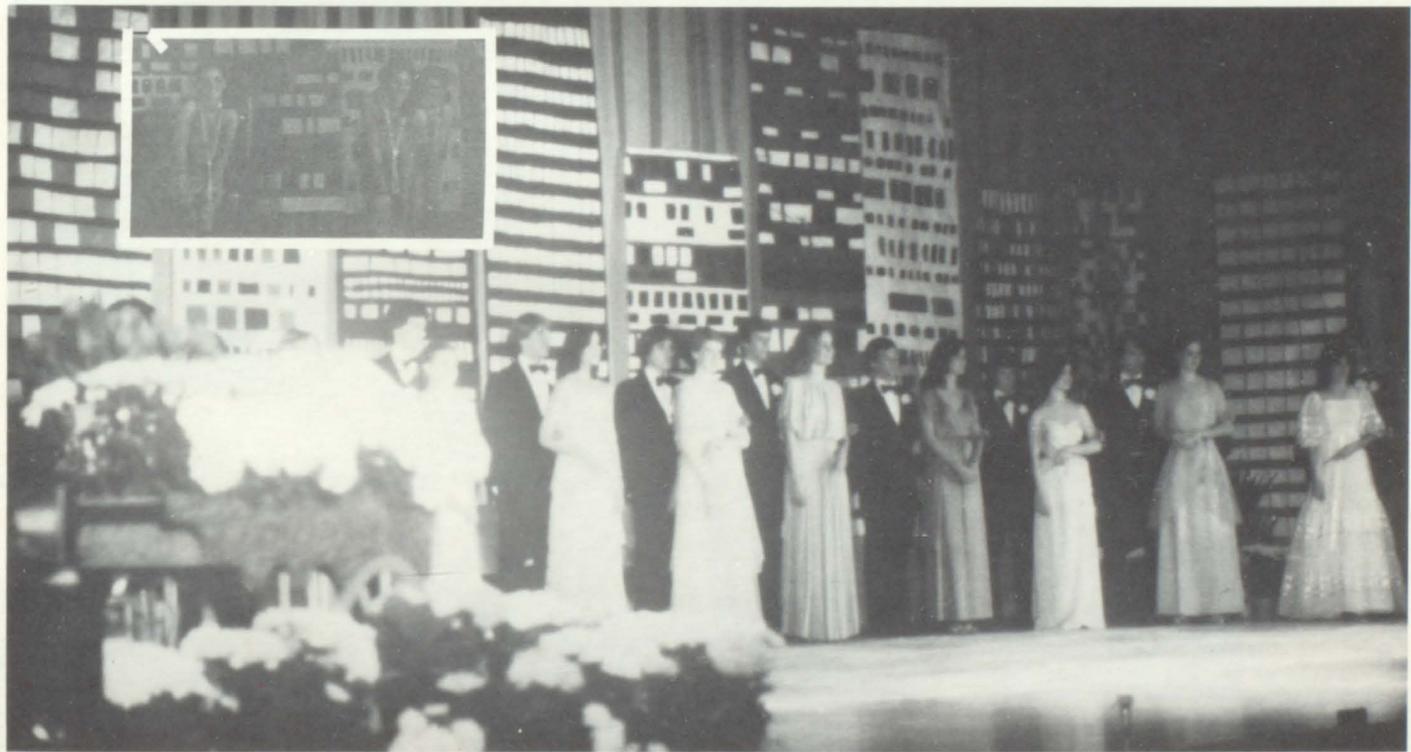

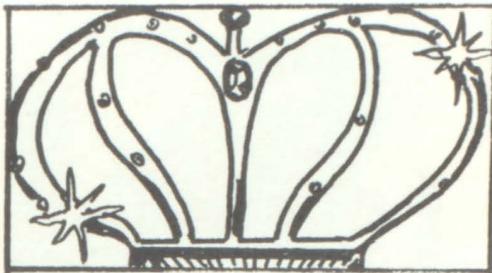

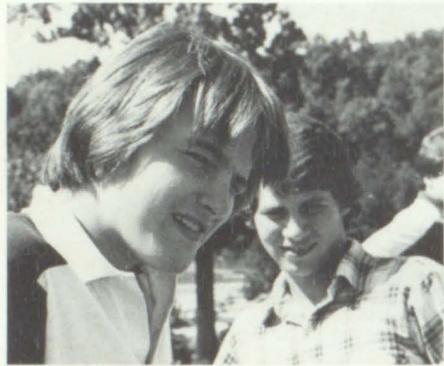

"How many days until Friday?"

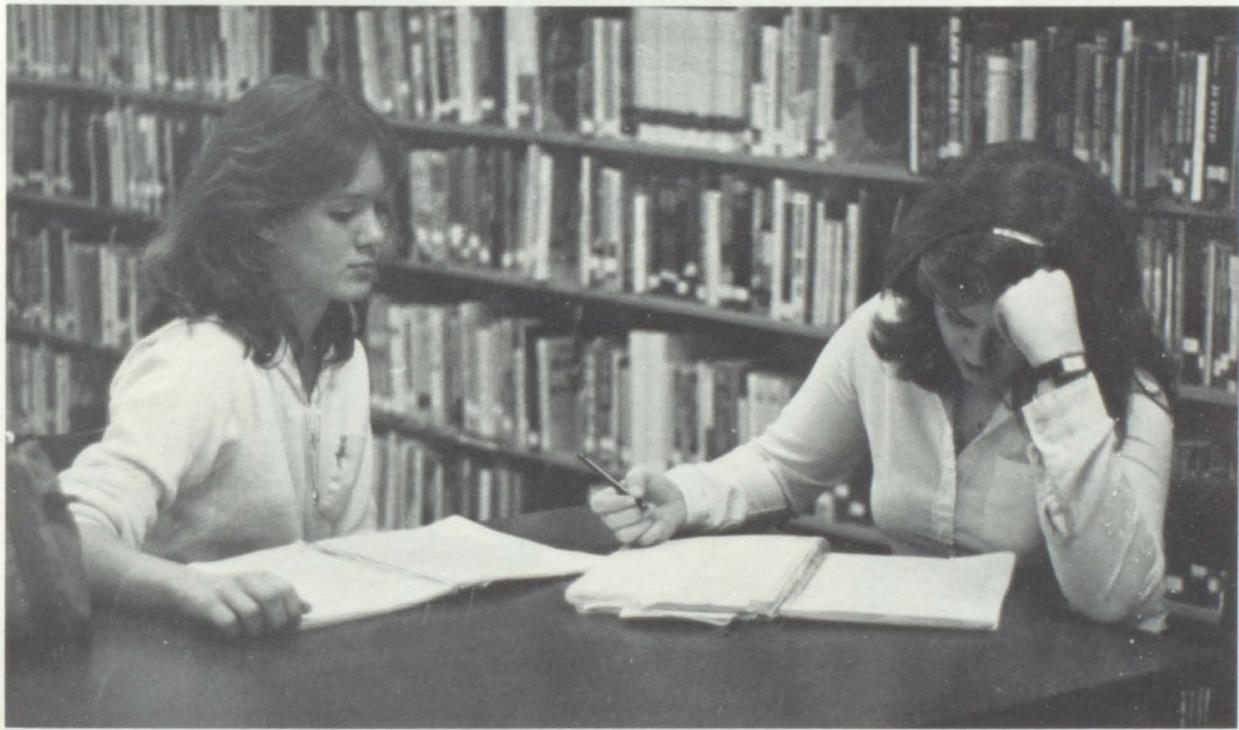

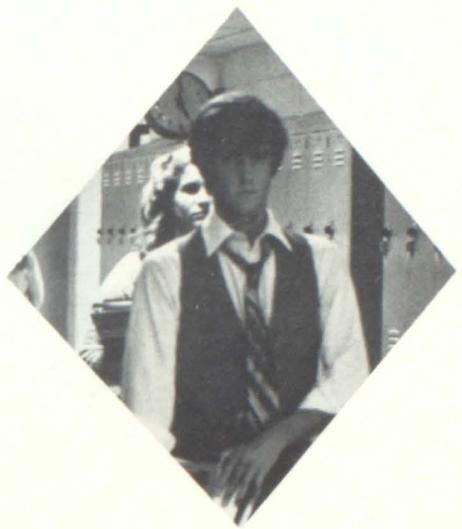

"It was horrible! For a minute there I thought he was going to ask me out!"

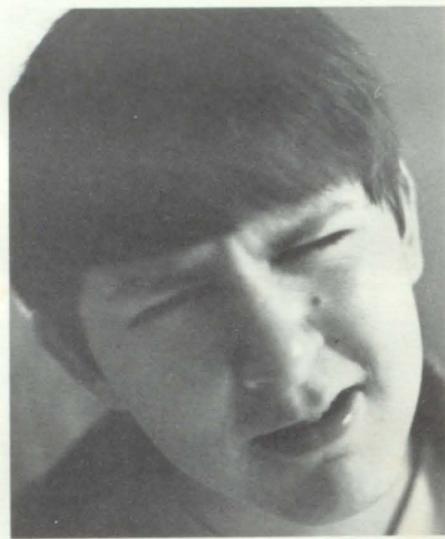

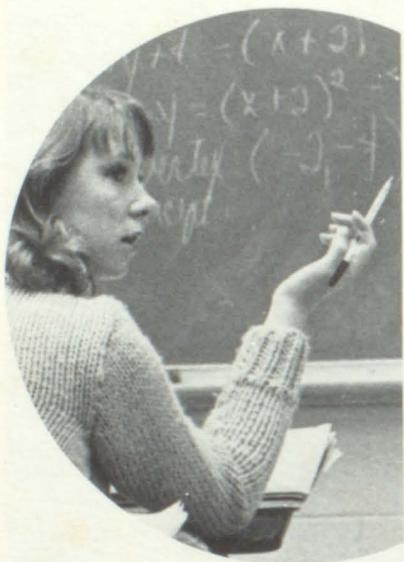

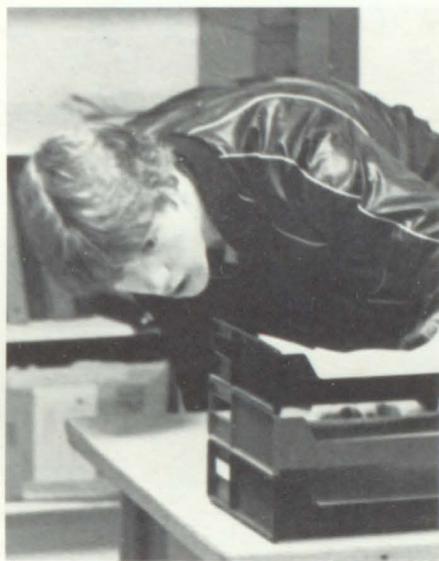

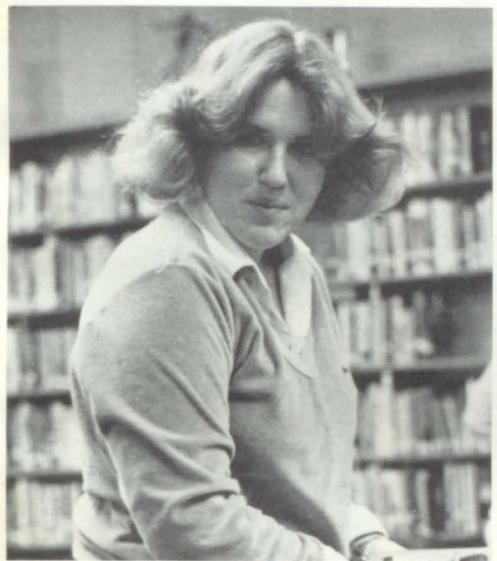

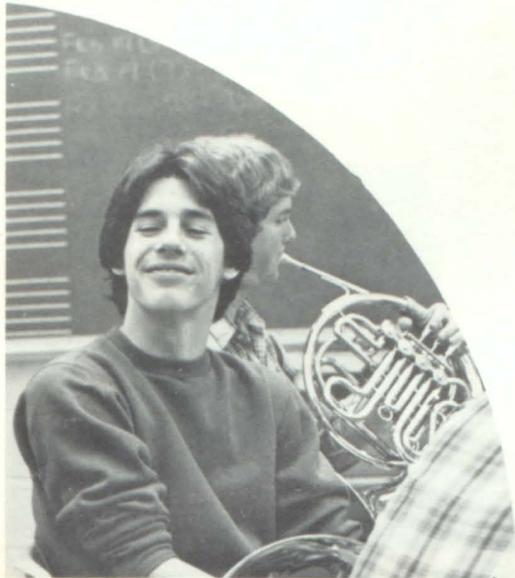

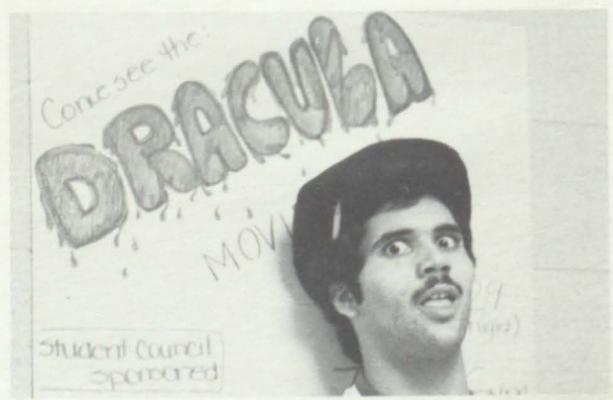

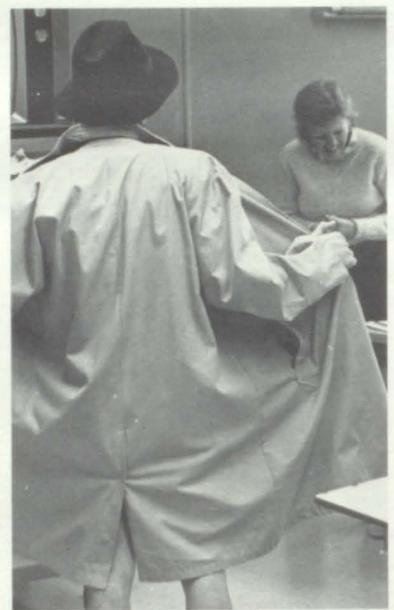

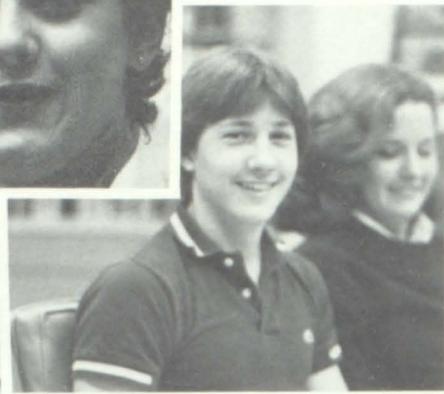

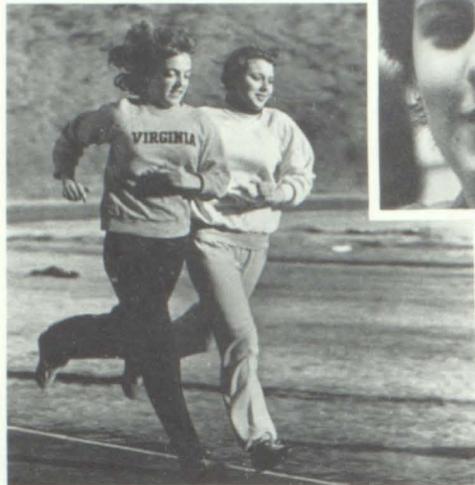

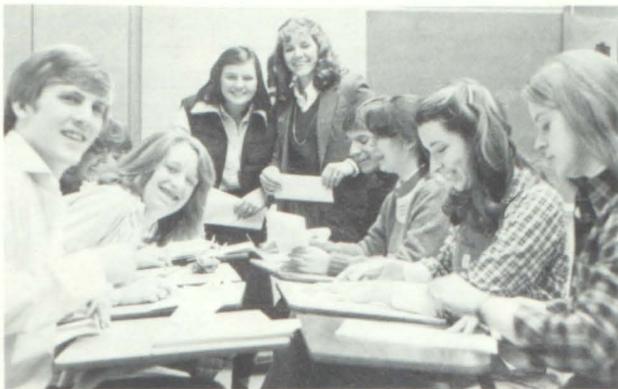

The years we spend within the walls of Ridgeview are important. They are the years we spend getting to know other people and getting to know ourselves. They are the years of decision and hope. Our lives lie open and inviting, full of the promise of a brighter tomorrow.

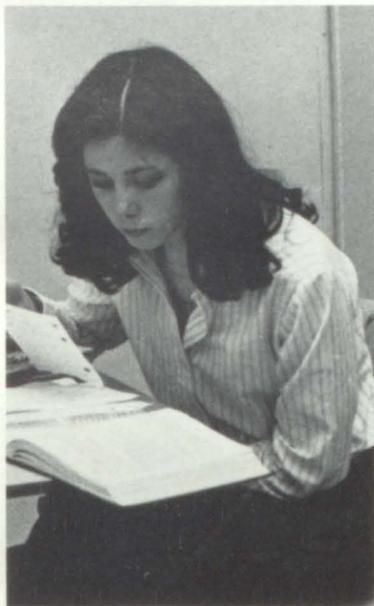

The years we spend at Ridgeview form us; mold our thoughts and ideas.

Reagan Takes Office As President Calls For Era Of National Renewal

Americans Arrive Safely in Germany

By Andrew Alexander
International Correspondent

FRANKFURT — Fifty-two U.S. citizens flew across the Atlantic Ocean early this morning Wednesday to an all-American welcome that those 524 Americans will never forget. After being held captive by Iranian revolutionaries who planned to release them Saturday, the men and women had been waiting for 44 days, learning the 52 Americans from all WASHINGTON — President Ronald Reagan came to "an era of national renewal" and "a new beginning" in his first speech to Congress, both a Republican movement and a call for a "new era of national renewal." It was an impressive speech.

It was a grand old rally for conservatism. Page 1A

VARSITY

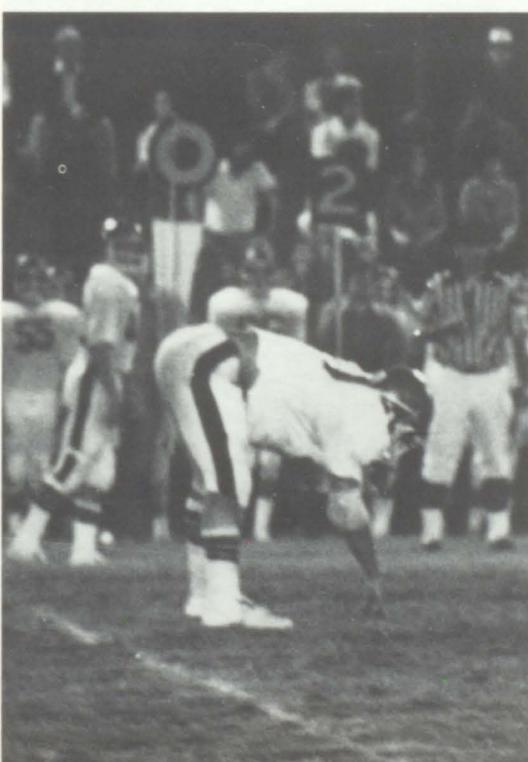

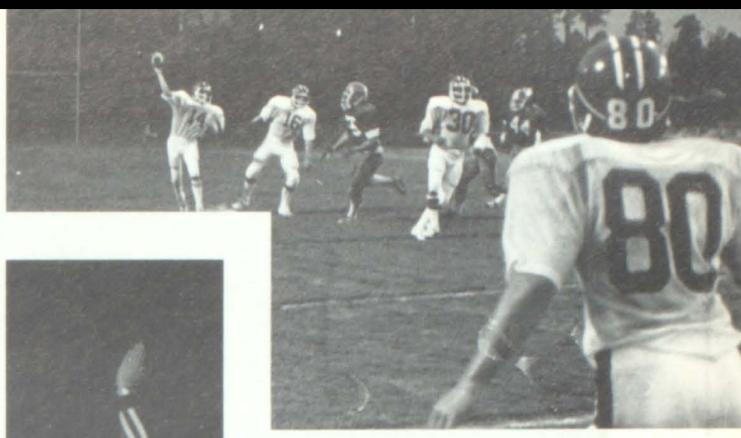

This year in football at Ridgeview brought many firsts to the school. It was Barney Alexander's first year as head football coach, bringing home a 4-6 record. It was also the first time in our school's history that a Ridgeview Varsity Football team has beaten a North Springs team. The fans and cheerleaders gave tremendous support while the players played their hardest . . .

David Kelvington, Shane Neel, Bill Rary, Casey Neel, Ronnie Miller, Greg Franklin, Brian Holbrook, Michael Rosing, Scott Ladd, Butch Hubert. Second row: Coach Jim Elliott, Coach Barney Alexander, Coach Bill Thompson, Alan Rowland, Manager, Jody Dyess, Tony Lingenfelter, Bubba Hartsfield, Scott Thompson, Timmy Anderson, David Barbe, Greg Cloer, Chip Smallwood, David Rafeedie, Coach Paul McKown, Coach Hershel Robinson, Coach Wade Alexander. Third row: Chip Gullatt, Todd Sudduth, Blanding Saye, Tommy Dupree, Greg Knosher, Sam Butterworth, Scott Key, Peppie Skellie, David Shoemaker, Bob Coleman, Calvin Pinson, Scott Allison.

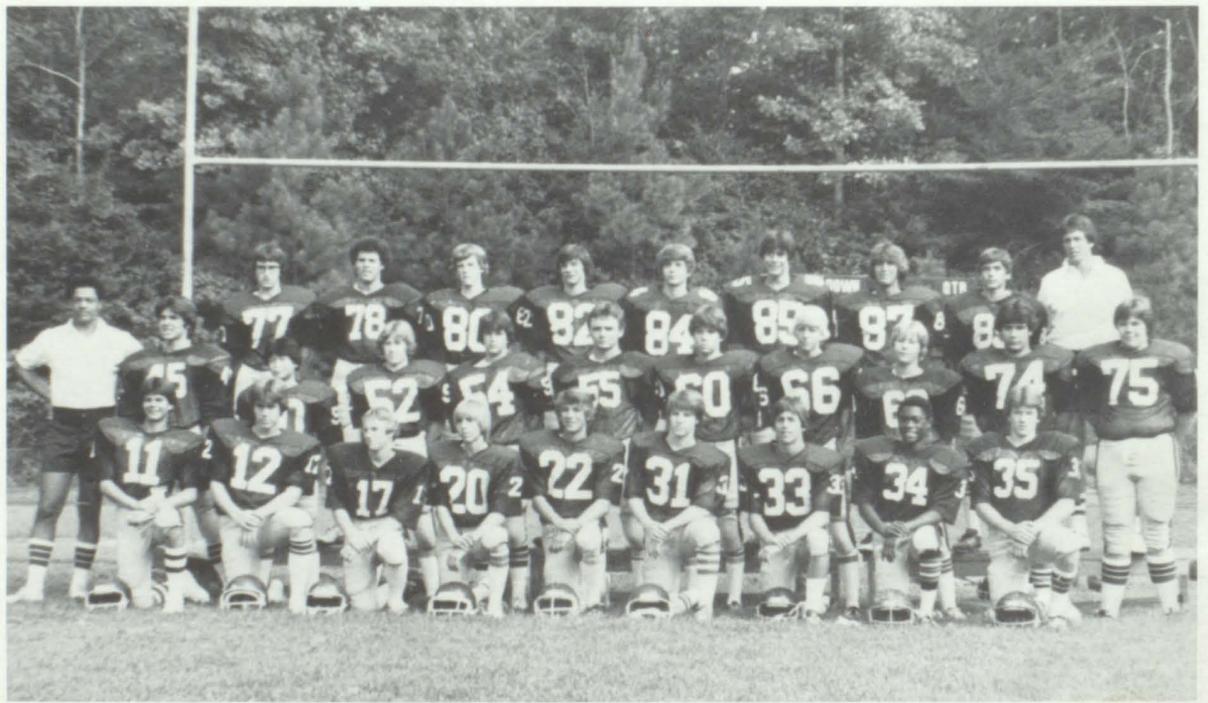

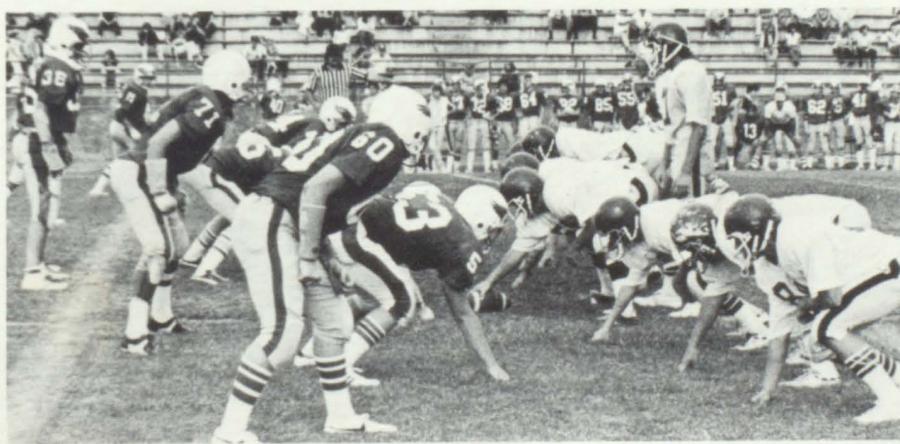

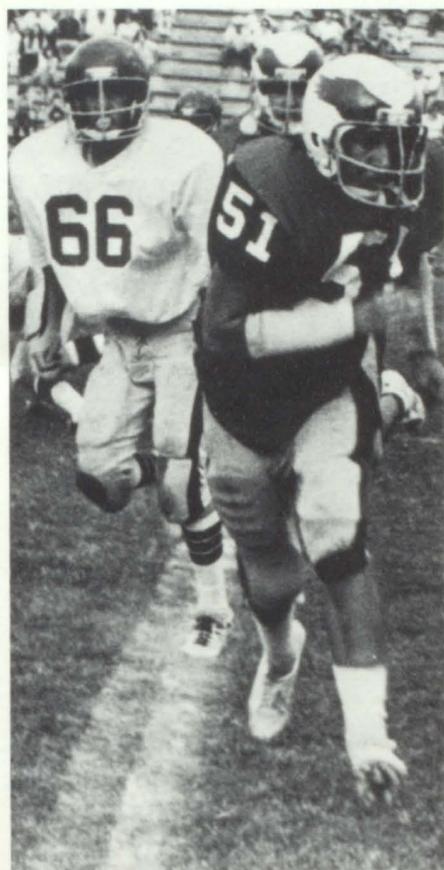

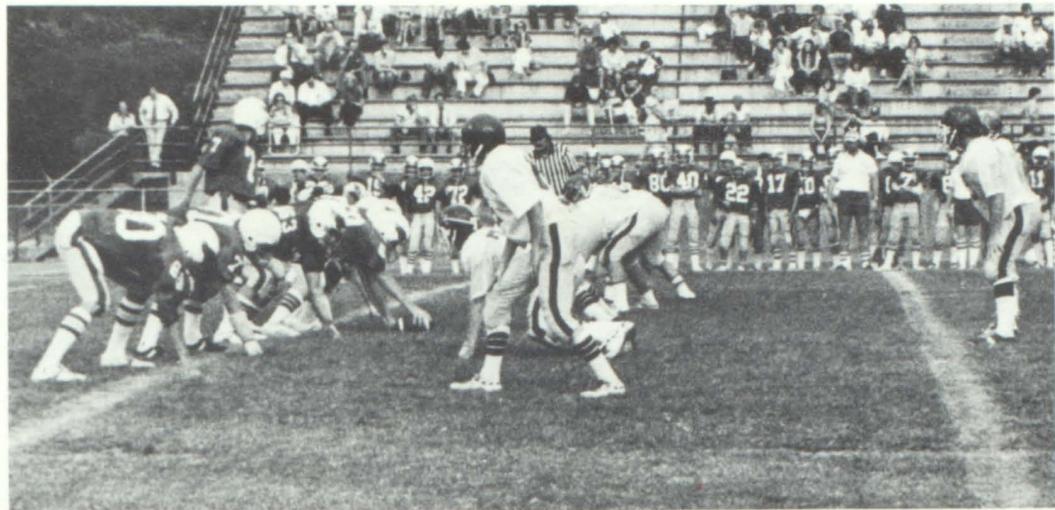

... unfortunately, the 2-2 record in sub-region play was not sufficient for Ridgeview to win the sub-region championship, or make it to the playoffs. Although spirit in the school has never been better, close was the best the skins would do for the 1980 season. Even so, the teams efforts are greatly appreciated and truly acknowledged.

VARSITY GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

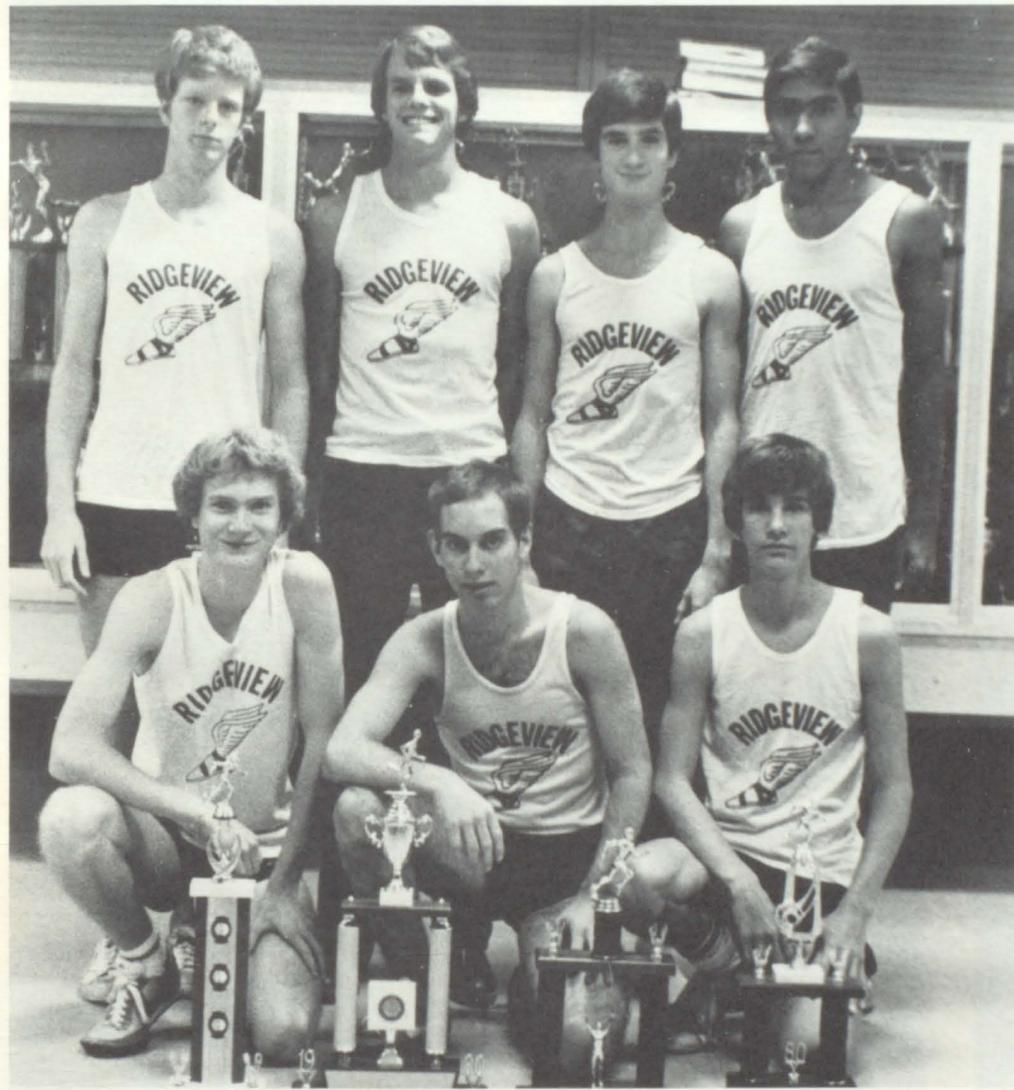

The girls Cross Country team posted another outstanding season. Led by senior Bonnie Smith as well as freshman standouts Jane Rodriguez and Jennifer Kampmeier, they finished with a record of 10-2. The team won the Westminster/Pace Invitational, Fulton County, Region, and State. This is the girls' fourth consecutive State Championship and is a team of which Ridgeview High School can well be proud.

VARSITY BOYS CROSS COUNTRY

The boys Cross Country team was awesome in 1980. Led by senior Todd Moore, they posted a 12-0 record. They captured first place in the Westminster/Pace Invitational, Fulton County, Region, and State. This is the boys' fourth State Championship in six years. The team's performance this year will be a goal for teams in the future.

DEDICATION

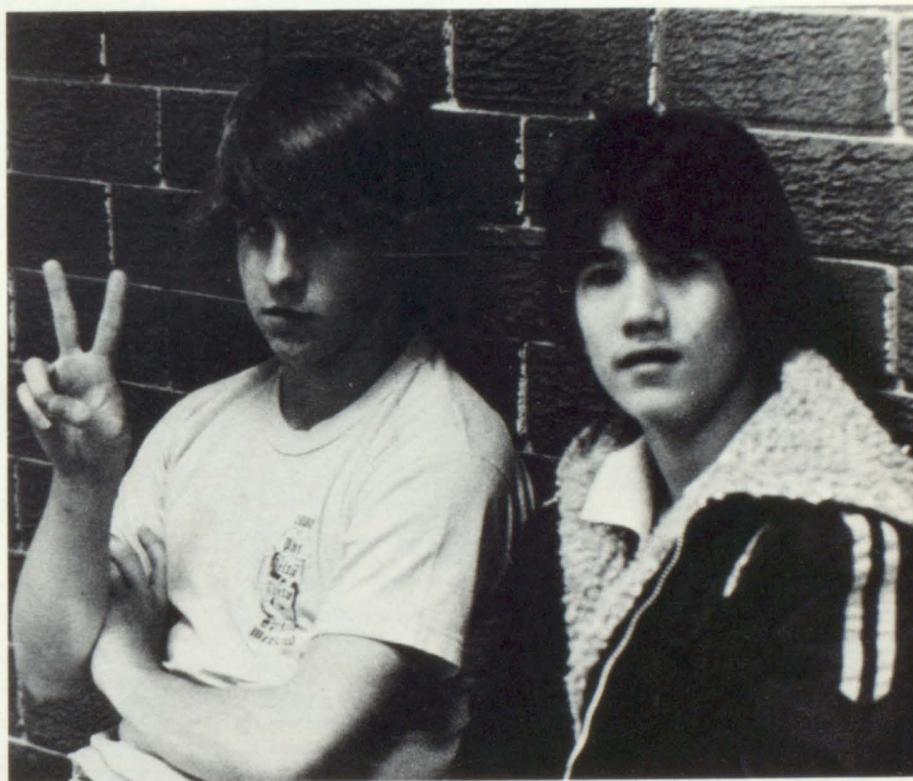

Ridgeview High School is fortunate to have among its teachers a unique character who has brightened more than one student's day in the past eleven years. Coach Hershel Robinson's friendly smile and receptive manner have endeared him in the hearts of the student body, faculty, and parents.

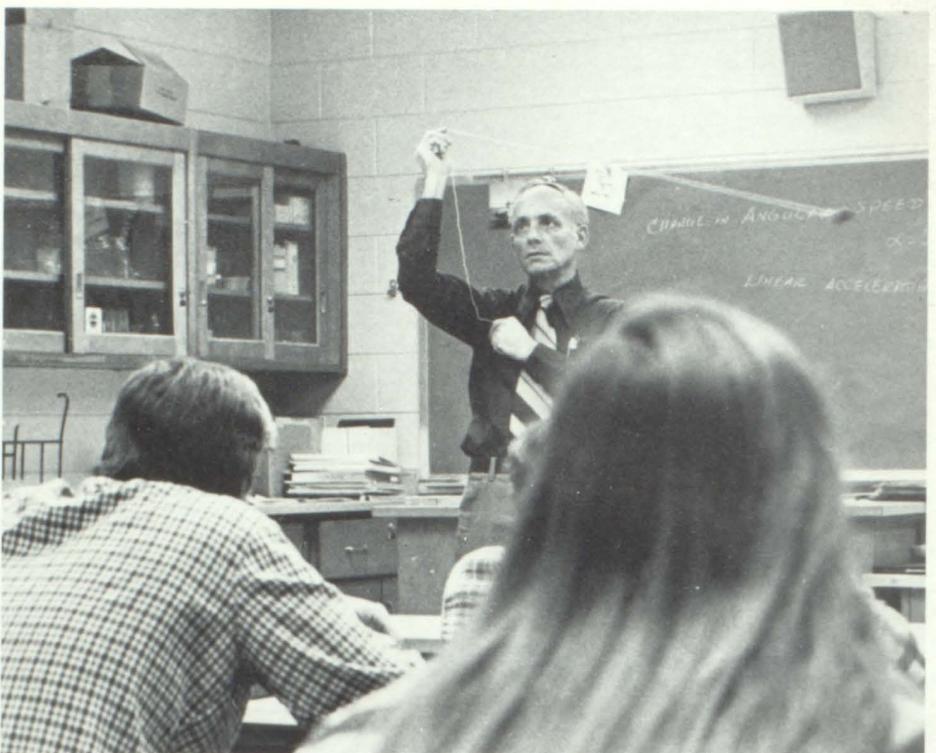

Always willing to provide a listening ear and a few comforting words of advice, Coach Robinson is like Ridgeview's own Dear Abby. He is thought of as more than just another teacher; he is respected and loved as a friend. It is with great pride and pleasure that the Viewpoint staff dedicates the 1980-81 edition to Coach Hershel Robinson.

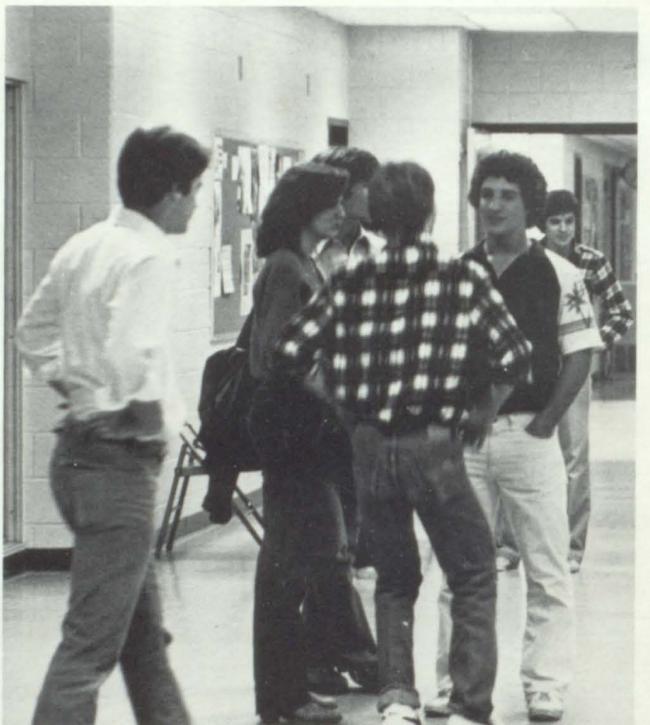

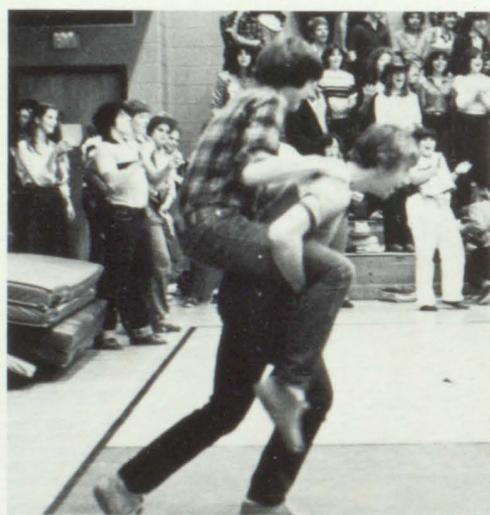

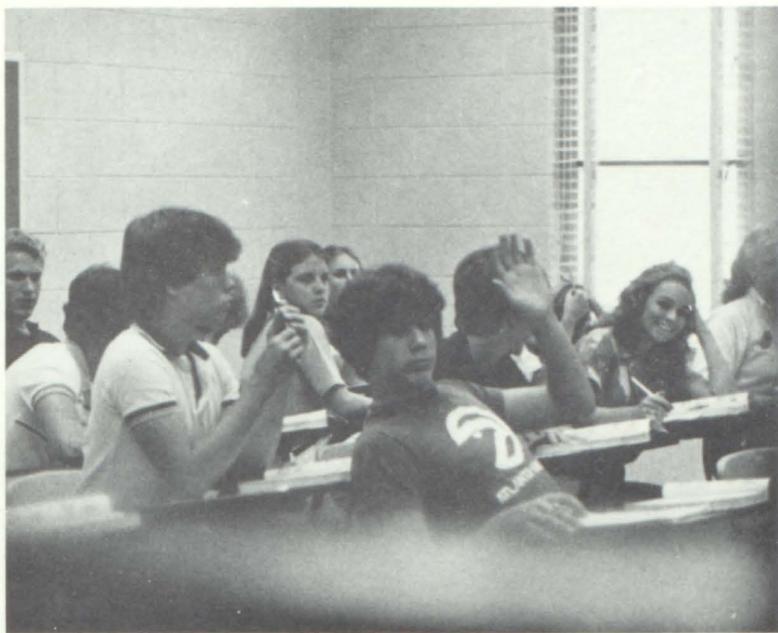

If the fabric of time is composed entirely of tiny threads, each as small and frail as the next, what gives the fabric strength? How is it that the material is able to hold each thread securely in place?

In actuality it is not the fabric at all, but rather the threads themselves which give strength to the whole.

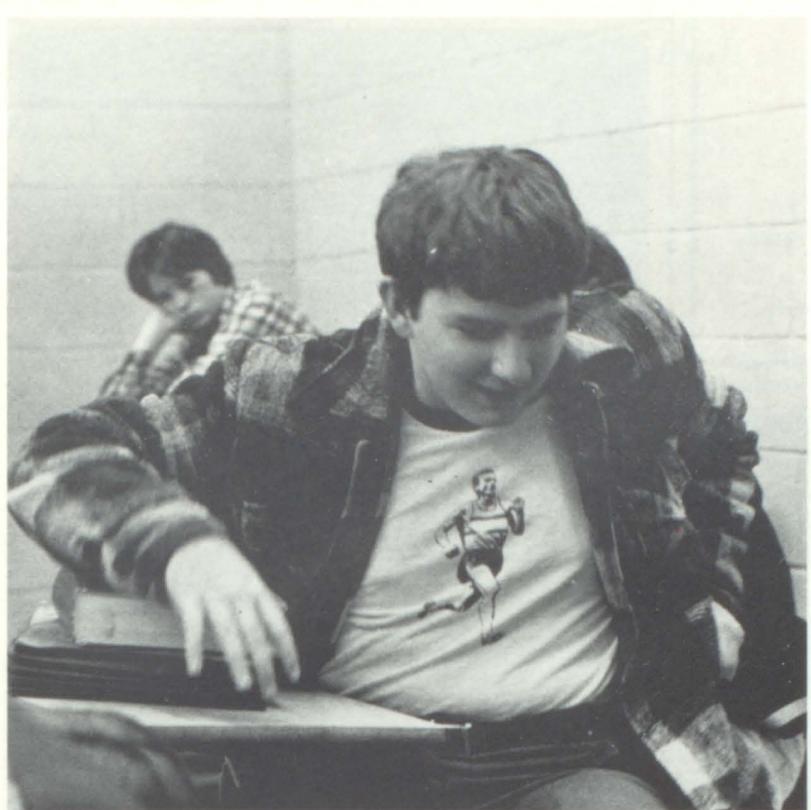

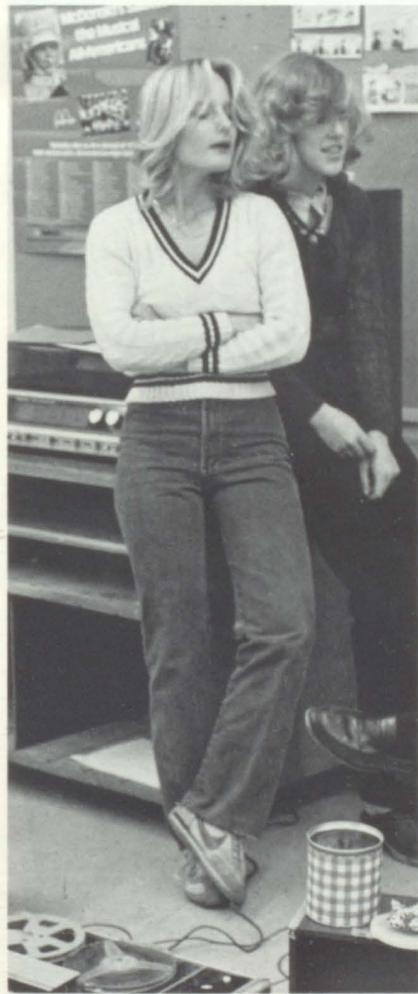

*Intertwining within each other;
binding with each other, the threads are made stronger; a little less frail; a little more secure.*

A single thread cannot hope to cross the path of every other filament composing the entire fabric,

but the threads it does come into contact with make it stronger as it continues on its journey.

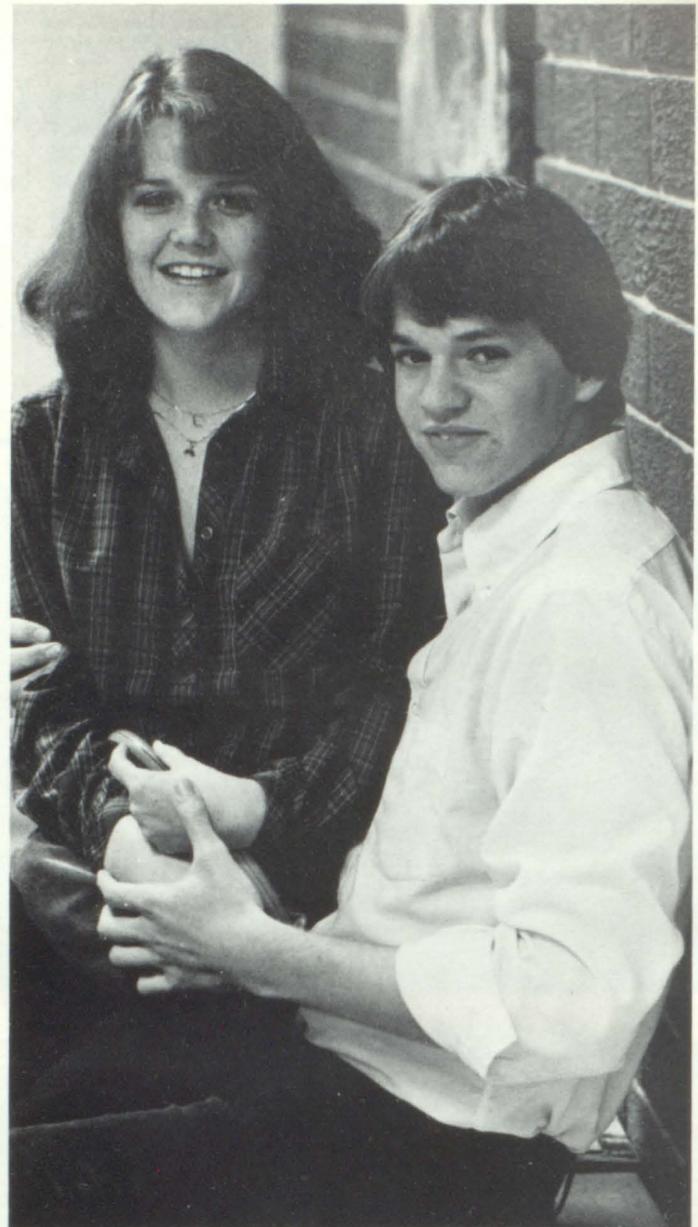

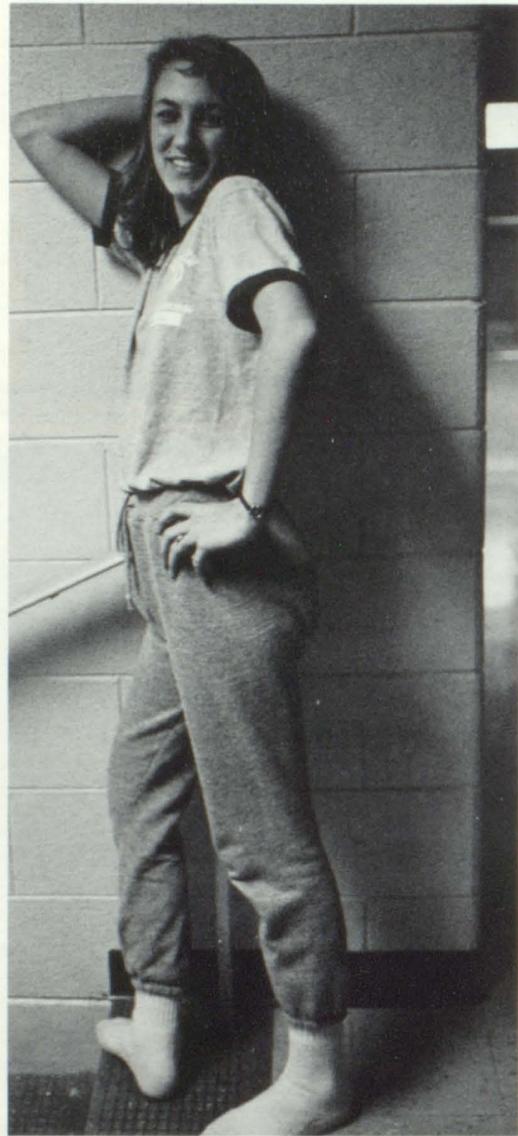

*So it is, we finally discover that,
as important as the past is,*

we can continue upon the thread we travel on secure in the knowledge that through the unity and strength we have found, the future is not as uncertain nor as frightening as it once was.

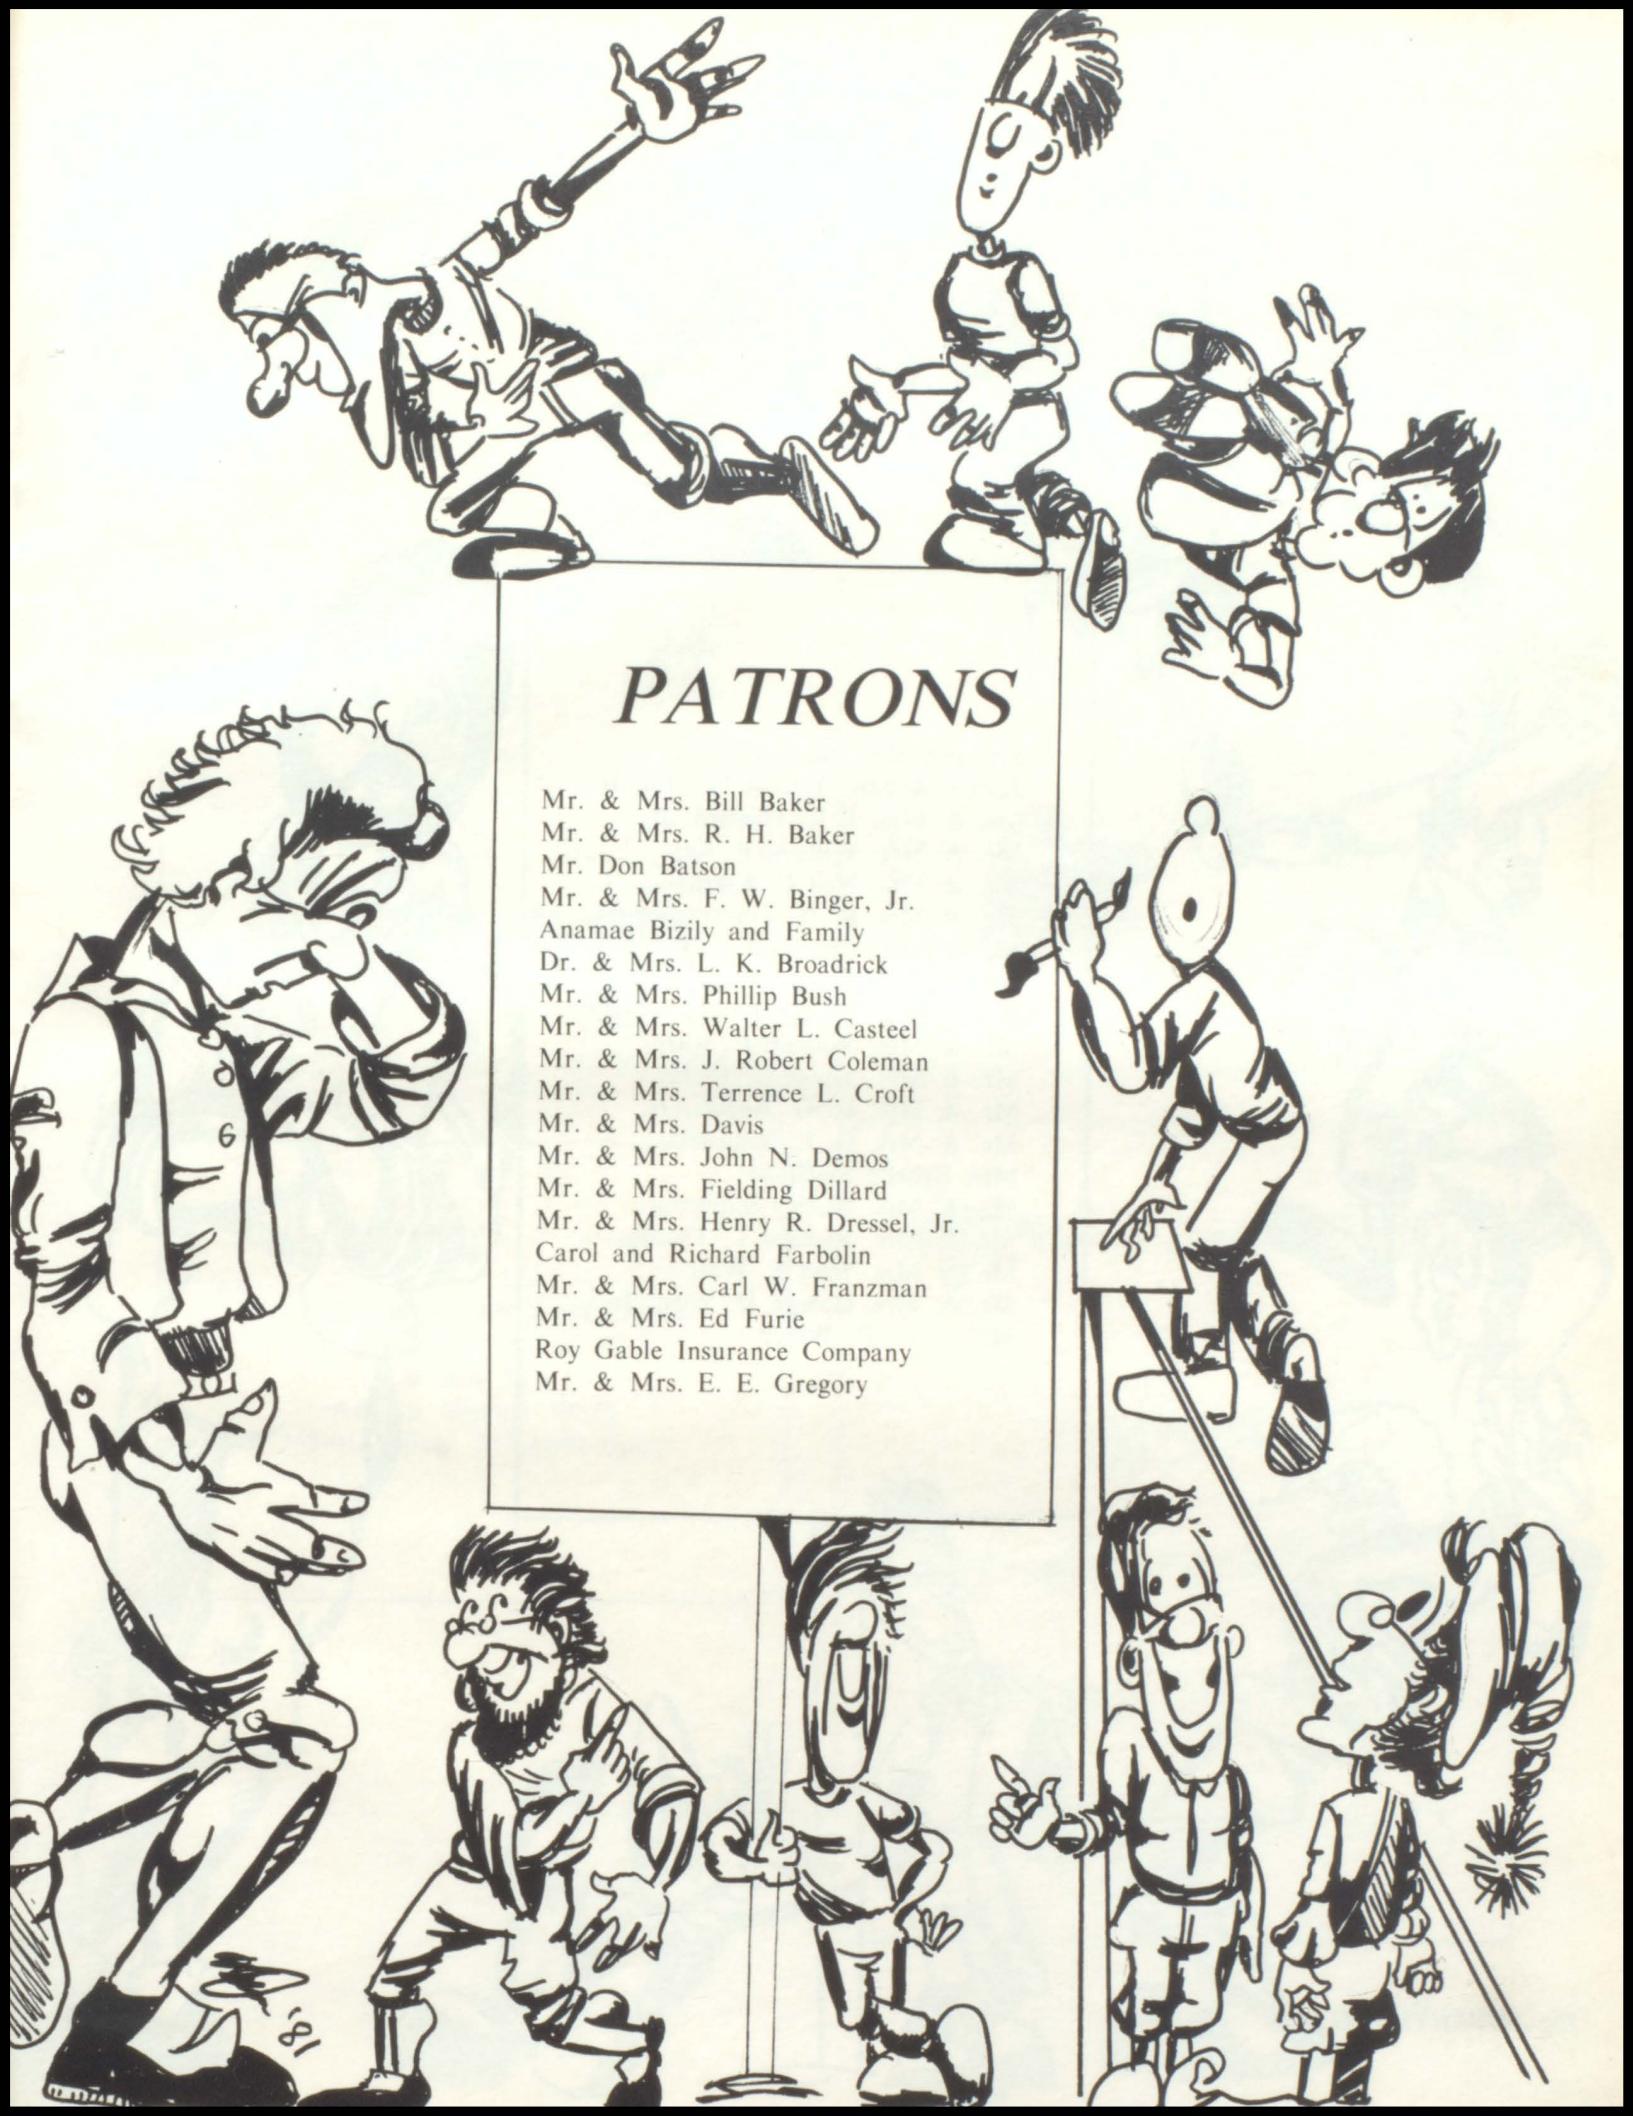

*Rather, our future,
becomes a clearer goal
each of us can attain.*
